Clues Scarce in Child Attack Case in County

ALANTON — Princess Anne County Police are still investigating the circumstances surrounding an attack by an unknown animal or fowl on a small child last week-end.

Two-year-old Tommy Mathes, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Jack Mathes of Woodhurst, was found about a mile from his home in a field on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Whitehead. The youngster was suffering from severe lacerations of the left shoulder and arm which doctors at Portsmouth Naval Hospital said would take months to heal.

Police believe it was an eagle or owl that attacked the boy, but searchers have been unable to find definite evidence to clear up the mystery.

Tommy's dog, Spot, was with him when the attack took place, but was not harmed.

Little Theatre Seeks Costumes

VIRGINIA BEACH — Wanted by the Virginia Beach Little Theatre, period costumes of the leg-o-mutton sleeve variety, and two cutaway jackets to fit a size 42 long.

Have you been to a costume ball in the past, and is the costume still around? Or perhaps there's that old trunk in the attic, full of grandmother's clothes that you've never been willing to part with, but might enjoy seeing in use once more as "The Heiress" comes to life on the stage of the Virginia Beach Little Theatre. To costume a play such as this is a tremendous job. If you can help, telephone GA 8-6682, Mrs. Sills, after 5:00 and before 7:00.

"The Heiress", a play by Ruth and Augustus Goetz, suggested by the Henry James Novel "Washington Square", will be presented by the Virginia Beach Little Theatre February 27-28, under the direction of Elizabeth Stephenson Sills.

Mrs. Sills has been a member of the Norfolk Little Theatre for twenty-six years, serving in many capacities, and is presently a member of its Board of Directors and of the Reading and Casting Committee. She was a co-founder of the Va. Beach Little Theatre, in which she has served as vice-president, treasurer, costume chairman, publicity chairman, ticket chairman, and has appeared in a wide variety of parts.

When Lesley Savage brought the Theatre-Go-Round to Virginia Beach, one of the first on hand to welcome the new group was Liz Sills. For the 7 years of

PAVAB District Boy Scouts Win Regional Honors

VIRGINIA BEACH—The Princess Anne-Virginia Beach District of Boy Scouts have placed first for achievements in Region Three of the National Boy Scouts of America according to official word received from National headquarters in Philadelphia.

The announcement was made last Thursday at an Appreciation Dinner of the PAVAB District at Princess Anne High School.

Region Three, which is first in the nation, consists of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, parts of West Virginia and North Carolina and Washington, D.C.

Great Strides
PAVAB District came up from 52nd place in the Region to sixth place by mid-summer and hit the top mark by the end of the year, District Scout Executive Winifred M. (Bill) King said.

With a total of 50 packs and troops, the District, which followed a "Can-Do" theme, took the first place honors with the following accomplishments:

- Had 26 "Can-Do" units motivating the District.
- Had 85 per cent of the units participating in the District Camporee with a total of 504 boys attending.
- Was first in the Tidewater Council in Philmont Scout Camp attendance in Cimaron, N.M. with 23 boys from PAVAB participating.

- Was first in the Tidewater Council in attendance at Camp Kiwanis at Surry, Va., with 90 per cent of the Troops present.
- Had an outstanding Fall Round-Up Rally at Oceana with 96 per cent of the unit participating.
- Was first in the Tidewater Council at the Fall Round-Up with 88 per cent of the units qualifying for Commissioner Awards.

- Was first in the Tidewater Council's "Boy A Month" promotion and awards.
- No units were lost in 1961 and all units re-chartered on time.
- Fifteen new units were organized.
- The net gain in membership totaled 918 new scouts.
- Had 82 per cent new boy increase over last year's total.
- The Scout "Can-Do" program was named after a World War II Navy program dealing with German U-boats. The aircraft carrier Guadalcanal and five destroyers sunk a staggering number of U-boats under the "Can-Do" program.

Appropriately, the PAVAB "Can-Do" promotion was spearheaded by a 5-man Navy team consisting of Capt. Joseph R.

Bayside Youth On Critical List

BAYSIDE — Fred D. Carlock, of Rampart Street, Bayside, was still on the critical list in De Paul Hospital Wednesday from injuries he received when he fell in front of a moving automobile.

The 13-year-old boy was taken to the hospital, shortly after noon Monday. He suffered a fractured leg and ankle and facial cuts.

Throwing Snowballs

Patrolman Edward Anderson of the Princess Anne police, reported that the boy and a companion were throwing snowballs at passing traffic while standing on the median strip of Shore Drive at Bay Lake Pines.

He said the boys threw a snowball at a passing truck driven by Robert Gunder of the 7900 block of Hampton Blvd., Norfolk. Anderson said the truck stopped and Carlock apparently started to cross the road toward his home, stumbled, lost his balance and fell into the path of a car.

Anderson said the car was driven by Peter Coleman Toms, 22, USN, of the 300 block of 48th St., Va. Beach. Toms was charged with reckless driving.

Anderson said witnesses told him it was an unavoidable accident. Both vehicles were headed west on Shore Drive toward Norfolk when the accident occurred.

Malibu League Meeting Tuesday

MALIBU—The Malibu Civic League will meet Tuesday at the Lynnhaven Little Neck Community Building at 8 p.m.

The executive board will meet at 7 p.m., League President Charles Warburton said.

Guest speaker will be County Commissioner of Revenue Ivan D. Mapp who will speak on Civil Defense.

Lead PAVAB To Top

Much of the success of the PAVAB "Can-Do" promotions that pushed the District to first place in Region Three was due to the efforts of (left to right) Winifred M. King, District Scout Executive, Fred Isaacs, District Chairman, and Don R. Hunt, District Commissioner.

Dimes Ball Sponsors Now Number 60; Event Popular

VIRGINIA BEACH — Additions to the list of patrons released last week for the annual March of Dimes Ball to be held Friday night at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center brings the total number of sponsors to nearly sixty.

The ball, which has for its theme "An Evening in Paris", is the community's largest and most gala benefit event of the year. Tommy Gwaltney will furnish music for dancing and intermission entertainment has been lined up that is tuneful, sparkling and gay.

There will be music to "Twist" by for those addicted to the latest dance craze.

A list of the floor show participants, as released by Mrs. V. K. Almond, entertainment chairman, includes:

Acts by: Chuck Oliver, John and Jane Hafling; Jo Ann Jordan and Angie Alexander; Bob Gheza; and Shirley Fentress and Barbara Almond.

Kick line girls are Pankie Jarrett, Jackie Sessoms, Annie Lanning, JoAnn Duncan, Stewart Grimes, and Jane Hafling.

These girls will form a chorus with Roland Robinson, Alvin Jarrett, Robert Fentress and Walter Clark.

The new list of patrons, released by Mrs. Andre Hodgson, chairman of the patrons committee, includes, in addition to those made known last week:

Mr. F. S. Royster, Jr., Mr. & Mrs. W. P. Kellam, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beaman, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Clough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner, Mr. Richard Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Syer, Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Land, Mrs. L. H. Windholz.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Whitehurst, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. DeWalt, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lippitt, Col. Walter Wrenn, USA, ret., and Mrs. Wrenn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Field, Mrs. Lomax Gwaltney, Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Wakefield.

Exchange Club Here Calling Attention to Crime Prevention

Citizens all over the United States will participate in the 15th annual observance of National Crime Prevention Week February 11-17, according to Edmond H. Johnson, President, Virginia Beach Exchange Club, local sponsor of the campaign.

Plans for the seven-day program of Crime Prevention activities here include: posting signs in business establishments throughout the city, distributing circulars to the grammar school, presenting an award to the police Officer-of-the-Year, talks to the group, displays and other special events.

"The long range objective of the campaign, sponsored by Exchange Clubs throughout the nation, is to reduce crime," Mr. Johnson said. "Our immediate goal, however, is to mobilize public opinion by acquainting people with the enormous costs of crime in terms of money and suffering and by pointing out individual responsibilities toward crime prevention."

President Johnson said National Crime Prevention Week is intended as a check-up period for the nation to review its struggle with crime and to enlist cooperation in local campaigns.

He expressed hope that citizens of Virginia Beach will give their enthusiastic support to this important observance so the menace of crime may be reduced to "less frightening proportions" immediately.

Kahn to Head Cancer Crusade For P. A. Unit

VIRGINIA BEACH—Dr. Howard Kahn, Virginia Beach ophthalmologist, has been appointed Crusade Chairman of the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society.

The Crusade Committee working with Dr. Kahn will consist of L. C. Brennan, Walton G. Saunders and William Phillips; Mrs. Wyndham Brown, executive secretary of the Princess Anne Unit, will also work with the group.

Crusade workers will solicit businesses and special gifts through the month of March and the annual house-to-house residential campaign will be held April 10.

Dr. Kahn has been working with the local cancer group for four years and has served

Beach Merger Bill Approved By Committee

RICHMOND — The House Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns voted its approval of the charter to merge Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Tuesday in General Assembly.

Del. Willard J. Moody of Portsmouth, who voted against the proposal, sought to keep alive efforts by Norfolk legislators to get a public hearing on the charter. But the committee over ruled him.

Outlook Good
The power lineup for the charter by Princess Anne-Virginia Beach political forces was apparent, and full General Assembly approval appears certain.

Moody spoke out as the committee heard a favorable report from a subcommittee on the charter. He said Norfolk has no representation on the committee and that Norfolk Del. Theodore C. Pilcher was present and wanted to ask for a hearing.

"This is not a local bill in the usual sense of the word," Moody said. "It affects other areas. This will cut off the right of Norfolk just as much as if you repealed all the rights on annexation from the code."

"We just as well face what it is. I don't think the consolidation law was passed to be used to abrogate the rights of adjoining cities."

Del. P. B. White of Princess Anne-Virginia Beach, chief patron of the charter bill, told the committee:

"I can't see where a public hearing would accomplish anything. This was overwhelmingly approved by the voters in a referendum. Certainly no one outside of our localities has anything to do with what kind of government we want."

"Nothing would be changed... the city of Norfolk would say we are cutting them off. It would be a reshuffle of the same thing we heard down there."

Voter's Choice
Del. Robert R. Gwaltney III of Hanover moved to report the charter. "The people down there have spoken... a hearing would just be taking up the time of the committee," he said.

Committee Chairman Lewis A. McMurrin Jr. of Newport News who signed the charter bill as a co-patron, called for the vote. It was all over, and Pilcher was bypassed on a chance to speak.

Earlier in the day, Pilcher and Del. Toy D. Savage Jr. of Norfolk went before the three-man subcommittee assigned to screen the charter.

They told the subcommittee the merger could "make Norfolk like Washington" and bring or a decline in property values. They asked the subcommittee to recommend a public hearing so the full impact of the merger could be aired.

Dels. Melvin L. Shreves of Accomack and William F. Parkerson Jr. of Henrico County said they could not recommend a hearing. On the subcommittee with them was Del. Lawrence

Sewage Plant Study May Lead To Enlargement

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

VIRGINIA BEACH—City Manager W. Russell Hatchett outlined a plan to make an economic and engineering study of the city's sewage treatment plant Tuesday to the State Water Control Board in Richmond.

"We want to make the study this summer to see if it is feasible to enlarge the plant to take in such areas as North Virginia Beach, Oceana, Birdneck Point and other neighboring communities before we make any changes," Hatchett said Wednesday "and the board was satisfied with our plans."

The SWCB released a statement last week stating that "inadequately treated sewage" from the city plant figures in the pollution of Linkhorn Bay.

The report, based on tests taken last summer when the plant was operating with peak loads, said "severe pollution presently exists in the vicinity of Virginia Beach Boulevard." The plant is located near the boulevard.

Operation Praised
But the report also gave the city praise by stating that the situation would be worse if it were not for "excellence of operation" in the plant which was built in 1938 and enlarged in 1951.

Both Hatchett and Virginia Beach Public Works Director A. Worth Petty told the board Tuesday that they feel other sewage contribute to the sewage pollution in the bay.

Two military installations, Ft. Story and Camp Pendleton, are served by the plant. When the contract was made, Hatchett said, the camps were only inhabited by soldiers. Since that time housing facilities have been built and families now live in the sewage facilities.

"I told the board that we never knew what amount of sewage would come into the plant from Ft. Story," Hatchett said. "Now the lines carry water and detergents from washing machines and all of that empties into the plant."

Pressure from the military installations is especially evident during summer months when the plant reaches its capacity from increased tourist population. The overload is felt most during July and August, Hatchett said.

"We reach the overload point only during the summer," Petty said, "and then it may be for only an hour or so."

Hatchett asked the board if he should cut off the military installations from the city plant but they stated they would abide by his recommendations.

"I don't think we should make any changes in our military contract until we get the results of the study we plan to make," he said.

The planned merger of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, to become effective Jan. 1, 1963, will also play a big part in the city's plant expansion.

The County Board of Supervisors already have a study underway to determine the possibility of connecting the northern part of Princess Anne County, east of Lynnhaven Bay, with the Hampton Roads-Sanitation District-Virginia Beach outside the District.

A letter to the board from Virginia Beach City Attorney George Vukos discussed the consolidation effect on the sewage problem.

"I do not think we should make any definite plans to determine what additional new facilities are going to be needed to take care of our future growth and also additional areas this year."

There is no restriction on the number of nominations that may be submitted by any one person or organization, but all nominations must be postmarked before Korte, assistant secretary-treasurer; Maj. B. W. Williams, sergeant-at-arms; Maj. Gen. M. C. Horner, second vice president; and Col. John H. Fye, director "F".

Claude King Wins Spot In Coast Tourney

VIRGINIA BEACH — Claude King, the freshman pro from Virginia Beach, fired a three-under-par 69 and won one of 18 qualifying berths for the Palm Springs Golf Classic, a $50,000 90-hole tournament starting today.

Some 250 professionals were competing for 18 berths remaining.

Gaining a berth in the rich Palm Springs tourney was a shot in the arm to King, who last week missed by one stroke of qualifying for the San Francisco International Open. Earlier in the month he missed by a few strokes of making the Los Angeles Open field.

Mrs. Claude King, wife of the young pro, who is the 1961 Virginia State Golf Assn. Open champion, reported her husband's 69.

"Claude called from Indio, Calif., and he seemed very pleased with his 69," Mrs. King said.

The Palm Springs Classic will be played over five courses, all located around Indio. The final round will be played Sunday.

AREA BOWLING NEWS

THUNDERBOLT BOWL

Thunderbolt Major League appears after two weeks of play that the second half of this league is starting out just like the first with Sealy Posturepedic leading the pack. Led by Neil Boucher with games of 222, 223, and a 622 set the matroness took 3 out of 4 from Team No. 8. Ron Glass fired a 541 & Cdr. Pendry put in a 547 for the losers.

Virginia Beach Transfer is also starting this half with a surge of power. This week knocking off Chix Restaurant 3 out of 4. Bob Vogt once again provided the power with a nice 589 series and Pappy Holder, willing hand and all, helped with a 532. For the losers Pete Hogge brought in a 554 series and Harold Smith rolled a fine 225 game and 567 set.

Kelly Supply got back into the winners circle by downing Coaches. Charley Bollen with 555, Jim Drews a 549, and Paul Goldman a 543 were all hot for Kelly's while Dick Dickson was the only one doing much for Coaches with a 568.

First half winners. Taste Freez continued their downward plunge by losing 3 to Team 3. Don Schaeffer put together a 592 series and Chuck Runyon added a 549 to lead the winning Team 3. A 228 game, 587 series by Walt Pool and a 586 series by Lee Amundson were not enough to save the faltering ice cream peddlers.

Florida Winter Home for Many Local Boaters

VIRGINIA BEACH—Many local boats are wintering in Florida and vacant slips at The Cavalier Golf & Yacht Club await their return in April.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. "Bill" Savage are living aboard their 45-foot Chris Craft, "Al-Le", at Bahia Mar Marina in Ft. Lauderdale. Another local couple, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnson, are aboard their Richardson cruiser for the winter and are making short stays at a number of Florida ports. Also at Bahia Mar are Mr. and Mrs. Al Marshall on their cruising houseboat, the "Blue Porpoise."

Jennings Cain's Chris Craft cruiser is at present in storage at Eau Gallie and Herbert Terry's 40-foot Matthews, the "Sun Fun" is at Savannah having a pair of new engines installed. Mr. Terry expects to complete his trip to Fort Lauderdale in February.

Other local yachts at Lauderdale include Roy Ivey's 42-foot Chris Craft the "Pea Picker" and Bob Adriance's Richardson cruiser the "Bounty". Bill Loyd's fly-bridge Pacemaker, the "Boo-boo" is a Pompano.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoey recently returned to Va. Beach after spending a month aboard their Chris Craft, the "Ahoey II" at Bahia Mar. The boat, now at the Cavalier, has been sold to Dr. Roy Jarrett.

$15,000 Average Income Forecast

The average family's annual income, in terms of today's purchasing power, will increase to about $15,000 by 2002. Victory over the common cold will then be history. About 35 million Americans—one out of every ten—will live in California. Population of San Francisco, Chicago and Detroit areas will have doubled and that of Metropolitan New York will have risen 150 percent to about 25 million.

These are some of the forecasts of Robert O'Brien in "40 Years From Now," an article in the fourth anniversary February issue of Reader's Digest. He predicts the United States will more industrialized, more urbanized than ever.

If the trend toward shorter working hours continues, the average worker will put in a 28-hour week. He'll take three-day week-ends, four-week vacations with pay. Machines will maintain the nation's productivity. There will be millions more youngsters to educate, millions more workers to employ, millions more oldsters to support and assimilate.

Telephones will have astonishing Tom Swift features, with picture screens to show who's at the other end of the line. You won't dial numbers "just say them aloud, and the phone will do all the rest. Communications satellites of all shapes, sizes and nationalities will circle the earth. Low-altitude satellites will pick up radio messages and deliver them minutes later as they pass another part of the world.

Orbiting the earth will be large, manned space stations: research centers, weather stations, orbital maintenance shops, space terminals for deep-space voyages to the moon and the planets. Trucks may be museum pieces; supplies and freight may cross the nation through pneumatic pipelines, with electronic sensing devices to guide shipments through the system.

Goals and Drabbles

By NELLIE P. MATTHEWS

Saturday's Games

Beachcombers 17, Lions 16

The second game really had everyone on the edge of his seat. It could have gone either way at any time... the two teams never being more than two or three points apart. Particularly pleasing was Beachcomber Whit Musick's continual scoring. He just didn't miss an opportunity. Coach Donohoe mentioned Timmy Butler and Eddie Lachman too, for their fine ball handling.

The Lions had only seven or eight of their players present, which put a pretty big load on Buddy Hines. Buddy played all four periods, and how he played! It's always been said that "big things come in small packages," and that sure is the case of Buddy. Coach Barco liked the fine work of Ricky Hanger, also.

If the flu bug continues to bite, this league will be down about half strength. All the teams had boys missing last Saturday. Here's hoping everyone will be well and back playing this week.

In the first game, the Hawks had two units operating pretty well. The big surprise was a Bucky Lawler, who scored his first, second and third baskets! His first year in basketball, Bucky played three periods and really looked good. Congratulations to Zack Clement for his fine generalship of the team so far this season. Zack is a good boy to have around. Blue Angels coach Chuck Terry complimented Doug Compton and rebounder Johnny Evans for their outstanding play.

Hugh Mayo either has a knack for getting fans out to games, or else these good people just plain love kid sports. Be it basketball, baseball, or football, we're always happy to see Betty Mayo, Meema and Uncle Dee (Hugh's mother and uncle), Katherine Woodhouse, J. V. Powell, and Jim Charlton with sons Jeff and Barry, J. V. and Jim don't even have relatives playing. You people, especially parents, must not realize what you're missing. Just come out once... we guarantee you'll not be sorry!

Something's been bugging us for a long time and just now the problem has been brought squarely into focus. Our league has RENTED the Virginia Beach High School gym for practice on Sunday afternoons. Isn't that a little ridiculous? It seems to us it's high time this area had its own recreation center and athletic field for the hundreds of pre-high school children to use in their organized sports. The Virginia Beach High School facilities certainly have been better than none, but are way overcrowded. Statistic-wise, the beach is supposed to count as a recreation area. Let's face it, the beach is used a few hours a day of the approximately 90 days of summer. Can we get something going in the right direction? Anyone have any ideas?

Saturday, Cox gym, 2 p.m., first game, Hawks vs. Beachcombers, 2nd game, 3:00 p.m., Lions vs. Blue Angels.

ARE Forum Set For This Sunday

VIRGINIA BEACH—The regular bi-weekly Sunday Forum of the Association for Research & Enlightenment will be held at its headquarters, 67th Street & Atlantic Ave., on Sunday, Feb. 4th at 3:30 p.m. Hugh Lynn Cayce, managing director of the Association and elder son of the late Edgar Cayce, will be the speaker. His subject will be: "Dust of the Stars," under which he will discuss briefly some of the ideas contained in the Edgar Cayce readings on the origin of souls in the earth. An open discussion period will follow the lecture, after which buffet dinner will be available. This event is open to the public.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

We Salute The Boy Scouts
Of Beach, County District

Recognition has come to the Boy Scouts of the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach District in that they have placed first in achievements for the year in Region Three of the National Boy Scout organization.

The distinction is a credit to all the Boy Scouts of this area for they have won this coveted first place award from among fellow Scouters in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

Early in the year the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach District ranked 52nd in the Region and by mid-summer local scouters had moved up to sixth place. At the close of the year they were the top district in the entire region.

The accomplishments of the local district were many during the year. One of the highlights of the program was the forming of 15 new units during the year and the district showed a net gain of 918 scouts for the period.

The Sun-News proudly salutes the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach District of the Boy Scouts of America and adds its congratulations to a job well done.

Record of Achievement

The year that recently closed was a year of steady progress in medical research and in clinical medicine. That is the gist of a poll of deans of medical schools which was made by the American Medical Association.

Here are a few highlights which the deans noted: Rapidly expanding knowledge in medical genetics, so important that the time is now approaching when many very serious human diseases may be eliminated entirely; new forward strides in the search for drugs that will cure or prevent cancer; development and discovery of new pharmaceuticals, particularly the new live polio vaccine, the measles vaccine, and synthetic penicillin; important new knowledge about hepatitis which may eventually lead to a vaccine against the one remaining epidemic disease which is still increasing in the United States progress in the application of electronics and computers to medicine, a further bringing together of machinery and equipment, skills and techniques, men, money and methods to the benefit of mankind.

So the story goes—a story which brings new hope and health to legions of people. It is a story of medical achievement, in all its many and varied branches, under a free system. Who can say, with reason or justice, that this country needs, wants, or can afford socialized or government dominated medicine?

Powering Progress

The theme for the seventh annual observance of National Electrical Week is "Electricity Powers Progress". It occurs during the week of February 11, birthday of Thomas Alva Edison. And these three words add up to much more than just an attractive slogan. They constitute a fact. The life of the nation—in industry, on the farm, in the home—depends on an abundant supply of electrical energy. So, in large measure, does the national defense. The push of a switch can produce miracles.

No one denies such facts as these. But there is a vast area of disagreement as to the proper source of our electrical power. There are those who believe that it should be a function of government—preferably the federal government. They would socialize the industry, at a staggering cost to the taxpayers, and create a government monopoly with life and death power over the resources of this nation and the directions its enterprises and individuals are to take.

In the light of that, consider a few facts.

Despite the inroads of tax-exempt socialized power, the business-managed investor-owned, taxpaying utilities of this country produce about 80 per cent of all our electricity. Today, with only one-sixteenth of the world's population, we have one-third of the world's electric power-producing capacity. We have more capacity than the next five leading power-producing countries in the world combined. We have a huge lead on Russia, our cold war enemy, and it is a lead that will be maintained. Specifically, Soviet goals aim at a per capita production of 3,000 kilowatt hours in 1970. We expect to reach a per capita production of 7,500 in that year.

These are matters of record. How can it be rationally argued that government—and, especially, at a time when government has its hands full and then some with problems that only government can deal with—should be a dominant factor, much less a monopolistic factor, in supplying electric power. Private enterprise brought it to record-breaking size, before government ever got into the picture.

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

Snow is lovely, exciting and a wonder to behold but enough is enough. That fickle old gal, Mother Nature, outdid herself this week with the blizzard (what other word is there?) Sunday and the lighter snow Tuesday night. Even long-time residents are beginning to think back over the years and wonder when Virginia Beach has had so much snow at one time.

That nasty varmint, the flu bug, apparently is riding in on the coattails of the snow flurries because many of the schools have been hard hit with illness. Linkhorn Park School had over 220 youngsters out with flu early this week and Louise Luford Elementary had more than 260 on the sick list last week. Schools in the Bayside area seemed more vulnerable than other sections of the county.

While most residents cuddled around blazing fireplaces with a good book over the week-end one group of stout-hearted nature lovers chose to battle the elements much as the pioneers must have done many years ago . . . camping in the woods without benefit of central heat, warm beds or television.

Boy Scout Troop No. 378 of Virginia Beach Methodist Church had planned to camp out last week-end and though the weather seemed rather threatening and some mothers took a dim view of the whole idea the group charged ahead with the trip.

After all, what better way to learn survival than having to survive? And survive they did with scarcely a runny nose in the bunch.

Leaving here Friday evening, the 14 boys (between the ages of 11 and 15) and four adults, made their way to Camp Pipsico in Surry County on the James River. Snow, rain and what-have-you, they didn't return home until late Sunday afternoon.

The snow started there Friday about midnight and by the time it stopped the country-side was covered with a seven or eight-inch white blanket. The scouts camped in tents and burrowed down in sleeping bags at night. They searched the woods for campfire logs and cooked their food the old-fashioned way, over an open fire.

When it came to washing dishes, the boys had it made. They simply melted the snow for dishwasher.

Many of the boys were working on their Golden Ax Award, others were just plain fun-loving. The Golden Ax is presented to scouts who have camped out-of-doors at least one night in each of 12 consecutive months. Some of Troop No. 378 already have 10 consecutive months to their credit. And they had no intention of losing their merits because of Mother Nature's whims.

But don't get the idea that the Golden Ax was the real motivating spirit of the camping trip. Far from it. The real reason the boys and their leaders went ahead with their plans was because they were scouts. And Scouts need to know how to provide for themselves in all weather conditions and under adverse circumstances.

One parent made the mistake of commenting that the boys were brave to face the weather to get their Golden Ax.

"You've missed the whole idea of the trip," his son informed him. "The important thing was that we learned to camp out in all kinds of weather. It's just like going to Sunday School. You get an award for attendance, but that isn't the reason you go."

LIFE SAVING COURSE

As if camping wasn't exciting enough, the scouts also had an opportunity to rescue a snowbound victim. They discovered a small hunting dog, nearly frozen, hopelessly bogged up in a deep snow drift. While trying to warm him they found a tag stating that he belonged to the Surry Hunt Club. When they broke camp they took the dog back to the club, quite satisfied that they had done a much-appreciated deed.

It was a rewarding week-end and the young scouts deserve a word of praise. If you want to see a boy's face light up, ask one of the following youngsters about his trip to Camp Pipsico: Ryan Amburn, Melvin Gooding, Mike Hallock, Jeff Headley, Tony Howard, Louis Hubbard, Calvin Jones, Tommy Noden, James Parrish, Stanley Phillips, Charles Sanders, Tom Sanders, Terry Wheddos and John Wolfe.

And even more deserving of praise are the four men who, without the benefit of teen-age enthusiasm, accompanied the Troop on their escapade. The brave souls are Scoutmaster Herbert Ort, Assistant Scoutmaster Ed Wolfe and two fathers, Thomas J. Headley and Ted Parrish.

HOT JAZZ

Nor did howling winds and blinding snow keep another dedicated group from following through with their plans Sunday. The popular Newton Thomas Trio packed Minnie's Keyboard Lounge with an impressive group of jazz lovers as he opened an extended engagement. Just proves that snow and ice will take a back seat to hot jazz any old time.

Words of wisdom came over the airwaves not too long ago from a 92-year-old minister who still has a church and a large congregation. During an interview on Art Linkletter's radio show, the elderly clergyman was asked what his secrets were for a long, happy life.

"Well, I'll tell you," he answered, "I have three rules for success. One, I stand up to be seen, I speak up to be heard; and three, I shut up to be appreciated."

With that, I, too, will shut up. I'm sure it will be appreciated.

Seahawks Near District Title

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach is one victory away from clinching the Division A, District One, Group Two basketball title after soundly trouncing York, 64 to 38, Tuesday night.

The win pushed the local's league record to 9 and 1. Overall the Seahawks have won ten games while losing 2.

Reserves played most of the final period after a well balanced attack had put the game away for the Beach quintet. Virginia Beach led 19 to 5 after the first quarter and for the night Rocky Sanderlin, Jay Horton and Chester Branscomb combined with 14, 14 and 13 pts., respectively, to insure the victory.

The Seahawk Jayvees kept pace with the varsity in the first game, winning 34 to 26. They have the same record as the varsity. Larry Mailhes was high point man with 17 for the Jayvees followed by Tommy Tarkenton with 8.

The varsity will meet Deep Creek in a Friday night encounter on the local's home court. If they win the will then be district champs.

may be called on to serve," he wrote.

The board instructed the Virginia Beach representatives to proceed as "soon as practicable" on the survey and to determine what facilities will be required. Hatchett said he hopes the study can be made within six months but the board did not put a deadline on the report and asked Hatchett to keep them posted on what progress was being made.

Beach Merger

In announcing Kellam's appointment, James W. Rawles of Richmond, Va. Division President, said, "We are delighted to have this experienced and stimulating leader at the helm again this year. Mr. Kellam's past efforts on behalf of cancer control in Virginia have been extremely valuable. His belief in the work of the American Cancer Society and his able leadership is an inspiration to all of us who are engaged in the battle against cancer."

Kellam is a senior partner in the Kellam-Eaton Insurance Co. of Virginia Beach, and secretary and treasurer of several real estate corporations in that area.

A staunch Democrat, he has been active behind the scenes in Virginia politics for many years. He managed the campaigns of Governors John S. Battle and Thomas B. Stanley. He is chairman of the First District Democratic Committee and Democratic National Committeeman from Virginia.

Kellam has also played a leading part in coordinating the work of health groups in the Tidewater Area, and has been associated with the American Cancer Society volunteer activities for several years.

fore the deadline March 15, 1962. They should be mailed to: Lane Bryant Annual Awards, 465 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, New York.

The old adage "try, try again" is most valid in making nominations. Records show that a few nominees that did not receive an Award the first time nominated did win the Award as a result of subsequent nominations; probably because of the degree of their project's development in later years.

Among the members of the 1961 Awards Committee who will make the final selection of recipients are: Rufus Carrollton Harris, President, Mercer University; Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, Director, New York World's Fair; Senator Barry Goldwater (Arizona); James F. Oates, Jr., Chairman of the Board and President of The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States; Professor Walter Piston, Composer.

Dr. Robert K. Merton, Associate Director, Bureau of Applied Social Research, Columbia University, will screen the nominations and act as advisor to the judges.

PROCLAMATIONS

WHEREAS, crime continues to be a most formidable enemy everywhere in the Nation, affecting persons of all ages, and in all stations of life, bringing misery, degradation and financial loss to law-abiding citizens, and

WHEREAS, responsibility for reversing the floodtide of crime rests ultimately upon the shoulders of each individual citizen in the Nation, and

WHEREAS, The National Exchange Club, through its local Exchange Clubs throughout the Nation, has wholeheartedly sponsored National Crime Prevention Week for 14 successive years in order to make the people aware of the ever-increasing threat of lawlessness and of their responsibility to combat it;

NOW, THEREFORE, as Mayor of the City of Virginia Beach, I do hereby proclaim that National Crime Prevention Week shall be observed February 11 through 17, 1962 in our City, and I do hereby appeal to all citizens of this community to give their support to and actively participate in the observance.

FRANK A. DUSCH, Mayor

WHEREAS, the Heart and Circulatory Diseases are this nation's and this community's Number One health enemy, accounting for more deaths than all other causes combined:

WHEREAS, these diseases are responsible for widespread suffering and disability, causing serious economic hardship in homes and businesses in our community:

WHEREAS, leading heart authorities agree that medical science is on the verge of important breakthroughs to further control heart and blood vessel diseases:

WHEREAS, the Heart Fund is our best defense against these diseases, supporting vital research and making possible professional and public education:

WHEREAS, the American Heart Association and its Chapters constitute the only voluntary health agency devoted exclusively to combating these diseases:

AND WHEREAS, The Tidewater Heart Association, an affiliate of the American Heart Association, is conducting the 1962 Heart Fund Campaign in February to support its program in this community, now, THEREFORE, I, Frank A. Dusch, Mayor of Virginia Beach, proclaim that the month of February be observed as Heart Month in this city, and I urge our citizens, through their businesses, civic and service organizations, and in their family circles to assist in achieving this victory by contributing generously to the Heart Fund Campaign of the Tidewater Heart Association.

FRANK A. DUSCH, Mayor

WHEREAS, All organizations of whatever kind, and public parochial and private schools, have been asked to emphasize the study of American History during this celebration month which contains the birth dates of the First and the Sixteenth Presidents of the United States—

George Washington and Abraham Lincoln

WHEREAS, The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, has sponsored American History Month in February since 1955

NOW, THEREFORE I, Frank A. Dusch, do request by co-operating proclamation, that every effort be made within the City of Virginia Beach to stress the vitality and freedom we enjoy as citizens of the United States of America.

The facts of written history refute the theory that indifference and ignorance can replace patriotism. Let us all contribute to the growth of our American heritage and develop finer citizens for future generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Virginia Beach to be affixed this 31st day of January in the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty Two and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty sixth.

Catholic Press Poster Contest Dates Changed

VIRGINIA BEACH — William R. Bridgeford, Catholic activities chairman for Knights of Columbus Council No. 4632, announced that a change in deadline and prize distribution has been made to the Catholic Press Month poster contest.

To insure greater preparation time the submission deadline has been moved to February 10. Final judging will be made at an open house on February 14. The posters will also go on display on this date.

Instead of the $25.00 prize as previously announced, a prize of $5.00 will be given to the best poster from three groupings. Elementary students from Star of the Sea and St. Gregory parishes in the fourth and fifth grades will compete for one prize, likewise students in the sixth and seventh grades, and finally students in the 8th grade.

Catholic Press Month is a yearly occurrence calling attention each February to the wide range of Catholic magazines and periodicals available to all readers. Greater distribution is sought as well as improvement of the media.

NBC Promotes Eight Officers

Eight officer promotions at National Bank of Commerce were announced recently by John S. Alfriend, chairman, and R. Cosby Moore, president, following the annual organization meeting of the bank's board of directors.

Promotions included two to vice president, four to assistant vice president, and two to assistant cashier.

The board re-elected Alfriend chairman and chief executive officer, and Moore was re-elected president. Additionally, all other officers were re-elected.

Advanced to vice president were Newton L. Gray, Main Office, and C. G. DeFord, manager of the Tidewater Drive Office.

Moved up from assistant cashier to assistant vice president were J. F. Meggett, Jr., assistant manager, Midtown Office, L. A. Wunnenberg, assistant manager, Tidewater Drive Office, Nathan Sykes, Jr., assistant manager, Merchants and Planters Office, and Roy M. Newton of the International Department.

Spencer A. Coleman and Donald G. Mason were elected to official status for the first time as assistant cashiers.

Gray, who began his banking career with Norfolk National Bank in 1925, came to the National Bank of Commerce on their merger in 1927. He became assistant manager of the Suburban Park Office, June 1951, was named assistant cashier in 1952 and was elected assistant vice president, November 1957. He holds a graduate certificate from the American Institute of Banking, is a life member of AIB and a former member of the national executive council.

Joining the bank in 1927, DeFord became assistant manager of the Hampton Boulevard Office in 1951. He was elected assistant cashier in January 1956 and was promoted to assistant vice president and named manager of the Tidewater Drive Office in February 1961.

Meggett began his banking career with the Virginia National Bank coming to National Bank of Commerce in the merger of 1933. He was appointed assistant cashier in 1954 and promoted to assistant manager of the Midtown Office, January 1961.

Coming to the bank in 1949 after service in the U. S. Army, Wunnenberg was elected assistant cashier and named assistant branch manager of the Tidewater Drive Office, November, 1957.

Sykes joined Merchants and Planters Bank in 1947 following service in the Army Air Force. He was promoted to assistant cashier in 1953 and joined National Bank of Commerce when the two banks merged in 1957.

Newton attended Shanghai-American School, Shanghai, China and the University of Richmond. Joining the bank in 1954 following service in the U. S. Navy, he was elected assistant cashier in 1957. Newton holds the commission of Capt., N.S. Naval Reserve.

YWCA Classes Begin Tonight

VIRGINIA BEACH — Last registration for the Virginia Beach - Princess Anne County YWCA's evening classes will be held tonight at Virginia Beach Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

Four Courses

It is the first time night courses have been offered and the 6-week series will include bridge, art, gymnastics and ballroom dancing.

The bridge courses, which will be taught by Mrs. Tom Ellis and Mrs. E. V. Caulfield.

Art will be taught by VED and gymnastics, which will be slanted for the working girl and mothers and teen-agers, will be under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Boyd.

Ballroom dancing will be taught by Miss Dolly Donelson and will include instruction in basic fox trot, waltz, all the Latin American favorites (including pachanga and cha-cha) and variations of the Twist.

All classes will be held at the Presbyterian Church except the dance courses which will be held at Miss Donelson's studio at 2310 Atlantic Avenue.

For further information on the courses, contact Mrs. Harold Bender, adult program chairman, at GA 8-2061.

Coleman came to the bank in 1955 after naval service. He holds the bank's advanced supervisory development certificate and the standard certificate of the American Institute of Banking.

A graduate of the Norfolk College of William and Mary with a Bachelor of Science degree in business, Mason joined the bank in 1957 and has served as manager of the proof-transit department since August 1961.

Learning Is Fun

Korn Honored By DAR Chapter

Sarah Constant Chapter DAR honored David Korn, former member of the faculty of the Norfolk College of William and Mary, now working on his doctorate at Georgetown University on Friday evening, January 26, at a dinner at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club.

The Americanism Medal of the National Society DAR was awarded to Korn, who will re-join the faculty of Norfolk College of William and Mary in September of this year.

Rev. R. Allen Brown, Pastor of the East Ocean View Presbyterian Church and Chaplain-General of the Sons of the American Revolution, introduced David Korn, explaining his qualifications for the award, and the medal was presented by Mrs. Thomas A. Moore, Past Regent of Sarah Constant Chapter and State Chairman of Honor Roll for the Virginia DAR, with congratulations from the society.

David Korn responded with pride and gratitude for this honor and spoke on "Americans by Choice—What Freedom Means to Us." He referred to his experiences and extensive travel in Europe and Eastern Asia in his early youth and during his service in the U. S. Army. His attractive wife, the former Maryla Ortel, of Brussels, accompanied him and graciously expressed her appreciation.

A musical program planned by Mrs. Vivian L. Ott, Americanism Chairman of the Chapter, pleased the guests greatly. John Halverson, Minister of Music of Epworth Methodist Church, accompanied Mrs. Halverson and Mrs. Doris Travers in a group of vocal solos during the evening.

Among the fifty-seven guests present were: Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Aikens, Dr. and Mrs. Roger D. Whicker, Professor and Mrs. Eliot Breneiser and Miss Dorothy Stanley, all of the faculty of Norfolk College of William and Mary, also Mr. and Mrs. David Richman of Washington, D.S., Sid Oman from Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, who presented the guest of honor a replica of the Norfolk City Mace. Other guests were Mrs. Rollin H. Israel, Regent of the Fort Nelson Chapter of Portsmouth and Mrs. J. Augustus Rawls from that chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Branch

Veterans May Get Low Cost Insurance Yet

More than three million veterans holding National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) still have the opportunity of buying a low cost total disability income rider from their GI policies.

This rider was first offered to veterans in November of 1958. Since that time nearly 800,000 of the 4.5 million policyholders eligible have applied for the rider, William J. Powers, manager of the Roanoke Veterans Administration Regional Office, said today.

Those policyholders who have bought this rider and who become totally disabled from any cause before age 60 and while their rider is in effect will receive a monthly income of $10 for each $1,000 face value of their policies.

Payments will continue for the duration of the disability regardless of its length, Powers pointed out.

However, the rider ceases to exist after age 60, and no payment is made for disabilities incurred after that age.

The premium cost of the rider varies with the policyholder's age, type of policy and its face amount.

Veterans whose age at nearest birthday is 40 or less may get the rider without physical examination. Those older are required to submit to a physical examination by either VA physicians or their own local doctors. VA medical application forms must be used.

Further information and application forms may be obtained at the Roanoke VA Regional Office, or Contact Representatives at the VA Hospitals.

Beaman of Norfolk were celebrating their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary at this time, and their presence lent interest to the occasion, as they are the parents of five member of Sarah Constant Chapter and grandparents of 19 members of the Governor John Branch Society of the Children of the American Revolution, which is sponsored by Sarah Constant Chapter.

The Sons of the American Revolution, Norfolk Chapter, was officially represented by Mr. Lawrence Whitehurst of Norfolk.

Kings Grant Pastor Speaks on Revivals

KING'S GRANT—A series of messages on revival will be brought by the pastor, Rev. Harold E. Richards, Jr., at the Kings Grant Baptist Church on King's Grant Road, Lynnhaven, during the month of February, leading up to a week of revival meetings conducted by the Rev. Roy Harrell, of Elizabeth City, N.C., from Feb. 25th through March 4th.

As a special feature during each service, the actual voices of some of the greatest preachers and evangelists of the past will be heard. Some of these being Rev. Dwight L. Moody, Billy Sunday, W. B. Riley, George W. Truett, Harry Ironsides, Mel Trotter, J. Wilbur Chapman, & General William Booth. These will be heard at both the 11:00 a.m. and the 7:30 p.m. services. Everyone is invited to attend the services, and transportation will be provided if necessary.

Center Director Guest Speaker

VIRGINIA BEACH—Dr. Patricia R. Pearce, director psychiatrist of the Atlantic Mental Hygiene Center, will speak on "The Mental Health of Our Children" at a meeting of the Linkhorn Park School P-TA Monday at 8 p.m.

Dr. Pearce, who was in charge of the Virginia State Mobile Psychiatric Clinic for five years, presently serves Accomack, Northampton and Princess Anne Counties and the City of Norfolk.

She will discuss the mental problems of children and how parents can help them at home.

Plans will also be announced for the annual spaghetti supper to be held Feb. 9 and Feb. 12 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The dinner was such a success last year the dinner committee decided to hold it this year on two nights.

Candlelight will add atmosphere to the cafeteria decorations for the affair and entertainment will be provided throughout the evening. Television will also be available in the library.

Children attending the dinner must be accompanied by an adult, general chairman, Mrs. W. S. Clement said, and tickets will not be interchangeable.

Working with Mrs. Clement are Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Rhae Adams, Mrs. John Gossom, Mrs. James Parnell, Mrs. Margaret Langford and Mrs. E. W. Creekmore.

Decorations will be under the supervision of Mrs. George Hawes, chairman, Mrs. E. G. Joyner Jr., Mrs. Robert Rhinehart and Mrs. Garland Wood.

CHEST X-RAY MOBILE UNIT TO VISIT P.A. COUNTY

The Chest X-ray Mobile Unit will visit eight different localities in Princess Anne County between January 29 and February 6. County residents are urged to take advantage of this service provided free of charge by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Princess Anne and Norfolk counties.

Tuberculosis can be cured if it is discovered and treated in time, but it is still a killer if not diagnosed in early stages. Make sure that you, your family, and your neighbors get a free chest X-ray at the most convenient time and place.

Schedule for Chest X-Ray Mobile Unit:

Thursday, Feb. 1 — Burrow Martin Drugs (Aragona), 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Friday, Feb. 2 — Bayside Bowl, (Bayside Shopping Center), 9:00 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Monday, Feb. 5 — Thalia Fire Station, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Tuesday, Feb. 6 — Fort Story, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Tuesday, Feb. 6 — Ocean Park Fire Station, 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Tommy Kirk Featured in Beach Movie

VIRGINIA BEACH — Tommy Kirk, the talented young actor who rode to fame in both television and movies, plays his wackiest role to date as Grumio, the youthful but slightly mad scientist, in Walt Disney's "Babes in Toyland."

The technicolor production will open Wednesday at the Beach Theatre.

Tommy's television achievements include "The Hardy Boys" for Walt Disney Studio and work as a former Mouseketeer in the popular Mickey Mouse Club.

His movie roles have included major parts in "Old Yeller," "The Shaggy Dog," "Swiss Family Robinson" and "The Absent-Minded Professor."

President Thomas Jefferson, who had a personal interest in the U.S. Marine Corps, selected the site for the present-day Marine Barracks in Washington, D.C., in June, 1801.

Suzie's Boss, Don Porter, in Lead Role of 'The Best Man'

DON PORTER

SCOTT BRADY

NORFOLK—When Don Porter appears in Gore Vidal's prize-winning political comedy "The Best Man" at the Center Theatre in Norfolk on Friday & Saturday, February 2 and 3rd, his role as an able fighter in politics will be one of the few he has not pursued in private life. His real home is not among the 'heady' atmosphere of Washington, D.C., but an avocado ranch in California's San Gabriel Valley. He holds a commercial pilot's license, and has been a combat photographer and photographic censor with Lord Louis Mountbatten's Southeast Asia Command. He points out, however, that he has never bossed a 'private secretary,' though such a part brought him renown among television viewers for his portrayal of Suzie's boss on "The Ann Sothern Show."

A native of Miami, Okla., Mr. Porter was brought up on his grandfather's cattle ranch, a piece of land acquired in the Sooner land rush. He moved to Portland, Oregon in his boyhood and there became interested in theatre and studied at the Portland Civic Theatre School. His stage appearances opposite Judith Anderson in "Family Portrait" and "Tower Beyond Tragedy" caught the eye of Hollywood and he was placed under contract by Universal-International. He starred in eight movies before entering wartime military service. On his discharge, he starred in a West Coast production of "Another Part of the Forest." Roles opposite Ruth Hussey, Jane Cowl and Joan Caulfield followed. His movie credits include "711 Ocean Drive," "Because You're Mine," "The Racket" and "The Turning Point."

As the witty and urbane ex-Secretary of State vying for a party's Presidential nomination in "The Best Man," Mr. Porter is joined by Peggy Converse who plays his on-stage wife — a part she plays off-stage as well. They have two children, Skip and Melissa.

This second National tour of "The Best Man" also stars Scott Brady, Hollywood's favorite 'hero-villain' and Tom Gordon of the original Broadway production, and will appear in 128 cities across the country. It will be produced by Morton Gottlieb and Henry Guettel and be directed by Martin Fried. In Norfolk "The Best Man" will play a two performance engagement. Tickets are on sale daily at the theatre box office. Phone MA 2-1700 for information.

U.S. Marines have made some 300 landings in both war and peace and planted the American flag in both hemispheres and on all continents.

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

The Cavaliers, with the first semester ending at Princess Anne High School, have been swept into a tidal wave of activities.

The annual "Miss Princess Anne" contest, sponsored by the Keyette Club, will be held Feb. 10. Four girls from each class have been chosen by a panel of Leslie Russell teachers from 60 girls to be the 12 finalists. The 12 finalists are Gail Morgan, Sandy Oliver, Sandra Martin, Nancy Gotwald, Vernel Heusel, Claudia Frias, Kathy Brown, Carol Codonna, Linda Howell, Jane Harrison, Barbara Smith and Pam Kerber. Good luck, Congratulations to Willard White, Willard, a junior at PA, placed first in the "Band Memorial" Music contest held at the Ft. Story Officer's Club recently. Willard was awarded a $50 government bond by the Bayside Lion's Club and the chance to compete in the district contest to be held at a later date.

Best of luck to Claudia Frias, a candidate for state SCA secretary, and to Nancy Foy, a candidate for secretary of the National Keyette Club.

Hats off to those students who were chosen to represent Princess Anne's Scholastic Team. The students selected for their academic achievements include Nancy Gotwald, Mitchell Brody, Paul DeRoche, Fred Keene, Jay Ferguson & Mary Fran Hughes.

Top Student

They said it couldn't be done but Mitchell Brody sure showed them! Mitchell scored a perfect 800 on the advanced math of his college boards. This is quite an achievement since Mitchell taught himself calculus and trigonometry advanced textbooks. He also scored a high 777 in physics. Mitchell plans to attend M.I.T. when he graduates and his future ambitions are to be either a scientist or engineer.

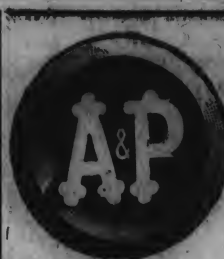

Although PA Varsity wrestling team entered their sixth match against Norview Saturday night with high hopes of a perfect season, fate seemed to have other plans for the determined grapplers. Before the first match had started the Pilots gained five points for a forfeit from ailing Bobby Faison, PA's undefeated 98-pounder. Though five of PA's undefeated six wrestlers went down to the Pilots within eight matches, the highlights of the evening for the Cavaliers came when Bill Cassell, the husky senior who has only been wrestling since the beginning of the season, defeated Norview's wonder-boy, Calvin Zongolowitz.

The evening, though definitely not a smashing success for the varsity, was not a complete loss since the Junior Varsity lead the Cavaliers to victory by topping Norview 28 to 14.

Distinguished Seniors

Attention! The 1961-62 Senior Hall of Fame has been announced! The students, seniors chosen by their classmates, are: Best All Around—Grace Bamforth, and Dick Gariotti. Whittiest—G. Robert Jones, and Sissy Girard. Most Popular—Marlene Armour and Tim Barrow. Most Talented—Anne Powell, and Ammon Tharp. Best Looking—Betty Bernard, and Jim Miller. Best Dressed—Brenda Womack, and Lee Blehm. Most Athletic—Linda German, and Steve Miller. Most Likely To Succeed—Elaine Thornton and Reid Ervin. Best Sport—Berry Folkes, & Kenny Spitzer. Most School Spirited—Sherry Breen, and Roger Provo. Most Studious—Gail Morgan, and Mitchell Brody. Most Intelligent—Nancy Gotwald, and Clifford Brown. Best Personality—Baily Spence and Sandy Oliver.

Downing Gets Top Committee Appointment

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives' Ways and Means Committee recently announced that First District Representative Thomas N. Downing had been named to the important Science and Astronautics Committee.

Downing, who will undertake his new committee assignment immediately, will continue to serve on the House Merchant Marine & Fisheries Committee and on the special subcommittee on Steamship Conferences.

Subcommittee assignment on the Science and Astronautics Committee have not yet been announced. Chairman George P. Miller (D-Calif.), who served on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee with Congressman Downing until his recent elevation to the Chairmanship of the Space Committee, is now organizing subcommittee assignments.

Downing fills one of the two vacancies created on the Science and Astronautics Committee by the death of its Chairman, Representative Overton Brooks of Louisiana and by the resignation of Representative John W. McCormack, who gave up his committee assignments when he was elected to the Speakership of the House.

The new committee assignment for the Virginia Congressman is considered to be an important one for his Congressional District because of the location of the Langley Research Center at Hampton and the unmanned space exploration facilities at Wallops Island.

The commission of Samuel Nicholas, first Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, is the earliest existing American Naval Commission. It is dated Nov. 28, 1775.

County's Outstanding Young Man

Lawrence A. Sancilio (left) receives the Princess Anne County Junior Chamber of Commerce's Distinguished Service Award as the "Young Man of the Year" from Jaycee President Winston B. Parsons. The award was made Friday at a banquet at Pine Tree Inn. Sancilio was selected for the award by business and professional men in the county. Over 200 ballots were mailed out by the Jaycees and the results designated Sancilio as the recipient. (Photo by Paul K. White)

School Staffer Joins Sun-News

PRINCESS ANNE—Up-to-date news items and the latest sports stories about Princess Anne High School and the Cavaliers will appear in the Sun-News each week, starting today, under the by-line of Princess Anne High School news correspondent Leslie Russell.

Leslie, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Russell of Baylake Pines, is a sophomore at Princess Anne and serves as exchange editor of the "Princess Anne Page," the school newspaper.

The enthusiastic young student, who hopes to study and follow the field of journalism, is president of her homeroom class and is a member of the sophomore class steering committee, the Trinity Tri-Hi-Y and Keyette Club.

A resident of the Bayside area for the past six years, Leslie is a member of Old Donation Episcopal Church and is treasurer of the Episcopal Youth Fellowship. She is a former resident of Ithaca, N.Y.

Pendleton Believes In Being Organized For School Operation

(This is one of a series of articles to appear in this paper each week on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

ARAGONA—"I am a stickler for organization," Willard V. Pendleton, principal of the new Louise Luford Elementary School, said. But most people who know him might say he is a perfectionist.

This trait is not only evident in the sparkling, clean school building, located at the rear of Aragona Village, but also in the principal's office and dress, both immaculate and neat.

Pendleton is so inclined toward organization that he maps all of his following day duties the night before and even determines what he will wear and lays out his wardrobe.

Organization, however, enables Pendleton to find more time to give "his" students. As many as 15 to 18 youngsters a day come to his office with samples of their classwork and to unload any problems they may be facing.

One first grade girl found school too formidable and refused to go. Over a period of several weeks Pendleton picked her up at home, brought her to her classroom and slowly coaxed her into the necessary routine. Today, thanks to his guidance, she has adapted to the new schedule.

"Youngsters' need personal attention," Pendleton said. "Just a wink or a smile in their direction can do wonders for their ego. I make this a habit when I walk down the halls or into the classroom."

Since he does not believe in interrupting the classroom procedures any more than absolutely necessary, Pendleton alternates his lunch period with the different classes so that he may reach more students with his personal attention.

After teaching and coaching in the Roanoke City Schools and serving as a principal in the Pitt County, N.C. school system, Pendleton came to Princess Anne County to accept the principalship of Linkhorn Park School, which was still under construction.

At the end of three years he resigned at Linkhorn Park and left his chosen profession to become president of a small restaurant chain. A year out of the education field told him what he needed to know—he couldn't turn his back on his first love, the children. So he returned to Princess Anne and taught an eighth grade before becoming principal at Luford School last September.

A native of Portsmouth, Pendleton received a bachelor's degree from East Carolina College in 1949 and a master's degree from the same institution in 1950. He and his wife, Hilda, live in Linkhorn with their two children, Billy, 11 and Jean, 7.

If he has a hobby, he said, it's sports. So enthusiastic is he over football, for instance, he saw 11 college games last fall. He also has a large collection of records, mostly of the big bands so popular a few years ago.

He is a member of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church and several professional organizations.

CHARLES FORBES IS SHRINE CLUB HEAD

PRINCESS ANNE — Charles H. Forbes was installed president of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Shrine Club recently at a "Ladies Night" dinner at Ft. Story Officer's Club.

The affair was attended by the official Divan of Khedive Temple.

Other officers include William G. Hewett, vice president; Richard R. Absalom, secretary; and W. P. Whitehurst, treasurer.

Immediate Past President Harry W. Peck was presented a silver service in appreciation of his outstanding service during 1961.

County May Get Airport

PRINCESS ANNE — Applications for an airport and riding academy will be among several rezoning requests to be heard by the Princess Anne County Planning Commission February 12 at 8 p.m.

County attorney Henry L. Lam, a flying enthusiast, has asked permission to maintain an airport on a 160-acre site near the intersection of Va. 185 and 603. The property has 1,500 feet frontage on Indian River Road.

Tessie M. Moore has requested a use permit to operate a riding academy on property fronting 678 feet on Salem Road, about 1,500 feet northwest of Landtown Road.

Also scheduled for hearing is W. W. Oliver Sr.'s request for a change in zoning from residence suburban district 3 to general commercial district three for property fronting 1,069 feet on the northwest side of Bayside Road, about 1,000 feet east of Haygood Road.

The tract is near property Oliver's son, Gordon Oliver, recently sought unsuccessfully to have rezoned so he could dig a borrow pit on it. The request was denied after Aragona Village residents petitioned against it and the Board of Supervisors inspected the property.

Area Home Builders Will Attend Washington Meet

The Tidewater Association of Home Builders will join others of a 5-state area in Washington, D.C., February 8 and 9 to study new business ideas and methods to help them meet the increased demand for new homes predicted for this decade.

Julian Rashkind, President of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders said a number of local members would attend the intensive two-day workshop sponsored by the National Association of Home Builders at the Mayflower Hotel in the capital. The goal will be to find out more about how to build better homes in all price classes at lower cost and how to market them more efficiently.

The conference is for builders from Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and the District of Columbia.

On the basis of the present growth rate of the U.S. population NAHB President Leonard Frank estimates that 2,000,000 homes a year soon will be needed compared to the 1961 volume of 1,325,000 units.

"This poses a challenge to home builders to be geared to meet the demand with a quality product at the right price," Frank said. "NAHB is determined to point the way, through practical shirt-sleeve workshop sessions of builders in various parts of the country."

The two-day meeting in Washington, first of a series of 12 throughout the country, will cover the home building subjects of greatest importance to this area. Emphasis will be on opportunities and challenges alike for builders, suppliers and sub-contractors.

The sessions will present various programs and services of NAHB of special help to builders and associates. Opening with the economic and legislative outlook for the industry, the program will stress new and practical ideas in construction, land use, and marketing.

Among the speakers will be John M. Dickerman, NAHB executive vice president; Nathaniel D. Rogg, NAHB chief economist, and Joseph J. McGrath, director of governmental affairs. NAHB Vice President Fred P. Meagher of Media, Pa., will preside.

Research will be highlighted by recent new product and method findings from NAHB's own laboratory, research house, and field testing programs.

Speakers will include Ralph Johnson, director of the NAHB Research and Technology Division; John M. King, director of research services and Milton W. Smithman, director of technical services.

Prominent builders will be participants. They will include Fred Felt, Tucker, Ga.; Robert Schmetz, Lakewood, N.J.; Leon Weiner, Wilmington, Del.; Roland Catarrina, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Robert Ledermann, director of community facilities and urban renewal services, will discuss new methods of more efficient land use.

Better marketing including trade-in techniques will be presented by William Molster, of the NAHB staff, and nationally known builder experts, such as Stephen Yeonas of Washington, D.C.; Mal Sherman, Baltimore; Bob Newsom, Dayton, Ohio; Mel Wright, Huntington, W. Va.; and W. R. Winfree, Hampton, Va.

Waranch Named By Builders

WASHINGTON—Home Builder Stanley Waranch of Norfolk, has been appointed chairman of the State Association committee of the National Association of Home Builders.

NAHB President Leonard L. Frank announced the appointment here this week at a meeting of the national executive committee.

Waranch is vice president of the Home Builders Association of Virginia, and a member and formerly president of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders at Norfolk, both affiliated with NAHB.

He was chosen, said Frank, because of his past leadership in NAHB, particularly his record as chairman of the same committee in 1960.

Frank said the Norfolk builder this year will head a program of further expansion of state association units affiliates with NAHB. Affiliated state associations number 24.

Under Waranch's previous leadership on the committee, the national association broadened its policy to enable all states to have statewide federations in addition to local affiliates.

Until 1911, when the Marine Corps established its recruit depots, fledgling Leathernecks received their rugged initiation into the Corps at historic Marine Barracks, Washington, D.C.

Singer Chooses Beach Over Other States

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach is the chosen home of Charles "Chuck" Oliver. After touring with chorales and other musical groups through every state in America and every province in Canada he decided that this resort was for him.

The talented young baritone came here a few years ago to portray the part of Stonewall Jackson in the ill-fated "Confederacy" and met Mr. and Mrs. John Covington, owners of the Sea Isle Hotel. The friendship grew until Chuck now considers them his "adopted parents."

After "The Confederacy" closed the singer left for other engagements in New York but returned last year to work with the Covingtons as assistant manager of the hotel. Now he divides his time between hotel duties during the season and tours with music groups in off-season months. When there are in-between periods he helps out at Hofheimer's Virginia Beach store.

Tours Soon
Chuck will leave next month for a 4-week tour with the Karlrud Choral and then travel six more weeks on his own solo tour. "I'll return just in time for the Easter rush at Hofheimer's," he laughed.

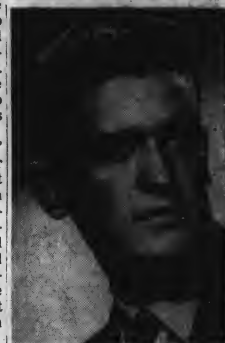

Even though he divides his time between Virginia Beach and all parts of the country, Chuck finds time to contribute to the civic and cultural progress of his adopted home. He is presently working with other volunteer performers for the March of Dimes Polio Ball Friday night and is throwing much of his "spare time" in organizing the tremendous "A Night of Gilbert and Sullivan" production the Virginia Beach Civic Chorus plans to present late in May.

The first half of the program will be devoted to the all-time favorite of Gilbert and Sullivan, Chuck said, and the last half will be the one-act operetta, "Trial by Jury." This will be one of the largest, most elaborate musicals ever presented at Virginia Beach.

Most Sundays Chuck can be found in the choir loft at Galilee Episcopal Church where he is baritone soloist.

A native of Alabama, the energetic artist came from a "huge family" but claims he is the only one who can carry a tune. Singing always came natural for him and his front porch serenading caused an interested neighbor to take him to a local voice teacher. In those early days he cut wood and kept his teacher's woodbox filled in return for voice lessons.

Music, art, writing — they are all an important part of Chuck Oliver. But they are secondary to his main interest, the hotel business. And that is why the Sea Isle and Virginia Beach have become his lasting place in life.

Charles "Chuck" Oliver

After graduating from Birmingham Southern College he received his master's degree in music education from Columbia University in New York and has been singing professionally for 12 years.

His musical credits read like a page out of the showbusiness publication "Variety" but perhaps his most famous engagements were with the Ray Charles Singers on the Perry Como television show and performances at the Radio City Music Hall.

Chuck also toured 22 weeks with Herb Shriner's "Pops American" and has been featured with the New York Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony and Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestras.

Locally he has appeared here with the "Sandpiper Playhouse" and the College of William and Mary Opera Workshop in Norfolk.

But singing isn't Chuck's only talent. He enjoys painting and is a published writer, having had articles in "Atlantic Monthly" and "Writer's Digest." He is presently working on a novel.

A very good friend, Wendell Mayes, who won an academy award for his screen adaptation of "Anatomy of a Murder," influenced Chuck in writing when the two roomed together in Mexico.

Music, art, writing — they are all an important part of Chuck Oliver. But they are secondary to his main interest, the hotel business. And that is why the Sea Isle and Virginia Beach have become his lasting place in life.

Baptist Church Here Taking Part in Mission School

VIRGINIA BEACH — The First Baptist Church of Virginia Beach will be participating in the Norfolk Baptist Association Schools of Missions the week of February 4-9.

The program includes mission study classes for all age groups and missionary addresses each evening. The primary mission study class will be taught by Mrs. F. H. Sutton. Miss Gay Whitlock and Mrs. J. S. Skipper will be teaching the Junior classes, and Mrs. J. R. Jeter is teaching the Intermediates. Mrs. C. A. Earls and Mr. J. H. Fasnack are going to teach the Young People while Mrs. Gaylor Forrest and Mr. A. H. Edwards will teach the Adult classes.

Foreign, home, and state missionaries will be heard each night at 8:00 following the mission study. Representing the Foreign Mission Board will be Dr. Joanna Maiden who serves at the American Baptist Hospital, Joinkrama, in Niger Delta, Nigeria, and Mrs. H. K. Middleton who with her husband serves in Santiago, Chile.

Rev. Irvin Burlison, pioneer worker in Grand Island, Neb., and Rev. James O. Beck who is serving his first pastorate at Bolivar Drive Baptist Church in Bradford, Penn., will speak on Home Missions.

From the state field, Rev. W.

H. Jenkins, Secretary of the Baptist Student Dept. of the Baptist General Association of Virginia and Dr. W. Rush Loving, Director of Church Relations with the University of Richmond, will be heard.

Rev. W. P. Milne, pastor of the Orcutt Baptist Church of Newport News is scheduled as stewardship speaker for Thursday evening.

Rev. W. H. Jenkins and Dr. Joanna Maiden will get the School of Missions underway at the Sunday services on February 4. The mission study classes begin on Monday, Feb. 5, at 7:00 and will be followed by the missionary address at 8:00.

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

4-H Activities and Events

By KEISTER EVANS, JR.

BACKGROUND

I wonder if Abraham Lincoln knew in 1862, when he created the United States Department of Agriculture, and made grants of land available for colleges just how great the efforts would be. Progress in agricultural know-how and improved equipment, seed and other tools has been tremendous. From these institutions have sprung the Extension Service and the 4-H Club Program that we know so well today.

Keister Evans

Virginia 4-H Club work is a part of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service program. Cooperating with VPI, the State Land-Grant College, are the United States Department of Agriculture and County Governments. The 4-H Club program in each county is supervised by the County Extension Agents. In Princess Anne County, the Extension Agents are: Mrs. Elizabeth D. Deal, Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Lois Erdman, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, E. R. Cockrell, Jr., County Agent, and myself. Many public spirited men and women, mostly parents, serve as volunteer 4-H adult leaders. Older club members share leadership responsibilities through the 4-H Junior Leadership project.

Approximately 800 boys and girls, from ten to twenty-one years of age, now belong to 4-H Clubs throughout Princess Anne County.

The purpose of 4-H Club work is to assist in the development of boys and girls into useful and desirable citizens. As in the democracy in which they live, 4-Hers voluntarily, organize their clubs, elect their officers, help plan and hold their meetings, and select their projects. In addition to the many different 4-H Club projects that are now being conducted throughout the County, the members carry out many special community service activities.

4-H NOT RESTRICTED TO RURAL AREAS

The first 4-H Clubs were known as "Corn Clubs", "Cotton Clubs", and "Canning Club", until about 1913. Since that time, much progress has been made in the 4-H Club Program and it has been reconstructed and re-designed to meet the needs of youth from all areas and environments. There are 4-H Club activities and projects designed to fit into both rural and urban communities. To illustrate this: two 4-H Clubs that have been recently organized in this county are the Sigma Club, which is located in the Pungo District and in the heart of a farming area, and the Clover Club, which is located at Va. Beach.

Local 4-H Lamb Project
Receives National Recognition
The new 4-H Feeder Lamb Project that was completed by Club members from Norfolk and Princess Anne counties in December has drawn an abundance of publicity, compliments, and recognition to our local 4-Hers. Several National magazines and publications, along with many letters to the Extension offices have offered nothing but the highest compliments to the local 4-H Club members who played such a tremendous role in making the new project a success. Hats off to Johnny Osmundson, (winner of the grand champion pen of lambs), Patricia Brickhouse (winner of the Reserve Champion Single Lamb), Butchie Parker (winner of the first place Fitting & Showmanship award), Stephanie Pecsek, and Richard Joyce for the outstanding job that each of them did in caring for and feeding out a pen of ten lambs to a desirable marketable product.

KEMPSVILLE ELEMENTARY 4-H'ERS IMPROVE SCHOOL GROUND APPEARANCE

The Kempsville Elementary School 4-H Club, under the direction of Mrs. Elaine Hollander, has elected to take it upon themselves to make sure the school grounds are kept neat and orderly. Volunteer groups meet twice weekly to patrol the school grounds and make sure that all paper, trash, and unattractive materials are removed. These 4-Hers have also selected Forestry as their Club project, and in accordance with their desire to improve the appearance of the school grounds, they are hoping to set out some trees or shrubbery to make the school ground appearance more attractive and to also eliminate erosion which is now occurring.

County 4-H'ers Move Forward in Civil Defense

Many of the 4-H Clubs in Princess Anne County have selected Civil Defense as their club project and are receiving instruction as to how they can play an important role in the county civil defense program. These 4-Hers are eagerly learning facts about civil defense that would be pertinent to all citizens in time of disaster. Instruction sessions have been given on such topics as: What to do in the event of an enemy attack; Radio Active Fallout; Fallout Shelters; and Supplies & Menus needed in Fallout Shelters. Several of these club have taken it upon themselves to educate their non-4-H friends and school mates in this important field.

PLANS UNDERWAY FOR COUNTY HONOR CLUB

A nationally recognized 4-H Honor Club is soon to be started in Princess Anne County for those 4-H Club members who have done outstanding work. To become eligible for the Honor Club, a club member must have four years of outstanding service in many different areas of club work. The members selected for the Honor Club are kept secret until the County Achievement Night, which takes place in the Spring. At this time the names are announced and on a later date a special ordination service is held for the select group who have made this very distinguished achievement.

Chicken Supreme in a Rice Ring

A suggested menu to serve with Chicken Supreme in a Rice Ring is golden squash, molded line and carrot salad, hard rolls and berry cobbler.

CHICKEN SUPREME IN A RICE RING

$\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter or margarine
 $\frac{1}{4}$  pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon pepper dash nutmeg
2 cups chicken broth
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup cream
2 cups diced cooked chicken
4 cups hot cooked rice
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon paprika

Melt butter in saucepan, add mushrooms and cook until soft but not browned. Stir in flour, salt, pepper, and nutmeg. Add broth and cream all at once, stirring constantly until smooth. Cook until thickened, stirring occasionally. Fold in chicken.

Pack rice lightly into a buttered 8-inch ring mold. Let stand in a warm place about 5 minutes. Loosen sides with knife. Unmold onto a warm platter.

Fill center of rice ring with creamed chicken. Sprinkle with paprika. Yields six servings.

When we spend with the idea of getting the most for our dollar, we usually think in terms of value whether purchases are clothing, household equipment, furnishings or whatever. And so it should be with our food dollars, for value here is an investment in health.

It is a simple matter to get the most food value for our money when we know what values to look for in foods. Of first importance is nutritive value. Our bodies require many different nutrients daily to promote good health and well being, and these nutrients are furnished by the foods we eat.

One of the nutrients needs is protein — essential for growth and for repair of body tissues. Protein is supplied chiefly by foods such as lean meat, fish, poultry and eggs. Nutritionists recommend that to meet our daily needs of proteins that two or more servings of such foods be included in the daily diet.

In planning meals to fulfill the daily protein needs, look to those foods in abundant supply as a means of getting the most value for your food money.

Chicken is one of the quality protein foods on the market presently in plentiful supply & inexpensive. Since chicken can be prepared in dozens of appetizing ways, it can be included frequently in meals plans without being monotonous. Fried chicken with cream gravy is a favorite, of course, and the method suggested here is an easy oven one. Chicken pieces are first dipped in evaporated milk, then rolled in a mixture of seasoned corn meal and flour for crisp crusty goodness. Another favorite is this chicken & creamy noodles combination. Two more ways to eat well and save money too.

Country-Fried Chicken

Frying chicken (about 3 lb.), cut in pieces

$\frac{1}{2}$  cup flour
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup flour
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup corn meal
 $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
Evaporated milk (about  $\frac{1}{2}$  cup)
 $\frac{1}{4}$  cup butter or fat

Wipe pieces of chicken thoroughly. Mix flour, corn meal, salt and pepper in a pie pan. Dip chicken pieces in evaporated milk, then roll in corn meal mixture. Meanwhile, melt butter in a baking dish in hot oven (400° F.). Place chicken pieces in one layer, skin side down, in a shallow baking pan. Bake 30 minutes, then turn skin side up and bake until done, about 25 to 30 minutes longer. While chicken is cooking, cook giblets in water to cover, until tender. Then make a creamy giblet gravy using the giblet broth and evaporated milk. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note—If desired, after chicken is rolled in corn meal mixture, pieces may be fried in a skillet over medium heat. Fat for frying should be about  $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch deep in skillet, and pieces should be turned frequently for even browning and cooking.

Chicken and Noodles

1 chicken (about 4 lb.), cut in pieces
3 cups water
2 teaspoons salt
 $\frac{1}{4}$  teaspoon pepper
1 tall can evaporated milk (1 $\frac{1}{2}$  cups)
5 cups medium noodles, uncooked (6 $\frac{1}{2}$  oz. pkg.)

Place chicken in a large kettle with water, salt and pepper. Bring to a boil, cover kettle and turn down heat. Cook slowly until chicken is tender, about 2 to 3 hours. When chicken is tender, remove from kettle and put in serving dish. Add evaporated milk to broth in kettle and bring to a boil. Add noodles and cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, about 10 minutes. Pour over chicken and serve at once. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

News for VETERANS

This is a final warning to veterans, widows, and legal custodians of children, who are receiving pensions from the Veterans Administration. Only three fourths of the 33,000 punched card income questionnaires have been returned to the VA up to this time, leaving only a few short days until the deadline. The instructions which came with this card say that continuation of the pension depends on returning the completed card by January 31, 1962.

If the experience of past years is of any value I know that many pensioners will put their cards aside to fill out at a more convenient time, or just simply neglect to take care of the card at all. Soon the deadline will be here and those who delayed will be passed by when the mailman delivers the February checks.

If you have lost the original card, you may obtain a replacement form Thomas A. Moore, Area Director, Division of War Veterans' Claims — Commonwealth of Virginia — 203 East City Hall Ave., Norfolk 10, Va. The Director will also assist you in filling it out.

PYTHIANS PLAN TO MEET FEBRUARY 4

A meeting will be held on February 4, 1962 at 3 o'clock at the Community House back of the Kempsville Fire Station.

All Pythians in Va. Beach and Princess Anne are invited to attend. Clyde Landry, Past Chancellor and William C. Parker, Past Chancellor will preside at the meeting. All non-members that would like to be a chartered member of this Lodge are invited. Mr. Paul Abrams, Grand Chancellor of Virginia will be present.

By DARLA SUE DESKINS

Kitty Bosher, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bosher, has just been chosen by the S.C.A. Council to run for state S.C.A. vice president. After all candidates for the office have been carefully screened it will come down to the two finalists and V. B. hopes that Kitty will be one of the two. With the possibility of nomination, Kitty said, "I'll certainly give it a good try, that's all I can do."

The high school is sure that Kitty will give it a "good try." Her past performances have shown that she is a willing worker. No responsibility is too great to be placed on her shoulders. She has more than adequately filled the job of vice president of the Junior class, secretary of the Junior Civitan, and chairman of the ticket committee for the Surf Queen Ball.

A member of the First Presbyterian Church of Virginia Beach, she is past Secretary of the Senior Fellowship, and sings in the Senior High Choir.

Although she is almost constantly on the go, she finds time to play on Mr. John Tucker's basketball team, be a member of Tri Gamma Sorority and keep up her high grades. She has been a member of the Tidewater Scholastic Team for the past 3 semesters.

A smile is just as much a part of her makeup as her lipstick. If she's missing one of the two, it's a national disaster or an unexpected pop test. Laughing and smiling are two different things, but without these she just wouldn't be Kitty.

While the leaves are busy turning red and gold, you will find Kitty soaking up the crisp fall air. She loves horseback riding and often takes long walks along the beach.

Her recreation is not limited to winter sports. During the summer, she swims and is an avid player of tennis. After a day of going hard, she relaxes with a good book—often one on philosophy.

Kitty has North Carolina Woman's College in mind for her future education. After 4 years there, she hopes to be able to teach high school English or geometry.

Virginia Beach is proud of its girl on the go, and wishes her every success.

HOW TO CHOOSE AND HANG PICTURES

Pictures, wall hangings, hanging shelves, and accessories really pep up a room. Select them cleverly and use them well to make a room interesting and individual.

Selecting Pictures

If the room is traditional, choose traditional pictures: landscapes, portraits, early American historical scenes, Currier and Ives or Godey prints, flower or bird prints. Chinese pictures, seascapes, etchings, black and white drawings can be used in any setting. Bold, abstract, modern paintings are best in modern homes. Choose pictures which you like to look at. If you get tired of your pictures, replace them. Study the colors in your pictures when you plan the color scheme of your room. Let them complement each other.

Perhaps you have a hobby which will make a wall decoration. On a piece of insulation board, mount a collection of objects, or arrange and thumb tack little pictures of places, activities or things which please you, and hang them over your desk. Make a sampler or applique a design on muslin, frame it and hang it on your wall. Two strips of Chinese wallpaper pasted on 1/2-inch insulation board could make a picture for over the mantel.

Even the best picture is enhanced by a good frame. The wrong frame may ruin a good picture. Frame an inexpensive print attractively, and you will be surprised at your good result. The frame should harmonize with the picture in character, size, and color. Large pictures take wide frames. If your picture has a mat around it, a small frame serves as a finish for the mat. Some matted pictures are hung without frames.

Mats

A mat gives space and depth to your picture. Water colors, etchings, lithographs, crayon drawings, most prints look better with mats. Oil paintings are not generally matted. You may have a picture which is effectively matted with colored or black mat board, but most pictures need a mat of ivory, white, or gray. You can make an interesting mat for water colors and sketches by stretching and gluing burlap or linen over cardboard cut the right size to mat your picture.

Where To Hang

Hang pictures at eye level or below. There is no rule about where to locate the picture in your room. Generally, we coordinate pictures with furniture; above a desk, bed, table, sofa, sideboard, or mantel. Hang the picture near enough the furniture or mantel to make the two appear as a single unit. Choose pictures in proportion to the wall space and the furniture over which you hang them. Don't put a postage stamp of a picture on a large wall. Never hang pictures in staircase fashion. Instead, hang them with top edges the same distance from the ceiling or group them. For the most restful effect, center your picture on the wall or above the piece of furniture. Sometimes, however, you can hang a picture off-center and balance it with a large plant, foliage or other arrangement.

How To Hang a Picture

Place a screw eye one third the way down from the top on each side of the back of the frame. Thread picture wire through the screw eyes. Secure one end and tighten the wire through the eyes. Cut and secure with other end. Decide just where you want the picture to hang. Hold wire and mark for picture hanger. To protect your wall, use a picture hanger instead of a nail. Use two 20-lb. hangers side by side for hanging a mirror.

For an illustrated leaflet on choosing and hanging pictures, write and request your copy from the Extension Office, Princess Anne, Virginia, and your copy will be sent you by mail.

Many Failing To Get Social Security Money

Nobody wants to lose money. Yet this is happening every day, according to Harvey J. Ridinger, Field Representative of the Norfolk Social Security Office.

This is true because many people who are 65 or older do not seem to know that they do not have to quit work completely to get all or some of their social security benefits during the year.

Under the social security law, if you are eligible for retirement benefits, you can earn up to $1,200 a year and get a benefit check for all 12 months in the year. If you make more than $1,200 you will still receive a check for any month in which you do not earn more than $100 or do not render substantial services in self-employment.

In addition, even if you earn more than $1,200 a year and work all months in the year, you may still get some benefit checks during the year. For earnings over $1,200 and up to $1,700, benefits are withheld on the basis of $1 in benefits for each $2 earned. On earnings over $1,700, $1 in benefits is withheld for each $1 earned. Therefore, the benefits a person or family can actually receive when the person earns more than $1,200 a year depends on both his total wages and the total amount of benefits due.

Ohio Man Elected President Of Ruritan National Group

Floyd I. Lower, a Lisbon, Ohio Agricultural agent, January 23 was elected president of Ruritan National, America's fastest growing service organization. Lower succeeds Robert F. Smith of Limestone, Tenn.

Other officers elected at the organization's 32nd annual convention at Miami Beach, Fla. include Harold B. Singleton of Madison Hts., Va., vice president, and T. V. Downing, Frankton, Va. and R. E. Thompson, Oceana, Va., re-elected to their respective posts of secretary and treasurer.

Directors elected are L. G. Funderbunk, Columbia, S. C.; Morris W. Currin, Durham, N. C.; Hugh H. Light, Calverton, Va.; Richard T. Speidel, Hanover, Ohio; Paul Roth, Williamsport, Md.; and Robert H. Bailey, Baileyton, Tenn.

The newly elected officers were installed during a closing banquet session on Tuesday evening, January 23. Also installed were governors of Ruritan's 30 districts.

The three-day convention featured such outstanding speakers as Theodore R. McKelvin, a former governor of Maryland and mayor of Baltimore City, and the Hon. Calvin D. Johnson, a former member of the General Assembly for the State of Illinois and United States Congress.

Ruritan National is a rural service organization composed of hundreds of local Ruritan clubs with a combined membership of more than 30,000. Founded in Holland, Va., in 1928, Ruritan now ranks sixth among the 12 leading civic clubs—and leads in percentage of growth by a wide margin.

During the session, 10 clubs were recognized for their outstanding contributions to rural needs in their area during 1961.

Clubs receiving plaques in the 12 fields of endeavor were: Youth, Tuscarora, W. Va.; Rural Church, Greenville, W. Va.; Rural Utilities, Augusta Rd., S.C.; Welfare and Highways, Midfield, Tenn.; The Home and Education, New Georgia, Ga.; Conservation, Gloucester, Va.; Recreation, Limestone, Tenn.; Agriculture, New London, Va.; Industry, Shawsville, Va., and Safety, Bloomingdale, Tenn.

BAYSIDE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

Sunday, January 28, was designated "Youth Sunday" by the Southern Convention of the United Churches of Christ and the youth occupied the pulpit of the Bayside Christian Church during the 11:00 A.M. Worship service.

The Prelude was played by Miss Barbara Smith; the Invocation and prayer was given by Miss Barbara Messick, president of the Youth Fellowship of the church. The announcements were made by Neal Shelby; the Scripture was read by Robert Howard. The morning prayer was given by Miss Carol Smith and the sermon entitled "Called to a Responsible Freedom" was divided into four phases and talks were given by the following young people: School, by Mr. Forrest Paradise; Career "Batch" Williams; Church, Laddie Krejci; Community, Elaine McBride; and the Benediction was given by Joan Busbee.

The talks on the four phases of life were the thoughts and ideas of the young people themselves. This program is one of the goals that they are to achieve during the year as set up by the Southern Convention.

As part of the Youth Program the Youth Fellowship and their guests will have an outing at the Skating Rink Friday night, February second.

School of Missions Begins Sun. At Bayside Baptist Church. Beginning Sunday, Feb. 4, and continuing through the week, The School of Missions will be held at the Bayside Baptist Church.

A different mission speaker will be heard each night at 8:00 P.M.

Speaking at the 8:30 A.M. and 11:00 A.M. Worship services Sunday will be Mrs. Hubert Middleton, Missionary to Chile. Sunday night at 7:30 P.M. Rev. W. P. Milline will speak on Stewardship.

Monday night a home missionary Rev. James O. Beck will speak.

Tuesday night, a State worker for the Baptist State Service of Virginia, Rev. W. H. Jenkins will be the speaker.

Wednesday night, Foreign Missionary Dr. Joanna Maiden from the American Baptist Hospital, Nigeria, will be the speaker.

Thursday Home Missionary, Rev. Irvin Burlison will be the speaker.

Friday, State worker, Rev. W. Rush Loving from the University of Richmond will be the speaker.

Missionary Study classes will be held at the church each night at 7:00 p. m. preceding the Missionary speakers. The public is invited.

BAYLAKE METHODIST CHURCH NEWS

Red Cross X-Ray Unit To Be At Ocean Park February 6
The Mobile X-ray unit of the American Red Cross will be at the Ocean Park Fire Station Tuesday, Feb. 6 from 2:00 p.m. until 5 p.m. All residents of the area are urged to take advantage of the Unit.

JOY Classes of Bayside Baptist To Hold Cover Dish Supper
The JOY Classes of the Bayside Baptist Church will hold a "Covered Dish Supper" Tuesday night, Feb. 6 at the church for their families and members at 6:30 p.m. at the church. The class presidents are: Mrs. Lee Brown and Mrs. J. V. DeFoe. Mrs. Shirley Young and Mrs. Loraine Carson are the two presidents of the classes.

Ocean Park Women's Club
Mrs. Odell Tiller, chairman of the Brownie Scouts, sponsored by the Ocean Park Woman's Club announced recently that the Brownie Scout Troop had adopted a child from Bethlehem of Jordan. Mrs. Tiller became interested in this project after reading about the little girl in the Christian Approach Mission. She is eleven years of age and is an orphan. The troop plans to send her a package containing gifts from the children consisting of candy, crayons, color books, material for a dress and socks. She will correspond with them and her letters will be eagerly awaited by the Brownie Troop. This program is in conjunction with the World Fellowship which will be observed by the Scouts in January and February.

Mrs. Michael Henry, District Vogue Sewing Contest Chairman, announced that the Sub-District Vogue Contest for all clubs on this side of Hampton Roads will be held February 22 with the Little Creek Woman's Club as hostess at the Fair Lanes Bowling Alley beginning at 10:30 a.m. the winner will compete with the clubs from Eastern Shore and Warwick at the Spring District meeting of the Tidewater District Federation of Woman's Clubs which will be held at the Chamberlain Hotel, March 7.

Turning Cars Major Factor In Accidents

Turning cars are a major cause of pedestrian traffic accidents each year, the Tidewater Automobile Association said today, in warning school children to remain alert when crossing the street.

"Before stepping off the curb, it pays to look to the rear as well as to the left and right to be certain the way is clear," said Frank Cox, local director. "It is all too easy to overlook vehicles approaching the intersection in preparation for a turn. Be sure to look ALL ways before crossing."

A safety poster illustrating the theme, "Watch for Turning Cars," is being distributed to schools in Virginia Beach as part of the regular monthly safety education program of Tidewater Automobile Assn. The new poster, designed by John J. McGurn, 17, an 11th grade student at Mastbaum High School, Philadelphia, Penn., was a first prize winner in the American Automobile Association's National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. The prize was awarded by a panel of nationally known judges, and the poster will be reproduced and distributed by AAA Motor Clubs in many sections of the country.

Acquisition of the site of historic Marine Barracks in Washington D.C. became a problem back in 1901 when it was discovered the cost would run at a staggering four cents a square foot.

Notes from Your

COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

Usher, passing the collection plate at church wedding: "Yes, ma'am, it is unusual, but the father of the bride requested it."

IT WAS ONLY A NOTION

Last week we talked a little bit about the future possibilities of doing weed control, spraying of alfalfa and pastures with an airplane. I have to admit that it sounded pretty good, but after checking it through and looking at all the consequences, this just isn't going to be possible. So, it looks like we are going to have to stick with our present ground equipment for applying any and all of our weed killers to any of the crops that have a weed problem.

There are three big reasons why it is not feasible to apply weed control measures by plane. First, it is harmful to the plane operator. Secondly, the drifting of residue to plants that you do not desire to kill and three, the inability to apply sufficient amounts of water to get effective coverage.

WHITE POTATO OUTLOOK

Farmers in the habit of planting white potatoes should look very carefully at their planting plans for 1962. You see, price is always governed by supply and demand, and right now we have a plentiful supply of white potatoes on storage to carry our consumer's demand of potatoes well into the harvesting season. This really means that prices aren't going to be real desirable, and certainly not high.

If you are a white potato producer, here are several suggestions that I would like to pass on that I think might be pretty simple but ones which are extremely important:

1. Plant the variety which your buyer wants.
2. Plant the chosen variety on your best potato land available. Land which will give the highest yields of highest quality potatoes.
3. Do a better job of insect control than ever before.
4. Harvest the crop when it is mature and not before.
5. When harvesting, do a better job of sizing and grading your potatoes.
6. By all means wash all potatoes.
7. Package your potatoes in the size container which your buyer wants.
8. Be careful of planting potatoes without talking to the man who will handle your crop at sale time.

I heard somewhere that a caddy is a boy who sends behind you and didn't see where it went either.

SWEET POTATO COUNCIL OF THE UNITED STATES

Last Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, your folks were fortunate enough to get rid of me for three days while I went down to N.C. State College, at Raleigh, to attend the organizational meeting of the Sweet Potato Council of the United States, Inc. This was one of the finest meetings that I have ever had the opportunity to attend. There was a great deal of good educational material presented, an excellent organizational meeting, and several jokes were heard. Incidentally, I can't repeat the jokes in the newspaper, so you will have to drop by the office for those.

Speakers who were nationally known in the sweet potato field, both research, education, and industry, were represented at the meeting. Actually, the folks there came from ten states and Washington, D.C. Papers were presented by many of the nation's top research men in the field of sweet potatoes and I was very pleased to sit back and listen. Many new things have been developed in varieties, processing, marketing, and packaging. The information that these gentlemen presented will be again presented to the sweet potato growers in Princess Anne on Thursday night, February 1, at 7:30.

On the afternoon of the first day of the conference, those present voted unanimously to adopt the proposed constitution and by-laws for the establishment of a national sweet potato organization. The Sweet potato industry is very much concerned about providing the product which the consumer demands and they felt that through this national organization, it would be possible to further provide the ultimate consumer of sweet potatoes with a product which will be enjoyed the most.

Virginia was well represented with our own Frank W. Bell, of the Virginia State Department of Agriculture, presiding over the national meeting.

There are two kinds of women: the fashionable ones and the ones who are comfortable.

THINGS AHEAD

February 1—State Sweet Potato Organizational Meeting at Parkside, Va.

February 1 — Princess Anne Marketing Association will sponsor an educational meeting of all sweet potato growers in Princess Anne County. Discussion will be led by the County Agent, covering subjects of varieties and what happens to the potato once it hits the grading belt.

February 2—1962 Feed Grain Meeting at Courtland, Va.

February 8 — Board meeting of the Princess Anne Marketing Association.

February 13 — Area 6 Soil Conservation District Meeting.

February 13-14 — Turf Grass Conference, Richmond, Va.

February 15-23 — Extension Program Planning in the County Agent's Office.

Scouters Hear Judge Kellam

VIRGINIA BEACH — Princess Anne County Circuit Court Judge Richard B. Kellam spoke on "Faith" at an Appreciation Dinner of the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach District of Boy Scouts of America last Thursday night at Princess Anne High School.

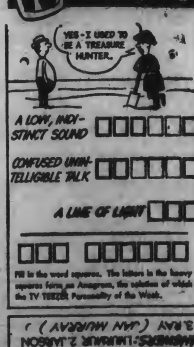

Purpose of the dinner was to honor volunteer unit leaders whose efforts put the district "over the top" in 1961. A standing ovation was given District Commissioner Don Hunt and District Scout Executive Bill King for their contributions in helping the district progress.

Highlight of the evening was the official announcement that PAVB District had placed first in Region Three. Special guests included Judge Robert S. Wahab Jr.; Tidewater Council Scout Executive Harold Pace; Council President Terry Maul; Capt. Howard R. Prince of Little Creek; and Fred Isaacs and Spencer L. Lott, both of Virginia Beach.

Arrangements for the dinner were under the direction of the activities committee, headed by Capt. Joe Horn of Oceana Naval Air Station, and members Lt. Tony DeFalco, Lt. Cliff Clifton, Maj. A. B. Jackson and Cmdr. Rocky Dawson.

Presentations of awards were made by Fred Isaacs, last year's District Chairman, and Council Scout Commissioner Jim Sands.

Service Men In The News

Army Chief Warrant Officer Thomas W. Nicholson, son of Mrs. Cathryn Nicholson, Virginia Beach, is scheduled to participate with other personnel from the 80th Transportation Company in Exercise Great Bear, a joint U.S.-Canadian winter maneuver in Alaska, Feb. 12-21.

The exercise will test cold weather military doctrine and the ability of the two allied armies to work together as a fighting team. Exercise Great Bear will be conducted in the vicinity of Tanagross and Eielson Air Force Base, one of the most rugged areas over which an Alaskan maneuver has ever been held. Principle terrain features in the 3,200-square mile maneuver area are the heavily forested lowlands of the Tanana river valley and the mountains, which range as high as 4,000 feet, converging on both sides of the valley.

An aviator in the company at Fort Richardson, Alaska, Nicholson entered the Army in 1946 and arrived in Alaska in June 1960 on this tour of duty.

The 34-year-old warrant officer is a 1946 graduate of Oceana High School.

His wife, Carol, is with him in Alaska.

Army Pvt. Benjamin A. Smith,

Legend has it that the British spared historic Marine Barracks in the burning of Washington in 1814 out of respect for the Marines' magnificent stand at Bladensburg.

son of Mrs. Fannie Smith, Craeds, Va., completed the 9-week ordnance supply course at The Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., Jan. 19.

During the course Smith received instruction in the receipt, storage and issuance of ordnance equipment and supplies.

The 24-year-old soldier entered the Army last August and completed basic training at Ft. Jackson, S.C.

He is a 1955 graduate of Princess Anne Training High School in Euclid. Before entering the Army, Smith was employed at the Naval Supply Center, Norfolk.

Army 2d Lt. Robert F. Williamson, 22, son of Mr. & Mrs. Benjamin F. Williamson Jr., 203 White Hill rd., Virginia Beach, completed the 20-week field artillery officer basic course at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla., January 16.

The course, designed for newly-commissioned officers, trained Lt. Williamson in communications, artillery transport, guided missile principles, air defense tactics and weapons, field artillery tactics and target acquisition.

The school emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

Lieutenant Williamson entered the Army last July. The lieutenant is a 1957 graduate of Princess Anne High School, Lynnhaven, and a 1961 graduate of Virginia Military Institute.

Where would you place them?

Was your home wired in 1950 or before? Then you can certainly think of six or a dozen spots where you'd like added electric outlets for your new lights and appliances. But remember, outlets alone won't do it. You need HOUSEPOWER to back them. For only modern HOUSEPOWER wiring can bring in and distribute enough electricity for all your electric servants and new ones you plan to add. Look in the Yellow Pages now, or ask VEPCO for the name of a nearby Authorized Housepower Contractor. Let him tell you how little it costs to up-date your wiring, and give you plenty of outlets and plenty of power for better living today and tomorrow.

Merger Hearing Set for Today

RICHMOND — The smooth-sailing Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County merger bill experienced last week when the House of Delegates overwhelmingly approved it, hit a snag Tuesday when the State Senate Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns set a public hearing on the charter.

Request for the hearing, which was strongly protested by beach and county representatives, was filed by Norfolk Sen. Edward L. Breeden Jr. on the basis that Norfolk officials should have a chance to be heard.

The hearing has been scheduled for 3 p.m. today.

Norfolk Mayor W. Fred Duckworth said Tuesday night that city officials are making plans on how best to use the public hearing and will talk with Norfolk's General Assembly representatives to "work out our strategy."

Argue Delay

Sen. E. Almer Ames Jr. and Del. P. B. White, who represent the Beach and the county, argued against the delay for the House of Delegates-approved merger charter.

"This same thing came up before the House committee and was rejected," White said. "This bill was approved by an 85-9 vote in the House."

"The City of Norfolk wants to come up and rehearse what all of us already have heard about annexation. This is just a local charter bill... nothing can be accomplished by postponement," he said.

Sen. Mosby G. Perrow Jr. of Lynchburg, chairman of the committee, told White:

"Since Sen. Breeden has asked for an opportunity to be heard, it is the opinion of the chairman that it should be allowed."

Ames told Perrow he could understand why a hearing would be useful if something could come of it. "But I feel no useful purpose will be served. It was not allowed in the House," Ames said.

The House committee that considered the merger charter brushed aside a proposal for a public hearing and sent the bill to the House for approval.

The action by the Senate committee was the first stall for the fast-moving merger charter which is the main goal of Princess Anne and Virginia Beach in this session of the assembly.

Cancer Crusade Names Two to Special Gifts

VIRGINIA BEACH — J. B. Wood and Doug Davenport will head the special gifts committee for the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society's Crusade Drive, according to Crusade Chairman Dr. Howard Kahn.

Captains to work with the co-chairmen on the special gifts committee will be announced later.

During the 1961 drive, the Princess Anne Unit collected $17,174.02, Dr. Kahn said. All of the money collected in the state last year was used in Virginia. Four grants, totaling $110,501, were given the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond and two grants, totaling $182,000, were given the University of Virginia at Charlottesville.

Many residents do not realize that the local cancer unit maintains offices at 2603 Pacific Avenue. Any cancer patient in the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County area will find any information or assistance they need through this office. All records are confidential.

Many free services, regardless of the patient's circumstances, are available. Last year the local unit distributed 12,212 dressings of various sizes, 82 pieces of sickroom equipment, made 39 trips to the tumor clinic in Norfolk, and supplied information service to 94 persons.

Most of this work is done on a volunteer basis. Many women come to the office once a week to get dressing fillers which are then distributed to various church groups for final sewing. The sterile dressings are then stacked in the Pacific Avenue office until needed by cancer patients.

KIWANIS CLUB

Lt. Gov. Jimmie Jones was guest of the Virginia Beach Kiwanis Club Wednesday night at the Cavalier Golf & Yacht Club.

Governor Jones presented slides on Kiwanis education and on the objectives of the service club for 1962.

Great Neck Garden Club

GREAT NECK — The Great Neck Garden Club will meet Wednesday at John B. Dey Elementary School at 7:30 p.m. Ocie Barnes will speak on general horticulture and hostesses will be Mrs. Fell and Mrs. Godfrey.

Lynnhaven Church Planned

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the proposed Lynnhaven Colony United Church (Congregational Christian) were held Sunday at the Church site on Great Neck Road. Under the supervision of the pastor, the Rev. Samuel D. Nelson, the building committee was first headed by Mrs. June Anderson and then by George Core. The new building will seat about 350 persons and will contain the pastor's study. The choir and organ will be located on the balcony at the rear of the church and the entire building will be air-conditioned. Fox-Sadler Corp. of Virginia Beach are the general contractors and MacLane and Chewing of Virginia Beach and Washington, D.C., are the architects.

Police Officer of the Year

Dr. Ira L. Hancock Jr. (left) presents a plaque to Clark Whitehurst, naming him Police Officer of the Year. ## County Officer Gets Award

PRINCESS ANNE — The FOPA No. 8 of Princess Anne honored the Police Officer of the Year at a Banquet at Shore Drive Inn last Thursday evening.

Clark Whitehurst was named for the honor and a plaque was presented to him by Dr. Ira L. Hancock Jr.

Judge Richard Kellam was the speaker for the occasion.

Members of the Police and Trial Board, Board of Supervisors, constitutional officers & members of the Princess Anne Police Department and their wives were guests.

John Collins, vice-president, presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Everett Wilson.

Convention Center Here Brings Architects Distinction Papers

RICHMOND — The Alan B. Shepard Convention Center brought its architects, Louis A. Oliver and Herbert L. Smith, certificates of distinction recently at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond. Eleven state architects, designers & photographers received the certificates.

Virginia Beach's aluminum-domed center will be featured in a Traveling Exhibition that will circulate throughout the state for two years.

Other Oliver & Smith designs included in the exhibit are Morgan Memorial Library, Suffolk; Library for Norfolk College of William and Mary; Louis Peterson residence, Virginia Beach; Great Bridge Elementary School, Norfolk County; Federal Building and Post Office, Portsmouth; and WNOR Radio studios and offices, Norfolk.

The exhibition is the second of a biennial series in which an NAS, who received head injuries in the accident.

Earl L. Alphin, 27, and William J. Austin, 19, both of Oceana-NAS, are listed in satisfactory condition at the hospital.

Police said Alphin, with his wife and Betty and Dale Jones as passengers, was traveling north on Atlantic Avenue and Austin, with Craig as a passenger, was traveling south. Alphin was turning left at 83rd Street, at the Ft. Story cut-off, when the collision occurred.

Craig's death Sunday brought the total highway fatalities in Princess Anne County to seven since the first of the year.

Firemen Get Unusual Call

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department answered one of its most unusual calls in 32 years early Sunday morning.

An Atlantic Avenue window-shopper was looking at the latest fashions in Smith & Welton's window when rays from the sun, reflecting in a mirror in the store, set one of the mannequins afire.

The unidentified woman called the fire department and the blazing dummy was soon under control.

The Department is often called to save a cat in a tree but in a recent 5-day period they were called on to "save" people who had locked themselves out of the house. The first call, on Jan. 31 at 10:20 a.m., occurred at 22nd St. and Atlantic Ave. and the second was Sunday at 7:26 p.m. at 20th and Atlantic Avenue.

Other calls:

Jan. 31—7:52 p.m., inhalator; 1003-17th St.

Feb. 2—12:35 p.m., smoke scare; 31st St. extd.

Feb. 2—8:24 p.m., automobile; 600 blk. 25th Street.

Feb. 3—9:56 p.m., electric short circuit; 2100 blk. Atl. Ave.

Feb. 4—2:04 p.m., honest mistake; 630 Va. Ave.

Feb. 4—5:14 p.m., miscellaneous; Rt. 58-Oceana.

HEART DANCE

A dance for the benefit of the Heart Fund is scheduled for the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center on Saturday, February 17, it has been announced.

The dance is being sponsored by the Virginia Beach Moose Lodge 1998 and the hours are from 9 to 1 a.m. A donation of $3.00 will be accepted.

Skit Surprise To Recipient And Wife, Too

Virginia Beach's Assistant City Sergeant, Graham Dalton, and his wife were much surprised Tuesday night when he was spotlighted by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club in a "This Is Your Life" skit at Virginia Beach Methodist Church.

Dalton, a showman of many years standing, has been one of the stalwarts in producing the Ruritan Club's highly successful Minstrel Show each year. The event will be held this year March 21-24 at Princess Anne High School.

Third Death Claimed After Traffic Mishap

VIRGINIA BEACH—Two Virginia Beach women and an Oceana Beach man were killed in a two-car collision last Thursday night at 83rd Street and Atlantic Avenue.

Killed in the collision were Mrs. Betty R. Jones, 28, and Mrs. Ruth E. Alphin, 22, both residents of 25th Street.

Chester M. Craig, 22, Attack Squadron 75, Oceana Air Station died Sunday in Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

In serious condition at Portsmouth is Dale L. Jones, 25, Oceana, architect, designers and photographers in Virginia were invited to participate.

Seventy-six aspirants sent in 471 examples of their current production. From this broad field the Jury of Selection chose the works to compose the 1962 exhibition.

The Jury consisted of Carroll L. V. Meeks, chairman, architect and architectural historian; A. Richard DeNatale, designer and art director; and Hans Namuth, photographer.

Safety Show Coming To Beach Next Week

A safety show that has been actually enjoyed by over three and a half million high school students will appear at Virginia Beach High School on February 14.

Lt. Carl S. Pike of Jackson, Michigan, will bring his "Safety Magic" show here under the sponsorship of the Police Department & the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Rescue Squad for a 10:00 A.M. one hour performance.

Pike's traffic safety education performance is on a national tour under the sponsorship of American Trucking Associations. When in this state it is scheduled by the Virginia Highway Users Associations, the state trade association of the trucking industry. The performance is strictly non-profit and non-commercial and there is no cost to anyone locally. It is a part of the trucking industry's public service program.

Prior to spending over 13 years as a police officer Lt. Pike was a professional magician and entertainer. He acquired feats of magic and sleight-of-hand which he now uses to illustrate basic rules of safety. He delights audiences with stunts such as pouring endless amounts of water from an empty jar and making flags and banners disappear and then reappear.

Pike gives a graphic description of motor vehicle crashes which he has worked and explains what caused them and how they might have been avoided. His talks to students are heavily sprinkled with wit

Richard Holland Named to Road Post by Harrison

Virginia Beach Man Will Fill Suffolk District Position

RICHMOND—Gov. Albertis S. Harrison Jr. announced Tuesday that Richard S. Holland of North Virginia Beach has been named state highway commissioner for the Suffolk Highway District.

Holland succeeds Sol W. Rawls of Franklin whose two 4-year terms had made him, according to law, ineligible for reappointment.

YWCA Planning 'Gay Day' Series

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County YWCA will sponsor a "Gay-Day Series" for girls between the ages of 13 and 18, it was announced this week.

Registration for the 6-week series will be held February 24. Classes will start March 3 and be held every Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Deal, County Home Demonstration Agent, will teach sewing for two hours in the mornings, there will be a half-hour snack period and Mrs. Tom Ellis and Mrs. E. V. Caulfield will teach bridge during the afternoon.

At the close of the series the participants will hold an Easter luncheon which will feature a fashion show of their own designs.

Plans for the spring include classes in tennis and life saving.

Mrs. Harold Kellam and Mrs. G. R. Blosser are co-chairmen of the Y-Teen Committee, which will direct the 6-week series. Attending the recent committee meeting were Mrs. William Phillips, Mrs. Robert Crutchfield, Mrs. Litt Walker, Mrs. Deal and Mrs. Gaither Newnam.

The Virginia Beach man won out over top contender W. Fred Duckworth, Mayor of Norfolk. The present term will run until 1965.

Holland, 63, is vice chairman of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission and a question immediately arose as to whether he would be able to retain his position on that group.

Under the bridge-tunnel organization plan only one seat is to be held by a member of the Highway Commission. That position currently is held by Burgess E. Nelson of Mt. Jackson.

Gov. Harrison has said he does not "anticipate a conflict" in the two positions.

Apparently efforts are being sought to make it possible for Holland to retain his bridge-tunnel commission post. He has served with that commission from its inception and has devoted much time to getting the project financed and under construction.

Holland, a native of Holland in Nansemond County, has lived in the Norfolk area most of his life. He is president and owner of A. Wren and Sons, Inc., a Norfolk firm that manufactures truck bodies.

KEGLER'S KORNER

Keglers Korner, written by Jay B. "Pappy" Irish Mgr. of Rinaldi, Plaza Bowl, will be carried exclusively by the Sun-News.

First appearing in "The Sentinel," a Sealand Wales, British Isle's newspaper in 1954, Kegler's Korner has traveled to "The Guardian" in Manchester, England, and Langley Air Force Base paper.

It's good to start the day, or a reporter's stint, with a chuckle. Which reminds me, there was a jasper who spent all his time bowling—morning, noon and night. Of course he lost his job due to absenteeism, and his wife left him for non-support. But man, has he a swell average! Then there was Herkimer Jerkimer who went bowling one Thursday evening and failed to come home. One Thursday

Teachers League
Again, no league standings or complete list of team play. I did see that Jack Thompson was high for individual game and series scores with 214-558. He is an Outcast. Keep your eye on the 3-R's potential lady champ — a Mrs. Spence—she has a new ball, the kind with strikes built in.

Nick and Ott both place great emphasis on the Junior Bowling Programs and regard the program a primary means of combating delinquency. Both gentlemen fully advocate the saying — "Take them out of the alleys, and put them onto the lanes".

Recently, Pat Rinaldi, Nick's 17-year-old daughter, won the women's division of the Washington Daily News-Coca Cola Bowling Classic. Pat will soon be rolling exhibition matches, and giving free instruction at the Plaza Bowl.

Experienced Co-Managers
Present Co-managers of Rinaldi Plaza Bowl, when answering to their names, sound like muster time at the Pentagon. Firstly, we have Jay B. "Pappy" Irish, M/Sgt., Retired. An ex-Air Force man who has been with the bowling game, both military and civilian, for over 10 years; "Johnnie" Chisholm, C.P.O. from NAS, who is known to hundreds of bowlers in the Tidewater area, performs his stint during his off duty hours from the Navy, and who will begin full time operation with the corporation upon retiring in October. Last, but not least, is the "grave-yard" shift manager, Hank "Curley" Gray, Major, U.S.A., ret. Hank is also an old hand at the game, and is considered one of the best in the field. These are the men who will tend to your wants when you go bowling.

Some of the "extras" featured at the Plaza Bowl is the "Open Bowling Club", which entitles members of any Plaza league to "practice bowl" between the hours of 9 A.M. and 6 P.M. Monday thru Saturday, at reduced rates. School children of the grammar and high school grades bowling as a group are given greatly reduced rates — are transported by buses from school and back at no cost to the parents. This is in cooperation with the school faculty. At present, 4 schools are enjoying these privileges. A.J.C.B. leagues for the organized Bantam and Junior play also receive special rates. Children's Birthday Bowling Parties are proving to be quite popular and several reservations have been booked.

Chalet Suzanne Soups Now Has Local Outlet

A wonderful new line of exotic soups has made its debut in Virginia Beach. They are to be found at Seaside Market on 23rd Street and they are the famous Chalet Suzanne soups. The Chalet Suzanne soups are not just ordinary soups. They are delicious family-made soups from a husband and wife team of fancy soup canners out of Lake Wales, Florida.

The husband and wife are Carl and Vita Hinshaw and they started their soup making business just three years ago. Recently they moved into a new $68,000 plant.

It all started as a small mail order business but is growing by leaps and bounds. Seaside Market here is the couple's newest distributor in Virginia.

The soups are unusual and can only be appreciated when tasted.

Saturday's Games
Beachcombers 20, Hawks 8
Blue Angels 27, Lions 9

The Beachcombers really had a blast in the first game. They took the lead in the first period and kept it right on through, with Craig Waring scoring 7 points in the fourth. Greg Baker looked good and made two foul shots . . . something not many boys can do. Maybe it's the quietness of the limelight, but free throws don't seem to come easily. On defense, Pell Boyer gave the Hawks a time. Congratulations, you Beachcombers, all of you played a great game!

The Hawks, with four of their first unit boys out with flu, looked pretty sick. They had real trouble finding the basket and controlling the ball. Gus Martin and Bucky Lawler played fine ball, particularly on defense.

The delay in starting our games kept us from seeing the second game. A sick boy at home couldn't be left too long. The word has it, though, that this was quite a victory for the Blue Angels. Coach Terry had great praise for Doug Compton with 13 points, Jerry Linsly and Taylor West. We understand that Winslow Stillman was outstanding for the Lions who are still depleted by illness. Let's hope everybody will be back in shape this week.

Seahawks Whip Deep Creek in Clincher 54-41

Jayvees Keep Pace With Varsity By Posting Identical Record

The pride of Virginia Beach these days is the Virginia Beach High School basketball team. Why? Because they have just won the Division A, District One, Group Two title.

Winning is not new to the local Seahawks. For the past seven years they have enjoyed winning seasons. In fact, ever since Coach Coulthard came to the local school from Emory and Henry and took over the basketball coaching duties the Seahawks have been a cage power in the district.

Jayvees Keeping Up With Varsity

While the varsity basketball team was wrapping up the district title last week, the Virginia Beach High School junior varsity team continued to keep pace with its older brothers by whipping the Deep Creek Jayvees and matching the varsity's overall season record.

Through last Friday's game Coach Gus Polizos' junior varsity five had compiled a season record of 11 victories and two defeats, the same overall record of the varsity.

With little experience to go on Coach Polizos has molded a fine junior varsity basketball club. Some have shown promise of being promoted to the varsity next year.

According to Polizos the team has worked well together. The three big men of the Jayvees are Larry Mailhes, Tommy Tarkenton and George Godwin. Prior to mid-term exams Donnie Johnson was also in the front line but he lost the battle of the books.

"Mailhes is our leading scorer and best shooter while Tarkenton and Godwin combine to make us move," Coach Polizos said.

"We have several boys who are developing such as Floyd Wilson and Mike Keville," Polizos added.

The Junior Varsity has four more games to play. The next contest will be played here Friday night against the Norfolk Academy Jayvees. Game time is 6:30 p.m.

The first Marine Aircraft Wing flew 118,000 combat sorties in Korea, including 39,500 missions of close support to ground troops.

Dennis Is Star

Two big men have played a major role in the Seahawk success story. Probably the most improved player on the team is big Tommy Dennis, who serves as pivotman. Coulthard says "Dennis has made us, at least up front."

Another big man is Footsie Borum, who is the rebounding specialist and was high scorer in the last Deep Creek win with 19 points.

Chester Branscom, a hold-over from last year, is the speediest man on the team and is the club's leading scorer. He does everything well.

Jay Horton is the outside shooter and has done a fine job all year. The team runs a lot and likes the fast break.

Tourney Next

With the district title in hand the Seahawks are looking ahead to the district tournament to be held later this month. They have been to the finals twice in recent years but have dropped close games each time. They hope this will be their year.

The Seahawks have definitely been weakened by the loss of Sanderlin and Neil, but they have shown a lot of desire and Dempsey Hardy has been moved up to the starting five. He is backed up by Henry Capps.

All eyes will be on the winning Seahawks in the district tourney. This may be the year that Coach Coulthard's lads will go all the way.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

An Excellent Appointment

The appointment of Richard S. Holland this week as state highway commissioner for the Suffolk Highway District was an excellent choice in the opinion of this newspaper.

The choice of Holland for this important position and our concurrence is not based on local pride, although we are happy to see Mr. Holland, who lives in North Virginia Beach, recognized in this way by Governor Harrison.

Mr. Holland's terms will run to 1965 and this period bids fair to becoming one of the busiest the Suffolk Highway District has ever experienced. The job will be in capable hands.

Mr. Holland has been an outstanding member of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission, of which he is vice-chairman. Governor Harrison has been quoted as saying that Mr. Holland's appointment to the highway post should not conflict with the bay-tunnel post.

We think the Governor has made a wise choice in selecting Mr. Holland for the highway position and we know, from past experience, that Mr. Holland will devote his full energies to the post.

Change May Be Needed to Prevent North End Traffic Accidents

The horrible automobile accident at the intersection of 83rd street in North Virginia Beach and Route 60 that took the lives of three young adults several days ago was a tragic incident and it does point up the need for some sort of study of the present traffic pattern in that area of North Virginia Beach.

It is true that in the recent accident it was a case of the driver failing to stop at a stop sign, but that point does not bring back to life the three persons killed in the accident. It would appear to the layman that a stop sign, or stop line at this busy intersection is not the answer.

It would also appear that the present system employed at 83rd street and Route 60 might be somewhat confusing to a total stranger in the area. If that be so the fact that we attract so many visitors in the summer months would dictate that a different system be devised for this particular intersection.

While we are by no means traffic engineering experts it might be well for the State Highway Department to look into the possibility of installing a traffic light at this intersection. It seems that the motoring public does respect traffic lights and their meaning is universally accepted and approved.

Down The Hatch

The word going around the General Assembly yesterday was to this effect, that the whisky-by-the-drink bill is a dead soldier; and the word appeared to be soundly based in accurate prophecy. The members' desks are a foot deep in postcards sent in by the Dries; yesterday's wisecrack had it that legislative mail is running 50-50 this season; Fifty per cent invitations to cocktail parties, 50 per cent denunciations of whisky-by-the-drink.

This is a stretcher, to be sure, but it is not much of a stretcher. The plain truth is that when it comes to the demon rum, there are in Virginia more persons who take a drink than there are persons who do not take a drink. But the putative non-drinkers are taking pens in their hands while the drinkers are sitting on theirs. One Senator tells us, in considerable mystification, that he has yet to receive the first letter from a constituent in favor of whisky-by-the-drink; but he has had so many letters from opponents that he is no longer answering the letters, he is baling them.

Well, the heat is on, sure enough, and the proponents' goose may be cooked. We shed no rivers of tears. It is not a matter of life or death. But we do voice a passing regret at the Popsicle spines that support many of our Delegates and Senators. These gentlemen know that many of the postcards they are receiving are perfectly sincere—sincere, to be sure, but irrelevant to the issue at hand. These communications come from persons genuinely opposed to liquor in any form, which is to say, from persons genuinely opposed to the public policy of Virginia for the past 30 years. But our lawmakers also know that many of these pro forma protests and petitions are as hollow as empty jugs; these come from the docile hypocrites who will vote Dry as long as they can stagger to the polls. We must know a thousand Methodists who are fine psalm-singers on Sunday morning, but half of them will have had bourbon-and-branch the night before. A good many Baptists of our acquaintance, stout fellows one and all, ordinarily take it on the rocks.

The legislators who are quivering in their boots at this onslaught of opposition mail have our sympathy, but they don't have much of it. Some of the boys from the Bible Belt may have to yield to the parsons' political power, but the urban Delegate or Senator who has the guts to stand up and say honestly, "Yes, I favor this bill," can count on re-election in a landslide. Two years ago Dave Satterfield, III, showed this fortitude and who led the local ticket last year? Dave Satterfield.

This newspaper does not propose to shilly-shally. We favor the proposed local option bill, and for good, sound reasons: We believe it contains abundant safeguards against return of the old-time saloon, in the form of built-in restrictions upon the discretion of the ABC Board. We believe the proposed bill embodies the essence of democratic privileges in a free society, in that whisky-by-the-drink could become effective only in those communities voting in favor of it. We believe the plan would contribute to temperance, by tending to reduce the bottle-drinkers and bootleggers. And we believe that the enormous economic importance of the tourist trade justifies at least this concession to the tastes of thousands of decent and law-abiding visitors to the Old Dominion every year.

More than half the members of the House and Senate attended a delightful cocktail party last evening; and with one or two exceptions, every manjack of them so far as we could see, had a drink in his hand. Their wives did, too. There was nothing sinful in this, nothing immoral, nothing un-Christian. These gentlemen and their ladies were enjoying themselves socially as civilized people are accustomed to enjoying themselves the world over. And if and when an opportunity comes to vote on the merits of the proposed legislation, we hope to see them stand up bravely in public for the same social graces they indulge so cheerfully in private.

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

Rather than devote this week's column to the usual format, let's try some good old-fashioned conversation and clean out our random thoughts much as we might clean out the refrigerator for a tasty potpourri.

Television is always a good controversial subject, so we'll start with that. With one eye on CBS' "Henry Fonda and Family" and the other eye on this battered old typewriter the flow of words might not make much sense but I must say right here and now that I think the Henry Fonda Show is one of the best, most entertaining programs I've seen in a long, long time. Dick Van Dyke's interpretation of a television set was extremely clever and Dan Blocker, of "Bonanza" fame, could well become one of the media's most accomplished comedian-actors. His face is so expressive.

Princess Anne County's own Hollywood actress, Kay Reid, had a small part in "Hennessey" Monday night and her many fans and friends should give her a rousing cheer of encouragement for hitting the "big time." Kay is a lovely brunette who always turns heads and draws stares from neighbors when she visits her mother, Mrs. Vance A. Reid, on Kellam Road in Aragona Village.

Actually, Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County have turned out quite a few television personalities — at least on the local level.

The March of Dimes Telethon was a far brighter show because of the appearances of City Councilman Frank Tarrall and Lynnhaven Supervisor James Darden. Perhaps there were other local persons appearing on the show but if they came on after 1 a.m. I didn't see them!

Mrs. Lee Dupree, known to fellow-members of the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County as Mary Ann, did a stint not too long ago in commercials for Price's Inc. She came onto the television scene in a most unusual manner. She was in WTAR studios one day on other business, when someone asked her if she would fill a commercial. Being a brave soul, she said o.k. and the first thing she knew, bingo, she was in television.

Nationally-known Warren Hull adopted Virginia Beach as his home and his community spirit has been most rewarding to those who know him. Many people have commented on his kind assistance and cooperation in promoting various projects on his and Mildred Alexander's television show, "Get Together," aired each week-day at 1 p.m. over WTAR.

Mrs. Buddy Clement and her daughter, Tiffany, will appear on the show today to stimulate interest in the Liphorn Park School P.T.A. spaghetti supper to be held Friday and Monday nights. This is just a sampling of his efforts to tell Tidewater about what is going on in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

A similarity in names has been causing a wee bit of confusion in Bay Colony and a slight crossing of the mails.

Sun-News advertising head Bill McKnight, who lives at 172 Bruton Lane, wondered why the sudden surge of mislabeled and mistaken telephone calls, only to learn they were intended for H. C. MacKnight at 162 Bruton Lane.

The McKnights' also came up with another unusual coincidence in their name. When their teen-age daughter, Gayle, entered the hospital a couple of weeks ago for a possible appendectomy (which, fortunately, never came about) she immediately received a lovely florist bouquet. Since she had just come into the room and her trip was so unexpected that none of her friends could possibly have known about it, she asked the nurse "how come?"

Seems the same bed in the same room had, until a few minutes before, been occupied by a Mrs. McKnight. Gayle gladly forfeited the flowers and her stay was limited to a short week-end.

There is also some confusion in the Phillips name with three of us in Bay Colony. Occasionally our mailbox will produce a letter for W. R. Phillips, of Bruton Lane, and an unfamiliar telephone voice will ask for Stanley Phillips, who lives on Deary Lane.

One call caused me some concern during Christmas week. One evening a woman from Norfolk called and asked if I had bought one of her dogs for our son's Christmas gift. With Prince, our big, spoiled Collie, and a wandering hamster in the household, I told her no thank you, we had all the livestock we could take care of.

LIVELY PACKAGE

She was looking for a Phillips at Virginia Beach who already bought the dog but left it with her until Christmas. A sudden illness in the family made it necessary for her to leave town and she wanted the man to pick up the dog before she left so one little boy wouldn't be disappointed Christmas morning.

I suggested every Phillips I knew but never did find out if she located the right man. I keep wondering, did the little fellow get his dog Christmas morning?

Be Proud - Be Patriotic - Be American That Freedom May Live

by Mrs. Carl M. Atkinson
First District President, American Legion Auxiliary,
Department of Virginia

February is Americanism month for The American Legion and its Auxiliary, but for Legionnaires and Auxiliary members we do have a portion of our Americanism each month included in our programs.

Let's become increasingly aware of the freedoms we, as Americans, have in contrast to the freedoms of Communism, which is at our doorstep and the greatest threat today to Americans. Communism deprives people of the right to Free Press, Protest and Assemble and Free Speech, as has been explained by a Chinese Ambassador, they are not even allowed free SILENCE; they are compelled to say what they are told.

We as outstanding Americans in our Community are taught to salute the Flag of our Country and repeat the Pledge of Allegiance properly. When saluting the Flag be sure you never have anything in your hands. There is no comma after Nation, it reads "One Nation Under God."

It is important to salute and pay proper respect to the Flag, attend the church of your choice for God gave us our rights and only the Creator of those rights can take them away. Our Government recognizes this fact.

In the DAILY WORKER, the Communist voice, had this to say—"Were it not for The American Legion and its Auxiliary and two other organizations (one was the FBI and the other a church group) Mr. K. would have control in America by now..." This is something of which every member of the American Legion and Auxiliary can be proud. I think it's time that every member secure another member to build our organization so strong that we really can fight for America's safety and ideals.

FUNERALS

Joseph Franklin Miller

VIRGINIA BEACH—Funeral services for Joseph Franklin Miller, 88, of Great Neck Point, were conducted Sunday afternoon at Maestas Funeral Home by the Rev. Lee H. Richcreek, pastor of Scott Memorial Methodist Church. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Miller, a native of Norfolk, died last Friday in a local nursing home after a long illness. Until his retirement in 1950 he was a general contractor.

He was a son of the late William Thomas Miller and Mrs. Huldah Woodward Miller and the husband of the late Mrs. Mable Miner Miller. He was a member of Scott Memorial Methodist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. William O. Godfrey and Mrs. H. E. Frizzell, both of London Bridge; three grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Carolyn Diane Satterwhite

LONDON BRIDGE—The body of Miss Carolyn Diane Satterwhite, 12, was sent to Joseph W. Bliley Funeral Home in Richmond Monday for funeral services and burial there.

The John B. Dey Elementary School 7th grader died Friday in a Norfolk hospital after a short illness. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Satterwhite of 102 S. Wolfenbarger Drive and, though born in Richmond, had been a resident of this area the last nine years. She was a member of Francis Asbury Methodist Church, Great Neck Road, London Bridge.

Besides her parents, surviving are three brothers, Walter L. Satterwhite Jr., Donald S. Satterwhite and Robert J. Satterwhite of London Bridge; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hairfield of Richmond; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Lowery of Richmond; and paternal grandfather, Sam Satterwhite, of Richmond.

Lt. Col. Righter Longshore Keck

VIRGINIA BEACH—Funeral services for Lt. Col. Righter Longshore Keck, 69, USA, retired, of 6218 Atlantic Avenue, were held at Arlington National Cemetery, Ft. Myer, Tuesday afternoon.

A resident of this area for three years, Keck died last Friday in Portsmouth Naval Hospital. He was a native of Wilkes Barre, Pa., and the husband of Mrs. Isadora English Keck.

He ended 29 years service in the Army Quartermaster Corps while in Germany in 1947.

Besides his widow, surviving are a son, Col. James M. Keck, USAF, Pease Air Force Base, Portsmouth, N.H.; a sister, Mrs. George Megs of Pittsburgh; and three grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments in Norfolk.

MRS. W. T. GODFREY SR.

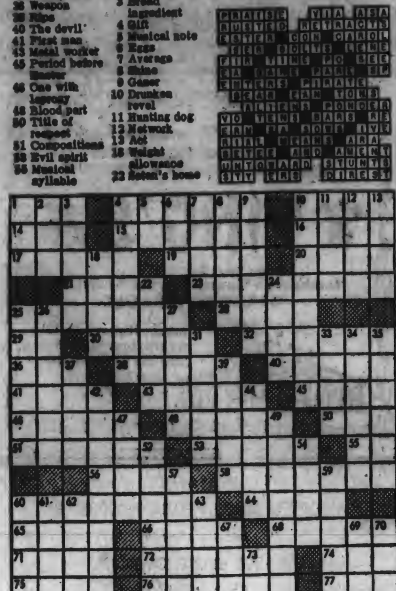

LYNNHAVEN—Mrs. Catherine Bell Godfrey, wife of Walter Thomas Godfrey Sr. of Lynnhaven, Princess Anne County, died Monday at 6:45 p.m. in a Virginia Beach hospital.

A native of Gates County, N.C. she lived here a number of years.

Besides her widower, surviving are three daughters, Mrs. George T. Drumwright and Mrs. Howard Holman of Norfolk, and Mrs. T. Lee Brown of Richmond; four sons, Burt K. Godfrey, Thomas W. Godfrey, Eugene

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

After one week of the second semester at Princess Anne High School, the report cards have been issued, exams are over, new resolutions have been made and the usual activities are in full swing.

Last weekend, Princess Anne High School played host to the Va. All-State Band. The band composed of the top 125 high school students, represented schools of eastern Virginia. Guest conductor was Leonard Falcione, conductor of bands at Michigan State University.

All-State Band members from Princess Anne were Steve Millard, Don Smith, Tommy Freeman, Robert Bailey, Tim Wood, Sharon Ward and Jeanie Ballard.

What is the easiest way to get a date for a basketball game? Well, if you are a Princess Anne Keyette member, the answer is easy—buy one at auction! Yes, Nancy Ackiss, president of the Keyette Club, auctioned off the willing boys to the fast and furious bidders for prices ranging from 50c up to $3.00.

For Richard "Tiny" Strickler, Virginia's unpredictable weather will become a thing of the past and Florida's sun-fun weather a reality at the end of this week. The 6'4", 232 pound senior, affectionately known as "Tiny", will be moving down to Florida and will attend Milton High School. Certainly all those who know "Tiny" will miss him! Have a good time Tiny!

Who will be PA's Mr. Wonderful of 1962? Will it be Ray Almond, Richard MacDonald, Riley Gazzaway, Tim Barrow or Dick Garriott who will be chosen as the "most sighed after boy of '62"? Cornet Tri-Hi-Y, who sponsors the contest annually, will soon find out! Mr. Wonderful will be chosen by the number of penny votes he receives.

Beside the usual dismissal bells, tardy bells and lunch bells, wedding bells will be ringing in the halls of Princess Anne High. This February 10, Miss Doris Sult, girls' physical education instructor, will be joined in marriage to Mr. James French, a teacher at Cox Junior High, in the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

Last week it was a duo meet with the Granby Comets as the Cavaliers met them on the basketball court and the wrestling mat. The Cavaliers successfully topped the Comets on the "court" with a score of 49-41. It was tough and go in the last quarter as Granby's Harvey Roberts pulled in 13 points. Through the assistance of Paul Amato, PA's high scorer, Randy Leddy, Richard McDonald and Doug Paschall, the Cavaliers came came through in good form.

A "Hang-the-Duke-of-Earl" Effigy Dance was sponsored by the Sigma Phi-Hi-Y. Entertainment was provided by the "Rhondel's".

This week, a salute goes out to the editors of "The Princess Anne Page". Nancy Ackiss and Roger Provo, Nancy, a senior with a scintillating personality, is president and a past vice-president of the Keyette Club and a past honor court judge. She plans to go to Radford College. Roger, a senior who was termed "Most School Spirited" in the '62 Hall of Fame by his classmates, is an honor court judge and an active member of the executive council of the SCA.

With the "Miss Princess Anne" contest at hand this week end, final preparations for the beauty pageant are completed. As in last year's contest, Mr. George McClelland, by popular demand, will be the master of ceremonies. Judging the contest will be Mrs. Alice Brewer White, Mr. Giles-Dodd, Mr. B. A. May, Mr. Hoyt Capps, Mrs. John Fowler, and Captain Cecil K. Harper.

Bad Weather Failed to Stop Success of County Campaign

(Mrs. Elwood A. Hudson, county chairman for the 1962 March of Dimes and active member of the Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club, has written the following summary of happenings last week in both organizations for the Sun-News.)

By Virginia Hudson

The 1962 March of Dimes was a big success in the County of Princess Anne despite the sudden bad weather. The fellowship and cooperation were outstanding and the local National Foundation is most grateful. Not only did the marching gals brave snow, wind, and ice, to say nothing of the dogs, but they gathered afterward in their various communities for hot coffee and refreshments, and the exchange of stories about what happened to them were really something to gab about.

Edith Darden, Lynnhaven Chairman, and husband Jim entertained more than two hundred volunteers at the London Bridge Fire Station following the March. Edith reported her fellow workers brought in more than $3,000. The party was such a success that folks hearing about it joined in from all around the neighborhood. Lynnhaven is proud to be leading in the total collections for Virginia Beach-Princess Anne.

In Bayside, the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach held "open house" for Bayside women who "marched". Hot coffee and Mrs. George Marshall's homemade cheese rolls went like the proverbial "hot cakes." According to Bayside District Chairman, Mrs. Lois Holland, Bayside is running Lynnhaven a close second. Aubrey Ledington, Chairman of Chesapeake Beach marchers and the "open house", said Nick Scarborough came through for the workers like a true "mother". Nick and his adding machine were a big help to the ladies when, at the last moment, their faithful comptometer operator, Ruby Meekins, had to work and couldn't make it.

Mrs. J. J. Bateman, Kempsville District chairman held her own open house and came in under the 11 p.m. deadline, breathing down the neck of Bayside, with her Dime collections. The Kempsville money was counted and rolled by Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rea, Mrs. William J. Ives, Mrs. E. L. Hargrove, Mrs. W. M. Evans, Mrs. E. J. Gerloff, Mrs. Roscoe Johnson, Mrs. A. J. Kennedy, Mrs. Richard Krahennill Jr., Mrs. W. P. Martin and Mrs. J. F. Helton.

Isabel DeMarco reported Virginia Beach and North Virginia Beach collected a total of $1,900. According to Richard Absalom, the grand total will bring close to $10,000 on the Mother's March when all collections are in.

Saturday was a night to be remembered by members of the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach, and their guests who attended the last social affair the Club will ever enjoy in the Chesapeake Beach Community Center. The building, a project of the Woman's Club for many, many years, is bowing to the progress of the tremendous Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel. The Tunnel Commission recently purchased the Center to make way for its Southern approach roadway to the Bridge Tunnel.

Following a social hour, the club members put on a pot luck dinner that really caused the recipes to fly. Fern Neely deserves the credit for the beautiful tables with their Valentine motif of cupids, love birds, white net and red satin—the works.

Just before the Square dancing began, everyone attending was presented a "country-style" hat. These were made and fashioned by Orion Petty and Maude Fulford. Very fetching!

The floor show was put on by the men at the party! The dance "caller" invited the gentlemen on the floor "ahead of the ladies" and got a wonderful response. He then threw out a large grab bag to be passed from man to man, until the music stopped—like a Paul Jones. The man "caught" had to reach in the bag, and dress himself in whatever came out. When the game was over, there were some strange looking characters and the gals had enjoyed a hilarious floor show.

The party ended with a fast Virginia Reel and when it was finished the dancers delivered a long ovation to the caller and to the Woman's Club.

Louise Rieder, Club President, and the clean-up crew gathered up their coffee, punchbowl and the dozens of other items and turned the key in the door of the Chesapeake Beach Community Center for the last time. "Well," said Louise, "here we are again, with no home—right back where we started 21 years ago." But like those members 21 years ago, we're already working on it.

CREEDS RUTRITS TO PRESENT MINSTREL

CREEDS—The curtain will go up once again for the Creeds Rutrit Club Minstrel. Marion Bright will keep the show going as its Interlocutor and T. Eugene Arrington, Dick Cockrell, Jack Fentress, Lyle Pugh, E. W. Robinson, and John Wilson will be featured as End Men.

The show will have a minstrel chorus, vocal solos and dances, and will be presented at Creeds Elementary School on March 2nd and Princess Anne Court-house Elementary School on March 3rd.

The entire production is being staged and directed by Hunter Spence and musical accompaniment will be provided by Welton Ewell at the piano and Pat Kelly on the drums.

Plaza Principle

UNITY IS KEYNOTE NEEDED FOR GOOD SCHOOL OPERATION

(This is one of a series of stories to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

PRINCESS ANNE PLAZA—Princess Anne Plaza Elementary School serves one of the fastest growing sections in the county where most of the residents are so new to the area they scarcely know their neighbors. Weaving the school into a close-knit organization has been one of the main concerns of the principal, Mrs. Mabel Brumley Church.

Everyone New

"The students, faculty and parents must work together in order for a school to function properly," she said, "and here we have a situation where no one knows anyone else. They hesitate to push themselves because they are new. They forget that everyone else is new, too."

"We are in the process of forming a P-TA and though many parents have had a great deal of experience in the organization in other communities, they hold back their knowledge for fear of being forward."

When the school opened in September the building was not completed and classes were held only half a day so that workmen could finish the job. During those first few weeks the students worked more as individuals rather than a whole class, Mrs. Church said. Now, thanks to the efforts of an efficient and interested faculty, the school is operating smoothly.

If there is any problem at Plaza School now it's mud. The school grounds are still bare from the recent construction and hundreds of little muddy feet play havoc with the hallways and classrooms.

"Sometimes our custodian sweeps the halls three and four times a day to keep out the mud," Mrs. Church laughed. "Thank goodness for the easy-to-clean tile they are using in today's modern school buildings."

Mrs. Mabel Brumley Church

An English teacher at Princess Anne High School before accepting the principalship, Mrs. Church has found that there is little difference between the two-grade levels.

Little People

"High school students have the same emotional make-up as the younger ones. The only difference is they are larger. Grown-ups often forget that children are people. They need some time to themselves. They need to play and express themselves."

"Children don't fit into little squares, holes or niches and they do not react as we sometimes expect them to. Nor do

Linkhorn Park P-TA Sponsors Spaghetti Fete

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Linkhorn Park Elementary School P-TA will sponsor a Candlelight Spaghetti Supper Friday and Monday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

The menu will consist of spaghetti, salad, coffee or milk, Neapolitan ice cream & cookies. Two steam tables will be provided to speed up the service, Mrs. W. S. Clement, general chairman, said.

A special entertainment program and recorded music will be presented both nights. Proceeds will go into the P-TA fund to buy school equipment and library books.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brennan will be in charge of the tickets Friday night and Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Adriance will take over Monday night. Television will be provided for students in the library under the supervision of teachers.

Working with Mrs. Clement Friday will be Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. Ed Richardson, Mrs. Rhae Adams, Mrs. Gordon Potter, Mrs. J. I. Lankford, Mrs. T. J. (Buck) Burton, Mrs. Donald Merrick, Mrs. M. H. Farmer, Mrs. D. M. Malbon and Mrs. Kathleen J. Hall.

Assisting Monday night will be Mrs. John Gosson, Mrs. Sidney Brody, Mrs. C. H. Terry, Mrs. T. Brown, Mrs. James Parnell, Mrs. C. J. Hauser, Mrs. Edmond W. Creekmore, Mrs. Fred Haycox, Jr., Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. Robert Thomson.

Fathers Help

The fathers-staff will include Stanley Phillips, Buck Burton and Buddy Clement on Friday and Robert S. Reinhardt, John Gosson and Clement on Monday.

Decorations will be under the supervision of Mrs. George Hawes, Mrs. E. G. Joyner Jr., Mrs. Robert Reinhardt and Mrs. Garland Wood.

Children attending must be accompanied by an adult.

TAHB Auxiliary Officers

Recently elected to head the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Women's Auxiliary are: (standing left to right) Mrs. Clara Guy, Mrs. B. Englander, Mrs. Harold Dobken and Mrs. C. P. Eldridge; (sitting, left to right) Mrs. Horace Cistola, Mrs. W. E. Witt and Mrs. Jack Osmond. Mrs. Roger Nonni is not pictured.

Mrs. Witt Named President Of Home Builders Auxiliary

Friends School Hears Feldman Group Concert

VIRGINIA BEACH—The Feldman String Quartet of Norfolk presented a children's concert Tuesday at Friends School as part of the school's musical education program. It was the third consecutive year the musical group has performed for the school.

The concert was presented for grades 4-7 as well as the sixth and seventh grades of Country Day School for Girls and the fourth and fifth grades of Everett School.

Dr. W. B. Jones, Virginia Beach dentist, showed a film on "Dental Health" Tuesday afternoon for first and second grade students.

The parent's group of Friends School recently held a buffet dinner at the Cavalier Yacht & Country Club with Mrs. William Gilliam, president, in charge of the meeting.

Miss Betty Lou Burton presented a musical program of piano selections and David Brown gave a financial report of the school's progress since its opening in 1955.

One of the organization's

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. William E. Witt was recently elected president of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Auxiliary. She is immediate past president of the National Organization.

Also elected to office were Mrs. Clara Guy, historian; Mrs. B. Englander, treasurer; Mrs. Harold Dobken, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. P. Eldridge, parliamentarian; Mrs. Horace Cistola, first vice president; Mrs. Jack Osmond, second vice president; and Mrs. Roger Nonni, recording secretary.

Now in its fifth year, the association is composed of 80 women who are either wives or daughters of members of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders, a local affiliation of the National Association of Home Builders.

The active group has many projects and plans in the making. At least 25 educational programs will be presented this year and speakers, using topics related to homebuilding, will be made available to other Women's Clubs.

The educational program was first founded here by Mrs. Witt and used in this area as a test of its effectiveness. Since the time of its introduction the program has spread and is now being used by auxiliaries throughout the country. Presenting school children with information on homebuilding through these programs was written up in "American Home" magazine last July.

The kitchen will be modernized with a charcoal grill and other conveniences and new ceramic tile walls and floors. Decor of the "new" club will be gold, black and white which will be carried out in the drapes and carpeting in the recreation room, bar and dining room.

The bandstand, which will feature the Newton Thomas Trio from 8 p.m. to midnight, will be covered with an attractive canopy and new slipcovers on the dining room chairs will give the room a cozy look.

Within the next few weeks plans will be announced for a club party with special entertainment, Taylor said, and in weeks to come there will be a kitchen buffet.

The remodeling job has been under the supervision of Mrs. Margaret Tiegle, Norfolk decorator.

The Fred Astair Dance classes will resume February 20 and will be held every Tuesday at 8 and 9 p.m.

The Virginia Beach Garden Club will also resume its meetings every third Wednesday, starting February 21, at 3 p.m.

AREA WOMEN ASKED TO SUBMIT IDEAS FOR 'IDEAL HOUSE'

PRINCESS ANNE—What is the ideal home? Local women will have an opportunity to submit their homebuilding ideas at the Women's Housing Conference March 28 and the composite of their suggestions will be designed into the "ideal house" which will be on display later at the Tidewater Home Show.

Produced by the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Women's Auxiliary, the Conference will be held at Princess Anne High School auditorium. It will be sponsored by Climate Makers.

But the pooling of ideas is just one of the many features scheduled at the Conference.

The full evening of events will get under way at 6 p.m. when Neal Thomas, well-known Norfolk decorator, will completely decorate the auditorium stage in motifs ranging from traditional to contemporary following a "72 Look in Your Home in '62" theme.

Master of Ceremonies Warren Hull will welcome the more than 1,000 women expected to attend and refreshments will be served from 7 to 7:30 p.m.

Editors of three leading magazines, such as "American Home" and "McCall's," will moderate panel discussions on the latest ideas and designs in home building.

Each panel, which will consist of 10 area women, will have specific subjects related to what they desire in a home, such as air conditioning, floor covering, neighborhood, appliances and others.

Between these roundtable discussions, each scheduled to last 25 minutes, the editors will give short talks on the newest ideas in housing. Also during these short intermissions the audience will fill out questionnaires as to their preference in home features and these forms will be used as a guide for the "Ideal Home."

Each participant who completes a questionnaire will be eligible for one of the many valuable door prizes.

For additional information on home building, members of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders will distribute brochures on products, and many important facts about homes, plus the latest FHA, VA and conventional financing. Other literature will also be available.

Invitations to the Conference will soon be sent to all women's organizations throughout the area.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Horace Filer and Mrs. Henry Rodgers.

Gallagher Now Among Beach Legal Group

VIRGINIA BEACH—Attorney J. Frank Gallagher recently announced his association with Edward T. Caton, III for the general practice of law with offices at 210-25th Street, Virginia Beach.

Gallagher was educated at the Univ. of Va. and received his law degree from the Univ. of Miami. He is a member of the Virginia Beach Bar Assn. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Virginia Beach Princess Anne Young Democrats and as secretary of the Virginia Beach Exchange Club.

Gallagher is a veteran of World War II having served with the 5th Air Force and the Pacific Campaign. He currently resides with his wife, Jeanette, and two sons, Jr. and Craig, on Main Street, Virginia Beach.

Invitations were being mailed this week by Billy Simons, secretary of the organization.

4-H Activities and Events

By KEISTER EVANS, JR.

It is a funny thing about life: If you refuse to accept anything but the best, you very often get it.—W. Somerset Maugham.

4-H County Council Meeting Draws county-wide Participation
The Annual 4-H Club County Council Meeting received response from 4-H Club officers throughout Princess Anne County. The 4-H County Council is composed of the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of each 4-H Club within the County.

Keister Evans

Lee of the Bay-side Community Club presiding, the Program Committee of the County Council presented a program that was useful and of interest, to each club member within the County.

It was the desire of the Program Committee to present a program to the 4-H Club officer representation that would give each officer a more thorough understanding of the many 4-H Club activities and events that take place throughout the year. Some of the presentations were as follows.

President George Lee presented to the group a brief history of the 4-H Club Program starting with the first corn and tomato clubs and bringing the group up-to-date with the modern 4-H Club. George also informed the group of the possibilities of receiving assistance from the county leaders and also the County Extension Workers.

Miss Virginia Kelly explained to the group the possibilities of a 4-H Club member showing his accomplishments by giving demonstrations. She explained the annual County Demonstration Contest and urged the officers to promote demonstrations in their individual clubs and participation in the county-wide competition. To more clearly illustrate a good demonstration should be given, Miss Ruth Anne Oliver gave a very effective demonstration showing how visual aids could be used along with many helpful hints to make a demonstration more appealing and effective.

The next part of the program was devoted to an explanation of the many 4-H Club activities that occur each year. These activities were introduced as follows: Junior and Senior Camp presented by Miss Sharon Kelly, Conservation Camp by Woody Turner, 4-H Club Short Course by Al Basnight, 4-H Club Share-the-Fun Contest by Miss Mary Bungard, and the 4-H Club Public Speaking Contest by Bruce Clarke.

Following this effective program, the County Council held its business meeting and annual election of officers. The meeting was then adjourned by president George Lee with refreshments being served by Miss Lois Mary Erdman, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent.

Linkhorn Park 4-H's to Plant Pine Seedlings To Beautify School Area

4-H Club members at Linkhorn Park School have chosen Forestry as their Club Project for this year. These club members have selected as part of their plan of work to set out pine seedlings in order to make their school grounds more attractive. With the next month these club members will have an opportunity to work with E. R. Cockrell, County Agent, and the District Forester from this area in selecting the best site for these seedlings.

4-H Livestock Judging Team Receive Workout at Smithfield

The County Senior 4-H Livestock Judging Team along with the County Agent and the Assistant County Agent made a trip to Smithfield on Saturday, January 27th, in order to receive instruction and practice in judging hogs.

This judging day set up under the direction of Mr. John Henry Carter, who is the Extension Hog Specialist, was designed to teach the judging members from our district the correct procedures in judging hogs as well as to give them a great deal of practice and constructive criticism as their work was evaluated.

County 4-H Clubs Prepare For Share-the-Fun Contests

Most of the 4-H Club members throughout the county are now in preparation for the Annual County Share-the-Fun Contest. The month of February will be a month of competition among club members within their own club for top honors in this talent show.

Sometime during the first week of March, a County-wide Share-the-Fun Contest will be held in which the top selections from each club will have an opportunity to compete among the clubs from all over the county.

The Share-the-Fun Contest is well known and looked forward to by many residents of Princess Anne County and surrounding areas. This contest gives 4-H Club members with special talents an opportunity to perform and compete with other club members for awards and recognition. The Share-the-Fun contest is not limited to any one particular talent. We have seen many different acts in this type of program, including songs, dances, skits, acrobatics, instrumental solos, and etc.

The Share-the-Fun Contest is a nationally recognized program and the County winners will have an opportunity to compete in District competition which involves 16 counties in our area, and the winner of the District Contest will have an opportunity to compete in the state-wide contest and the Virginia State winner receives a free trip to Chicago to perform in national competition. Each year our 4-H Club members look forward to this particular part of the program and I am sure that this year will bring a program that will be appealing to all.

New Jr. Steer Club To Be Called Jr. Block and Bridle Club

The Junior Steer Members in Princess Anne County have agreed to form into an organized 4-H Club. These 4-H Club members who are now raising heifers or steers feel that it would be more profitable for them if they could become organized as a 4-H Club and receive instruction as to the progress made with their animals and suggestions for improvement at each club meeting. These 4-H Club members elect to call their club the Jr. Block and Bridle Club. The name Block and Bridle Club is well known to animal husbandry students in colleges and universities all over the nation. This club is a fraternalized club with its members selected only on bids as a result of honorary work and specific achievements. The Princess Anne County Junior Steer and Heifer members will have no connection with this national Block and Bridle Club, but felt that they would like to use the name Junior Block and Bridle Club as an inspiration for each of the club's members.

4-H CREED: TO MAKE THE BEST BETTER.

The home of the Commandant of the Marine Corps, located at the Marine Barracks in Washington, D.C., is probably the oldest public building in continuous use in the Nation's Capital.

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

New low-cost luxury in two just-out Chevy II Nova sedans

• Luxury and low cost have never been more beautifully blended than in these two newest additions to the Chevy II line! Like their running mates—the Nova 400 Sport Coupe, Convertible and Station Wagon—they have the same features that have made Chevy II the winner of Car Life magazine's Engineering Excellence Award for 1962. Soft-riding new Mono-Plate rear springs, proved in the equivalent of 2,000,000-plus test miles. Thrifty 6-cylinder engine that gets more "git" out of a gallon of regular. Body by

Fisher roominess that fits big families and small parking places. An easy loading vacation-sized trunk. A raft of new ideas designed to save on upkeep, like front-end sections (including fenders) that bolt on and off for easy replacement. Plus trim, tasteful styling, inside and out. See the smart, sassy, saving Chevy II Novas—and the other sensibly sized, sensibly priced Chevy II models—at your Chevrolet dealer's. Chevy II Nova

CHEVROLET New Chevy II Nova 2- and 4-Doors—plus a wonderful choice of other Chevy II models

Nova 400 Sport Coupe, frisky family pleaser with 150-hp. 6 that gives savings with sizzle!

Nova 400 Convertible, easiest-to-own Chevrolet convertible you ever flipped a top over.

Nova 400 2-Seat Station Wagon holds a full 76.2 cu. ft. of cargo—and decks it out in style!

300 4-Door Sedan carries 6 passengers in Body by Fisher comfort with room to spare!

300 2-Door Sedan gives you a choice of a frisky 4- or a smooth, spunky 6-cylinder engine.

300 3-Seat Station Wagon invites you to compare its low price with any other 3-seat wagon.

100 4-Door Sedan—here's practicality that'll do you proud—at a low, low price.

100 2-Door Sedan—this dapper sedan is the thriftiest of all the thrifty Chevy II models.

100 2-Seat Station Wagon, lowest priced Chevrolet wagon, with an all-vinyl interior to boot!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

How I used to hate to practice the piano when I was a child! Yet, today, how I wish I could play well—and that I had the time to practice!

So often, we turn our back on opportunity, only to find, when we want it, that it's too late.

Not so with the Church. The Church gives you no reason for regrets. If, long ago, you gave up going to church, there is no reason why you can't start again now. Even if you've never gone to church, you'll find a warm welcome awaiting you this and every Sunday. For God's love is constant and everlasting.

In the Church it is, literally, never too late.

The MIXING BOWL ...

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Time to Make a "Kissing Cake"!

For Valentine Week, make up this "sweetheart" of a cake... a marvelous, old-fashioned, old-world Torte. Using graham crackers as an ingredient with whipped cream and flaked coconut as the topping, this luxurious torte can be made in a matter of minutes. The tender-thin flaked coconut gives a lovely lacy appearance that is sure to bring "kisses for the cook!"

Graham Cracker Torte

1/2 cup sifted flour	1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder	3 egg yolks, unbeaten
1 package (8 ounces) graham crackers, finely crushed (scant 2 cups)	1/2 cup Baker's Angel Flake Coconut
1/2 cup butter or margarine	1 teaspoon vanilla
	1 cup milk
	3 egg whites, stiffly beaten
	1 cup whipping cream

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and sift again. Add graham cracker crumbs. Cream butter, add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg yolks and beat well. Add coconut, and vanilla and mix thoroughly. Add flour alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Fold in egg whites quickly and thoroughly.

Turn into two round 8-inch layer pans, 1 1/2 inches deep, which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Cool.

Split each cake layer. Whip cream and flavor as desired; spread between layers and on top of cake. Sprinkle coconut around outer edge and decorate with tiny red hearts centered with sweetheart rosebuds.

Your favorite white cake recipe or cake mix. Tint the batter with a little red coloring. Bake in three layers. Prepare seven minute frosting, fold in 1/2 cup finely chopped maraschino cherries.

1/2 cup finely chopped pecans (more if you like)

Spread between layers and on top. Sprinkle generously with fresh grated coconut.

Seven Minute Frosting

1 cup sugar	3 egg yolks
1 egg white	1/2 cup cherry juice, 1 table-spoon lemon juice
4 tablespoons water	1 tablespoon gelatin
1 tablespoon white corn syrup	1/4 cup water
1/8 teaspoon cream of tartar	3 egg whites, well beaten
1/4 teaspoon vanilla	1 cup pitted red cherries
Place the sugar, egg white, water and syrup in the top of double boiler. Beat with rotary egg beater 7 minutes or until it stands in peaks. Remove from	1/2 cup sugar, dash salt
	1 cup heavy cream, whipped stove, add cream of tartar and vanilla and beat to proper consistency.

I make the recipe and spread 2 layers, then make recipe again and finish the cake for I like a generous amount of frosting and doubling the recipe, hasn't worked too well for me, the second recipe gives me enough for 3rd layer and sides—lots of it—oh! boy! with the fresh coconut, it's really a sweetheart of a cake.

they react to each teacher in the same way. That's why teachers have such a great responsibility in getting to know each child accept him as an individual.

"Naturally we want each student to learn academics. But we also want him to have a healthy attitude toward education. We must instill in him a desire to learn."

A small, vivacious person, who might well be mistaken for a high school student, Mrs. Church is very much of an outdoorswoman. Fishing takes precedent in her favorite pastimes, but she also enjoys golf ("I'm really just a whiffer!" and gardening.

A native of Princess Anne County, Mrs. Church attended Creeds High School and received her B.S. degree in education from Madison College in Harrisonburg. While at Madison, she was selected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." She taught at Kempsville before moving to Princess Anne High School.

She is a member of the Virginia and National Education Associations, and the Princess Anne County-Virginia Beach City Education Association as well as the Virginia Assn. of Teachers of English. She is also a member of Kappa Delta Pi.

Mrs. Church lives with her husband, Harry D. Church, at Great Neck Manor in London Bridge.

SCARBOROUGH

Marine 1st Lt. Paul Scarborough, III, son of Paul Scarborough, Jr., of 212-74th St., Virginia Beach, Va., completed six arrested carrier qualification landings, January 18, aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Antietam, operating out of Pensacola, Fla., in the Gulf of Mexico.

By completing the arrested landings, flight students qualify for advanced aviation training.

Prior to making the landings at sea, the fledgling aviators are required to qualify on field landing strips, which simulate, on land, the same area on which they must land at sea.

SYER

Army 2d Lt. John B. Syer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Syer, Jr., Virginia Beach, Va., completed the eight-week field artillery officer orientation course at The Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla., January 25.

During the course Lieutenant Syer received instruction in communications, artillery transport, tactics and target acquisition.

The school emphasizes leadership and the practical application of field artillery tactics and techniques in the employment of artillery mortars, conventional cannon, free rockets and guided missiles.

The 22-year-old officer was graduated from Episcopal High School, Alexandria, in 1957 and from the University of Virginia in 1961. He is a member of Delta Psi fraternity.

BAYSIDE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

Annual Meeting

Tuesday, Feb. 6, at 10:30 a.m. Circle No. 1 of the church met with Mrs. E. B. Hines on Lee Avenue. Mrs. Evelyn Caldwell, the circle leader, presided.

The following children have been promoted from the Cherub Choir to the Chancel Choir: Alice Rose, David Harizag, Kathy Hoots, Karel Jacoway, David Jarris and Adrian Rabb.

Sunday night, February 4, at 7:30 p.m. the Senior High Fellowship of the church held their regular meeting and the parents of the young people were invited to attend and look in on the meeting and observe how the meeting was carried out, the devotional and the program.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Smith Jr., counselors for the group gave the parents a detailed report on what had been done in the past seven and a half years. Following the report the parents were asked for suggestions, ideas along the line of this work.

Fifty-two persons enjoyed the games and refreshments that followed the business meeting and report.

Colonial Stores Shows Increase In Earnings

ATLANTA — Colonial Stores Incorporated, one of the nation's large supermarket chains, today reported 1961 earnings of $1.24 per share on common stock.

The earnings applicable to common stock were after income taxes, non-recurring items and preferred dividends, and are based on 2,774,339 shares of common stock outstanding December 30, 1961, applied to both years.

Net profits for 1961, after income taxes and non-recurring items, were $3,578,082, compared with $2,365,181 in 1960. Sales in 1961 totaled $441,508,425, compared with $445,434,110 in 1960.

The preliminary summary of operating results for last year subject to final audit, was disclosed in a letter to stockholders from Carl J. Reith, who became president of Colonial in September of 1960.

"Although sales were down nine-tenths of one per cent from 1960, profits before taxes on income and special items, for 1961 were up $2,026,121," the summary pointed out.

A non-recurring charge of $362,220 recorded in 1961 was described as "representing the difference between (a) provision for depreciation of securities acquired in 1959, and (b) cumulative gain from redemption of depreciation on equipment for years 1954-61, required by Internal Revenue Service."

Colonial Stores, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., operates 447 supermarkets in 10 states in the Southeast and Midwest: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

GOOD NEWS AGAIN AT BAYVILLE

Bayville Farms, Inc., is the owner of 3 registered Guernseys that have recently completed official DHIR production records, according to the American Guernsey Cattle Club. Bayville Lucky Millie, a seven-year-old produced 12,440 pounds of milk, and 604 pound of fat in 305 days. She was milked two times daily.

Bayville Royal Alma, a senior 3-year-old, produced 12,690 lbs.
of milk and 608 pounds of fat in 305 days. She was milked two times daily.

Bayville Royal Rosemary, a junior 3-year-old, produced 13-800 pounds of milk, and 630 pounds of fat in 305 days, on a two-time milking schedule. Some pretty good cows at Bayville.
Congratulations to W. Clark
Fleming, president of Bayville Farms, and Al McKay, superintendent.

CORN PRICE OUTLOOK

I was talking to several of our boys in the County who have corn on storage about the price outlook, and here is the way we think it is going to go:

Corn has been going down a little bit, but this was checked last week, and prices are expected to fluctuate only about one or two cents during the next two or three months. The long-range outlook is for small, gradual, increase until about harvest time next fall. March 30, may mark a price turning point with price going up somewhat faster after March 30. If you have corn in safe storage, it should pay you to hold it until spring. If you need to buy corn, however, you will probably save money by making arrangements this month or next.

BENEFIT BRIDGE FOR BAY SHORE GARDEN CLUB

BAY COLONY — A benefit Dessert-Bridge Party was the main topic of discussion at a recent meeting of the Bay Shore Garden Club, held at the home of Mrs. Andree Hodgson.

The bridge party will take place at the Cavalier Beach Club
Tuesday, February 13 at 12:30 o'clock. Feature of the party will be a Spring Hat Show by Snyder's of Norfolk. One of their lovely hats will be the door prize for the lady holding the lucky ticket.

The hats will be modeled by the following members of the garden club—Mrs. Lloyd Burton, Mrs. Richard Stewart, Mrs.
Alan Shepard, Mrs. Frank Mal-bon, Mrs. Walter Renn and Mrs.
C. G. Baughman.

The public is invited to attend this Dessert-Bridge Party and the donation will be $1.00 a person. The tickets may be obtained from Mrs. R. J. McGrath, GA 8-1992.

Another attraction of the party will be prizes for each table. Also, those attending are not limited to playing bridge—canasta players, Mah Jong players—all are welcome.

At the meeting members enjoyed a most interesting and in-will be a commercial gift and boar sale. At the present time, there are forty boars and approximately 400 gilts committed for the sale, and it looks like our producers will have an excellent opportunity to buy what they want at the price they want.

The Sale will be held at the Courtland Livestock Yard, in Courtland, Va.

You wives who have to leave home for a few days need no longer worry about what your family will do to survive without you. Author Albert Brown has the hilarious answer here, in his account of how he became a successful househusband, with sample menus and his secret-formula Continuous Snack Feeder, Fluff Catcher, and Conversation Terminator included.

We Visit Dr. Spock

Because his books and good counsel are bywords wherever there are babies—and because Baby And Child Care has now been followed by Dr. Spock Talks to Mothers, we asked to call on Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin Spock, of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Our editor found them warm, friendly, and very busy with their grandchildren, their beautiful house, and their many hobbies such as boating, skating, and carpentry.

Charlemagne Slept Here

If you're planning a trip to Europe and are looking for fascinating places to stay, you may be pleased to note that many castles, manors, and châteaux are now taking paying guests. These historic hotels, many dating back to the 10th century and beyond, are reasonably priced, magnificently appointed, and equipped with all modern conveniences.

A Growing Suburban Problem

"What Is Good Enough For Grandma?" asks author George Fielding Eliot, this month, in a report on a growing suburban problem—how to make living arrangements for older people that will satisfy everyone. He discusses the questions of privacy, the purchasing power of a retirement income, the need to find places of dignity and usefulness—and outlines steps some communities are taking to ease the problems of our elders.

GETTING AROUND

. . . to Our Pleasant Places and People

AT A MEETING between parents and the kindergarten teacher, a man from Lakewood, Colorado, was told that his five-year-old daughter was the only one in the class who could not tie her own shoelaces. Naturally disturbed, he questioned his offspring and was coyly greeted with the reply, "I don't tie my own shoes at school because the little boys tie them for me." And a Happy Valentine's Day to you, too, little girl.

Fred Delong, of Willow Grove, Pennsylvania, is the president of a group of sportsmen and sportswomen called The Cycling Enthusiasts. Composed of more than 100 people, this club uses tandem bicycles to give blind persons a chance for some fun and exercise. It works this way. Each bicycle is "powered" by a sighted cyclist, called the Captain, who steers, and a blind cyclist, called the Stoker, who helps pedal. It's an excellent way for blind people to get outdoor exercise, and to feel and hear the sounds of nature. There are about 500 potential blind riders in the area, according to Bill McDonald, executive secretary of the Montgomery County Association for the Blind, but there's still a big shortage of steers and of bicycles built for two. If you're interested in being a Captain, or if you have an old tandem you'd like to contribute, please get in touch with Mr. McDonald at the Association.

A De Kalb County, Georgia, reader reminds us that many families now have a second telephone line installed when their daughters become teenagers, so that the family phone can continue to enjoy reasonable tranquility. Our reader adds that one of her daughters found an even better reason for getting her daughter a phone all her own. She used to have trouble reaching Janet by voice (loud voice), and even a knock on the door would often produce mere silence. Now, the telephones her from downstairs and is assured of a pleasant and prompt reply every time. Her husband, a doctor, has diagnosed it as a strange case of selective hearing.

A bunch of Birmingham, Michigan, youngsters, intent on helping "the poor lost animals," have instituted the Junior Humane Society, with headquarters by an orange crate in the garage of the John O. Dykstras. Inspired by appeals from the Birmingham Humane Society (and with the unanimous consent of Candy, John, Jim, and Rickey Dykstra), the neighborhood syndicate has turned the garage into a collection center. It is now a refuge for an assortment of lost or abandoned birds, dogs, cats, kittens, and hamsters. So far they've raised a lot of money—at least $30—towards the maintenance of their shelter by selling soft drinks and holding a neighborhood circus.

A Torrance, California, correspondent writes to tell us about Virgil Houghland's unusual occupation. Mr. Houghland, it seems, spends his time scouting the sidewalks near parking meters and picking up stray coins dropped by careless motorists. Mr. Houghland, who calls himself the "King of the Parking Meters," once spent three months around Tucson, Arizona, raking through the dirt under 21,000 meters, and made $425.

We're pleased to note that Tightsqueeze; Virginia, is Tightsqueeze once more. The town got its name a long time ago from farmers who said it would be a "tight squeeze" if their horses could pull tobacco-laden wagons over the steep hill where the community is located. A few months ago the name was changed to Fairview because a local official thought the old name was ugly. The people didn't agree, and protested so effectively the name has been changed back to familiar, comfortable Tightsqueeze.

Brown Deer, Wisconsin's, Assistant Village Manager Andrew Damon and Trustee Robert Vandamme have suggested, informally, that the community hire women—not for the purpose of checking on parking-meter violations but to read water meters. They want to call them mermaids.

When the position of janitor at the Manchester, Connecticut, post office, fell vacant, all applicants had to fulfill a government requirement that they be able to lift a sandbag weighing 125 pounds. In tests at the post office, 49 men failed to lift the bag. The only man who passed the test hurled the sandbag away and announced: "I don't want the job now."

Boasting about his record, the Police Chief in Oak Cliff, Texas, said: "The vice situation in Oak Cliff is the best I've seen it in a long time."

One enterprising supermarketeer in West Roxbury, Massachusetts, has put in little brushes at the entrance to his store that pop up as you enter and brush off the soles of your shoes. Keeps the store a lot cleaner, he says, and we think it might be a great idea—particularly during these wet, sloshy February days—for someone to invent an adaptation for the entrances of the houses of all small, busy children.

Housewives, meet a great househusband. His wife has nothing to fear when she leaves him in charge BY ALBERT BROWN

AS SHE KISSED ME and the boys good-bye, Mary handed me a fat sheaf of notes and said, "I've written everything down for you, dear. Just follow instructions and you won't have a bit of trouble. Remember to wear your old slacks when you clean the house, and do not smoke in bed."

I'll never forget the unheeded feeling that came over me that day. Earlier, Mary had said, "I must leave for Salt Lake City tonight, dear. Mother has had a turn for the worse, and my brother is in Europe."

She had been unable to locate any baby sitter, friend, or cleaning woman to manage me and our three young terrors during her absence. So she had announced, with visible trepidation, that she would have to put me in charge of everything.

During the 10 years of our married life, I had developed a feeling of revulsion, born of inexperience and general ineptitude, toward washing machines, frozen foods, supermarket carts, and other modern "conveniences" that our wives handle with the precision and aplomb of jet pilots. Once when I tried to help Mary detach the washing machine, she called me a "manual moron."

On page one of Mary's instructions and admonitions, she made it clear that the most important of my many new duties was to give my charges "three good meals a day." I toyed with the idea of making a deal with Louis' Catering Service. I could see its shiny truck pulling up in front of our house three times a day with heated stainless steel carriers full of the delicious meals I had ordered.

But I embarked on this tempting notion as soon as I read the section of Mary's instructions under the heading: "Your Budget."

Still, I embarked on my cookery stint with a certain élan. Here was one phase of my job for which previous experience well fitted me. For six years—ever since Mary gave me a floppy chef's hat and a long white apron with funny sayings printed in red—I had been the acknowledged Barbecue Boss of the house. My charcoal-grilled steaks, marinated in a secret sauce blended of French dressing and peanut butter, enjoyed a substantial reputation.

Dinner the first night after Mary's departure was a production that rivaled, at least in quantity, the American plan dinner at Crosby's Mansion House in Kinniput, Maine. I planned it with the boys' favorite dishes in mind, plus a few of my "impulse purchases" at the Big Elephant Supermarket. It turned out to be a minor Lucullan feast. The menu, as I recall it, was:

Appetizers: Mixed tuna fish and chopped ripe olives on potato chips, peanut butter and jelly on crackers, watermelon rind, pâté de foie gras.

Soups: Chicken without rice, vichyssoise.

Entrees: Choice of hot dogs with pickle relish, mustard, and catsup; hamburgers with pickle relish, mustard, and catsup; spaghetti with tomato sauce; or smoked brook trout aux champignons.

Vegetables: French fried potatoes, potato chips, artichoke au beurre noir.

Saled: None.

Desserts: Chocolate cake with fudge frosting, orange Jell-O with chocolate sauce and chocolate ice cream, Popsicles, fromage pont l'évêque.

Beverages: Chocolate milk, Coke, Irish coffee.

The popularity of this dinner taught me an important lesson. Every home with nonstop eaters for children should be equipped with a stomach pump, a convenience as necessary as a fire extinguisher. I still can't understand why a hearty, well-balanced meal of all their favorite dishes should have caused the boys so much internal havoc.

Once they recovered, I found myself faced with a serious between-meal snack problem. It being vacation, the boys were not only home most of the time, but they were usually surrounded by anywhere from five to 15 of their starving pals. To meet the snack requirements of this horde, I hit on my Continuous Snack Feeder.

In the cellar I found an old three-gallon stone crock in which my grandmother had stored either candled eggs or dill pickles. I simply filled this crock with a 50-50 mixture of peanut butter and jelly. Then I laid in a stock of two dozen loaves of soft, spongy white bread and left them on a kitchen table beside the crock.

The Continuous Snack Feeder required refilling only about every four days, and it eliminated the previous lament that "There's nothing to eat in this house since Mother left."

My invention—the continuous hearty-snack feeder.

Mary's instructions on "keeping everything clean and tidy" were spelled out with the detail of an army manual. But I soon made a startling discovery: When it comes to cleaning, women lack both imagination and creativity. A recent piece of social research shows that the modern homemaker

A House Call on Dr. Spock

BY MARION LOWNDES

Editor of Suburbia Today

Your editor visits a hard-driving, dedicated man who revels, like his

MANY SMALL CHILDREN, as we all know, have close imaginary friends. Nobody ever sees these characters, but they're very good company and usually have fine, fancy names like Timothy and Ow, or Mr. Roosevelt-Goosey—names you don't forget. Today some 13 million mothers also have a friend they have never seen, but they consult him often and come away encouraged. His name is Dr. Spock.

Benjamin Spock's "Baby and Child Care" is the biggest best seller ever written in this country, and is now in print in 16 foreign languages as well, including Arabic and Finnish. When he was asked to write the book, he was a busy, practicing pediatrician, but over the next three years he somehow found time to do it, working six hours a day on his vacation and four evenings of every working week.

"I wanted," he says, "to offer parents the combination of psychological and physical care needed in child care. I wanted to write to a mother in a way that would reassure her. I didn't want to scold or lecture her."

And from that now-famous opening sentence, "You know more than you think you do," right on to the end, he has reassured countless apprehensive mothers, while discussing, fully and calmly, such sometimes unavoidable problems as "Adenoids . . . Aggressiveness . . . Biting humans

. . ." on through to "Weaning . . . Worms . . . Zweiback."

Now a second book has appeared, "Dr. Spock Talks With Mothers." In the same friendly, sensible way he counsels parents who are apt to be confused by the changing attitudes and habits of their school-age child—"the grittiness that comes between them," as he puts it—and from there he goes on to explore the turbulent adolescent world as well.

"Ben has empathy," a colleague from the Mayo Clinic observes. "He feels with the parent and with the child, and because he can put himself in the anxious parent's place he can communicate his own learning to them. He knows what they want to know and need to know." He smiled suddenly. "His own boys were handfuls, too!"

When the second book came out, the editors of SUBURBIA Today asked to pay a house call on this very real, but usually invisible, friend of so many parents and children.

He lives, we found, in Cleveland Heights, Ohio, with his wife Jane, whom he thanks in the introduction of "Baby and Child Care" for contributing "endless time, work, patience, much of the practicality in the detailed directions in the book, and wonderful judgment." They have been married a long time now, since 1927, and are the parents of two sons, Michael and John. They are also proud and devoted grandparents. Michael's older son Danny is two, and Peter arrived last March—"very tall and handsome," his grandmother reported, "with red hair." John, who is 17, is taking his last year of high school abroad, at the Westminster School in London—a daring and far from carefree experiment undertaken at his own request. At last reports, however, he was rowing on the crew, like his father before him, and "what a feeling of power and speed one gets." School life was looking up.

OUTWARDLY there is nothing to distinguish the Spocks' comfortable 40-year-old stucco house from any other comfortable old house on the pleasant street where they live. The surprises are inside. There is a sense of restfulness as soon as you come in which is in no way impaired by the sight of Dr. Spock's writing table and high stool in one corner of the living room. The house looks easy to work in and much enjoyed. From room to room the floors are covered in a sweep of pale gray carpeting, and all the windows have the same treatment—long, translucent white curtains which let the light through but mask the street.

"It's easier for us—and the neighbors," Mrs. Spock says.

The second impression is of brilliant illumination, over cool yellow walls and side chairs of geranium velvet, and the tall screens the Spocks made when they were first married to hide radiators and closet doors, as they are doing to this day.

There are nine big lamps in their 28-by-16-foot living room, and they keep them all on while they are reading or working or seeing their friends in the evening.

"Cleveland is gray as pewter day after day all winter," Mrs. Spock says, "and I turn the lamps on at two in the afternoon if I am going to be out after dark. It's nice to come home into light and warmth."

As Professor of Child Development at Western Reserve, Ben Spock keeps a schedule he would never recommend to a patient. He is out of the house before eight after a quick breakfast of hot cereal. (It's always hot cereal, and Mrs. Spock has discovered seven different kinds—a change for every day.)

Clinics and lectures keep him at medical school until after six in the evening, and when they have had dinner he is very apt to go to his writing table for more work.

In the past seven years, in addition to a full-time professorship, he has lectured, appeared on TV, and written about a hundred articles, all aimed at helping parents to understand and enjoy their children more. His wife says he would probably work until two every morning if she allowed it—but she doesn't.

He has been described at work as hurrying to a clinic session with his long white coat billowing behind him like a sail about to be sheeted in, six-foot-four of energy and enthusiasm. As so often happens with the busiest people, the energy and enthusiasm carry over into the free time, too, what there is of it.

He is a skillful carpenter, and back in his intern days he built the parlor desk as well as the screens they still use. In his upstairs workshop—it used to be a sun porch—he and his son John built a Sailfish and lowered the completed craft out through the window. She was launched, a great success, in nearby Pymatuning Lake where they sail on free weekends.

TWICE A WEEK, during the winter, he leaves his office for the lunch hour and goes over to a nearby rink where he puts on figure skates for an hour of fun and practice and the limbering up that comes with a turn on the quiet ice. Sunday mornings are for skating, too.

He spends his summer vacation, by choice, sailing off Cape Cod and down to Maine in a 23-foot sloop, "The Turtle," with his family for crew.

"She's the cheapest boat three people could squeeze into and cruise," he says. (And he carries a picture of her in his wallet, along with Danny's.)

Apocryphal of "Turtle's" cost, many people have wondered if the spectacular success of "Baby and Child Care" has made Dr. Spock a very rich man. To this he gives one of his characteristic plain-language answers: "A lot of people seem to think that just because the book sold in the millions, I'm a millionaire and that I'm a tightwad because we live relatively simply. The book, including all foreign rights, averaged about $17,000 in royalties over the past 12 years."

On their family cruises, they have had three masts break over them, and in the Bahamas "Turtle" took 30-foot waves, all in the day's work to Dr. Spock.

"He is completely without fear," says his wife, with a trace of regret in her voice.

When he retires, he dreams of retiring to a boat—not "Turtle," something a little roomier—and cruising the Caribbean in the wintertime and his old Maine-Cape Cod boat in the summer.

For the present the palm-fringed islands are a mirage on a far horizon, and Dr. Spock continues to fill his 14-hour working days helping professionals and parents with the endless problems—endless even to him—of "raising them right."

Long Live the Cubs! Being den mother to 10 lively cubs is a job—but a great job

BY SUSAN FRANKEBERGER

• Editors' Note: Do you remember the frustrated den mother who "sounded off" in the September issue—Martha Hutchison of Decatur, Georgia? At the time, we asked other den mothers for their opinions, and the letters have been coming in ever since, some critical of Cub Scouting, but more defending it. Pro or con, these letters are a credit to the busy den mothers who already had their hands full before they sat down to write us, and we wish we could publish them all. Out of the hundreds, this one from Susan Frankenberg speaks eloquently for the majority.

I THINK CUBS are wonderful! Of course, I'm prejudiced, for my den is the greatest, most enthusiastic, noisiest, laughingest, best bunch of nine small boys that were ever rolled (and I do mean rolled) into one cluster. Better make that 10, since our dog considers himself a member, too. He runs the relays, helps eat the cookies, and manages to get into the middle of every circle.

Boys who have been in school all day converge upon the den mother with a full-steam-ahead-rarin'-to-go kind of expectation.

Therefore, it seems only logical that the den meeting should begin with vigorous running games. Fortunately, our back yard is roomy enough for running boys, bouncing balls, and jumping dogs. The boys love tag games, dodge ball, relays, and dashing about for 10 or 15 minutes, and then they are ready to sit down in a circle for a discussion of the skills they are working on for their awards. You should see the businesslike manner in which they divide into groups with pencil and paper to check off one another's accomplishments and progress. ("And don't step over the line, either!") My husband fixed up a board to be walked, a bar to be chinned, and a box to be jumped. He also saws, saves scraps, and helps search out projects.

One day the game time was a treasure hunt with each group having a different set of instructions. Talk about beaming faces—you'd think each boy had a 100-watt bulb turned on inside.

But games are only the first part; then comes the meeting. This consists of the flag ceremony, which is approached from a different angle each time, since everybody needs a turn doing each thing. Then cookies silence wagging tongues, and since legs are tired enough to sit at the table by now it becomes my turn. So pack-meeting necessities are explained and awards and projects discussed.

These boys have not been cubs long enough to know what they would really like to work on. This means I have the fun of rounding up the craft ideas and presenting them to the boys. Not just cut and paste. That's for girls. Boys like real construction, hammering, nailing, sawing, painting, varnishing, soap carving (a toothpick works better than a knife on hand soap), leather work, plaster of Paris, spatter paints—and on into the night. Those birdhouses are wobbly, perhaps, but they are carried home as if made of pure gold. The boys make butterfly nets of poles, wire coat hangers, and kitchen curtains. And how they work, sewing the curtain to the wire!

It isn't all peaches and cream, however. I search the library for craft ideas and must have read a zillion game books. There are skits to be dreamed up, money to be counted and delivered, phone calls to be made, lists to be kept, more phone calls to be made, but best of all, boys and their mothers to laugh with. (Right here I should mention that the Scouts put out several magazines and books with many project ideas and helps for the den mother.)

OF COURSE, rain can change a lot of plans. My husband fixed up a corner of the garage for the meeting and the craft area, and when the rain comes the car is backed out and the special rainy-day games are played. The boys enjoy funny relays in the garage and all kinds of balloon games, such as balloon volleyball over a string and pop-the-balloon between partners' backs.

Cub Scouting works to bring the cub and his parents closer together—that's one of the great things about it. Every mother of our den deserves a medal for the enthusiastic encouragement that is given to the boys. And that's another thing—I've made eight new friends for myself. Those mothers even take turns baking cookies and delivering them to the den meetings.

The den mother takes the parents' word for it that the boy has passed his requirements toward the awards. I feel that the den mother's job is one of helping the boys to feel that they are part of a great group; that they are having fun sharing together; that they are making new friends; and that working together on projects is enjoyable.

Because I live in the redwood country of California, the thought comes to me that this bit of Americana we are trying to teach our boys is very much like a beautiful giant redwood. Our American ideals, also, are sky-high, but wonderful and necessary for young America to know.

One mother, bless her heart, has been my faithful companion through it all. Connie expressed my opinion exactly when, one day, she looked at me over the din of the games, and laughed, "Aren't we lucky!"

My den is now being handed over to Bea with mixed feelings. But I agree with Connie. We surely are lucky to have our cubs!

TIME brings the news into sharp focus—makes it vivid...clear...real. See for yourself how much TIME can mean to you in the eventful months ahead—in terms of understanding, interest, enjoyment... in terms of perspective on this fascinating, fast-changing world of 1962.

Fit for a King

A thousand years of history—and central heating—can be yours for about $3 a day, now that storybook castles are taking paying guests

BY-PHYLLIS BLÓDGETT AND CHRISTINA PAPPAS

DID YOU KNOW you could get lodging for your family at Burg Lauenstein, built in Bavaria in 915 A.D.—tapestries, turrets, fortress rooms, battlements, and armor included—for half of what you'd pay for a motel at home? Or, you can whisk off to the Château D'Artigny, in Montbazoin, France, with wonderful meals and champagne for two in paneled rooms overlooking the Indre River—full pension, $10. Castles in Spain—the Parador d'Oropesa, for instance—really exist. In them your children can become personally acquainted with the history of the Moors and the Knights Templar and Sancho the Brave and Alfonso the Wise, and the cost of a double room is only $3.

Castle-hotels are springing up all over Europe. One after another, the owners of palaces and châteaux are renovating and redecorating and opening their proud estates to the public. They make excellent hotels, offering the most astounding views of valleys and mountains and rivers, plus the romance of staying at a feudal estate or an imperial hunting lodge or an Elizabethan manor house, in rooms that want for no modern convenience.

There are many different kinds of castles. In Germany, depending on your interests, you may choose to stay at either a burg, which is a castle originally built as a stronghold, buttressed and crenellated, or at a schloss, which is the seat or palace of a noble family.

Burg Schnellenberg, set on a mountaintop surrounded by woods, in Southern Westphalia, is a notable example. Dating from the 11th century, this castle boasts a mammoth baronial hall and an armor chamber with a collection of ancient crests—plus a bowling alley. Burg Gruenwald, in the Isar valley, has a fascinating history typical of many of the castle-hotels. A Gothic stronghold, it was built in 1293 by Duke

Ludwig the Severe, as a hunting castle, and later on it was used as the seat of the Vehmnic court. The Austrians had to take it by storm in 1797, but now it can be occupied by anybody who has the modest asking price for a night's lodging.

Craigland, in likely, England, is one castle that bears mention because of its setting on the famous moody moors of Yorkshire. If the weather is right and the fog rolls in, you could swear Heathcliff was right beyond the next knoll, still looking for Cathy.

Castle Rabenstein, near Frohnleiten, Austria, is a medieval castle that was built up on the ruins of a Roman fort, and now houses a fabulous art collection.

FRANCE has many château-hotels, such as the Château de Mercues, in Cahors, which was once the residence of the Bishops of Cahors. It is situated on a peninsula formed by a bend in the Lot River, overlooks a lovely valley, has many gardens and terraces, and the rooms are enormous.

Palumbo, in Italy, is ideally situated near Ravello on the cliffs above Amalfi Drive, overlooks the sea and the charming countryside, and was originally a 12th-century palace.

In Holland, try the Kasteel Oud-Wassenaar, between Haarlem and Rotterdam. Though it looks like an overgrown Charles Addams nightmare, it has dignified, large rooms and salons, beautiful bulb fields, and is only 10 minutes from the Hague.

Whether your tastes run to living history (with a ghost or two thrown in free of charge) or whether you'd like to live in what is practically a museum, surrounded by priceless antiques, or whether you'd just like a few days of utter peace and quiet in luxury, with never-tiring views your only concern, staying in a castle is a good way to vacation.

Gravetye Manor, in Sussex, England, dates from Elizabethan times, has 30 acres of quiet parkland and well-laid-out gardens.

FESTIVE TURKEY MOLD EN BLANCHE

TO PREPARE: 35 MIN.

TO CHILL: 3-4 HRS.

- ½ cup cold water
- 2 tablespoons (2 env.) unflavored gelatin
- 1½ cups hot turkey broth or quick chicken broth
- 1½ cups mayonnaise
- 1 6-oz. can (½ cup) evaporated milk
- 1½ teaspoons monosodium glutamate
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 2½ cups cubed cooked turkey
- 1 cup finely chopped celery
- ½ cup chopped parsley
- ½ cup chopped salted almonds
- ¼ cup capers

1. Lightly oil a 6½-cup fancy tubed mold with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil); set aside to drain.
2. Sprinkle gelatin evenly over the cold water in a bowl. Let stand about 5 min. to soften.
3. Add the hot turkey broth to the softened gelatin and stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Cool; chill until mixture is slightly thicker than consistency of thick, unbeaten egg white; stir occasionally.
4. Blend the mayonnaise, evaporated milk, monosodium glutamate, and salt together in a large bowl.
5. Add gelatin mixture in small amounts to the mayonnaise mixture, blending well after each addition. Stir in the remaining ingredients. Turn into the mold and chill until firm, about 4 hrs.

6. Unmold onto a chilled serving plate and garnish with water creas. 8 to 10 servings

PECAN FORM COOKIES

TO PREPARE: 15 MIN.

TO BAKE: 10 MIN.

- ¾ cup flour
- ¾ teaspoon baking powder
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar
- ¾ cup pecans, grated (about 1 cup)
- 6 tablespoons butter, chilled
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

1. Lightly grease small cookie forms, about 1¼x¼ in. (usually available in the housewares section of a department store), or use sandbakkele molds.
2. Blend the first four ingredients together in a bowl. Mix in the pecans.
3. Cut in the butter with a pastry blender or two knives until mixture becomes a soft dough (requires working beyond the stage when mixture resembles coarse corn meal). Mix in the extract.
4. Put about one teaspoonful of dough into each prepared cookie mold and press lightly. (If using sandbakkele molds, half fill them with dough.) Place the molds on a cookie sheet.

5. Bake at 375°F 10 min. Cool in molds about 10 min. With the point of a knife, carefully loosen cookies from molds. Invert onto cooling rack. Sift confectioners' sugar over tops. About 4 doz. cookies

RASPBERRY RING CAKE

TO PREPARE: 25 MIN.

TO BAKE: 50-55 MIN.

- ¾ cup butter
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 2 cups sifted cake flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup milk
- 6 tablespoons red raspberry jam
- ¾ teaspoon red food coloring

1. Grease bottom only of a 2-qt. ring mold. Set aside.
2. Cream the butter and extract together until butter is softened. Add sugar gradually, beating until fluffy after each addition. Add egg in halves, beating well after each addition.
3. Blend next three ingredients together. Beating only until smooth after each addition, alternately add dry ingredients in fourths and milk in thirds to mixture.
4. Remove one-third of the batter to another bowl and blend in the jam and food coloring. Pour one-half of the plain batter into the mold; pour raspberry batter over first layer. Top with remaining plain batter.
5. Bake at 325°F 50 to 55 min., or until a cake tester inserted in cake comes out clean. Cool 10 min. on cooling rack. Remove from mold and cool completely on rack. Decorate with Raspberry Ripple Icing. (See Photo.) One ring-shaped cake

RASPBERRY RIPPLE ICING

Combine 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 tablespoons cream, and ¼ teaspoon vanilla extract; beat until smooth. With a spoon drizzle frosting over top of cake, allowing it to run down sides. Stir together ½ cup red raspberry jam, 2 teaspoons water, and ½ teaspoon red food coloring in a saucepan; heat mixture until thin. Spoon over cake.

LIPTAUER CHEESE SPREAD

Since the famous Hungarian Liptauer cheese originally used in this spread is not readily available in this country, cream cheese is an excellent substitute.

TO PREPARE: 15 MIN.

TO CHILL: 2 HRS.

- 1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese
- ¾ cup butter
- 3 tablespoons thick sour cream
- 2 anchovy fillets
- 1 teaspoon capers
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon prepared mustard
- 1½ teaspoons paprika
- 1 teaspoon caraway seed
- ¾ teaspoon salt
- 3 rolled anchovy fillets

1. Lightly oil a 2-cup mold with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil); set aside to drain.
2. Cream first three ingredients together in a bowl until well blended. Mash 2 anchovy fillets and the capers; add to cheese mixture.
3. Add the next five ingredients and blend thoroughly. Spoon the cheese spread into the mold, packing to eliminate air spaces.
4. Chill 2 hrs., or until firm. Unmold onto a serving plate and garnish with rolled fillets. Serve with assorted crackers and thin slices of pumpernickel or rye bread. About 2 cups spread

4 Smooth Onion Dressings no one can buy

...new recipes you make with this GOOD SEASONS MIX

Good Seasons Onion Dressing. The very first onion dressing—smooth and light. A hint of herbs, sweet red peppers, and mild green onions give a new, provocative flavor. Takes just seconds to mix. Easy directions are on the Good Seasons envelope. You combine your favorite oil, vinegar and a little water with the Mix. Or, you may substitute another liquid for the water. See recipes below for delicious suggestions.

Onion Dressing for Cole Slaws. Good Seasons Onion Dressing, made the basic way, is wonderful for all slaws. No onion chopping, no raw chunks! Every shred of cabbage is flavored smoothly, evenly. Try it in a new slaw studded with orange sections (fresh or canned mandarin) and crunchy, salted peanuts. Luscious. Creamy Slaws: substitute sour cream or mayonnaise for the water in the dressing. Add 1 teaspoon of caraway or dill seeds at final shaking.

Honey-Poppy Seed Dressing for Fruit. Best and easiest way to make this favorite type of dressing. Use honey instead of the water. Last touch: add 1 tablespoon of poppy seeds. Makes a sweet-tart dressing with a hint of onion. Perfect blend for every kind of fruit salad.

Onion Tarragon Dressing. Use tarragon vinegar instead of cider vinegar in the dressing. Gives a savory tang. Very special for all tossed salads, spinach and vegetable salads.

SPICY RASPBERRY-GELATIN MOLD

TO PREPARE: 35 MIN. TO CHILL: ABOUT 3 1/2 HRS.

- 1 1/2 cups spiced peach slices
- 1 1/2 cups spiced peach sirup
- 1 3-oz. pkg. black raspberry-flavored gelatin
- 1 3-oz. pkg. raspberry-flavored gelatin
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese

1. Lightly oil a 6 1/2-cup ring mold with salad or cooking oil (not olive oil); drain. Arrange peach slices in bottom of mold to form a crown; refrigerate.
2. Mix 3/4 cup water with spiced peach sirup. Heat 1 cup of the liquid until very hot. Add to black raspberry-flavored gelatin and stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Stir in the remaining cold liquid.
3. Pour enough dissolved gelatin over peaches in mold to barely cover. Set both mold and remaining gelatin in refrigerator to chill until gelatin is slightly thicker than consistency of thick, unbeaten egg white. When both mixtures are of the same consistency, spoon gelatin over jelled peaches in mold.
4. Meanwhile, prepare raspberry-flavored gelatin according to pkg. directions; stir in the salt. With a spoon, stir cream cheese vigorously until softened. Gradually add the dissolved gelatin, stirring constantly until thoroughly blended with the cheese.
5. Chill until mixture gels slightly. Spoon over first mixture (both layers should be of almost the same consistency when combined). Chill until firm.
6. Unmold onto a chilled serving plate and serve with a bowl of Coconut Cream. About 8 servings

COCONUT CREAM—Fold 1/4 cup toasted coconut into 1 cup thick sour cream.

APPLE CHARLOTTE

TO PREPARE: 30 MIN. TO BAKE: ABOUT 40 MIN.

- 6 thin slices white bread
- 1/4 cup butter, melted
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 6 large apples, quartered, cored, and pared
- 1/4 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 cup golden raisins
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans

1. Remove crusts from bread slices; cut each into 3 strips. Dip into melted butter; line bottom of a 1 1/2-qt. deep glass casserole with strips, then arrange remaining strips upright around sides.
2. Heat the 2 tablespoons butter in a skillet; add the apples and cook until apples are tender but not mushy.
3. Sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice. Lightly mix in raisins and nuts.
4. Turn apple mixture into bread-lined casserole.
5. Bake at 350°F about 40 min., or until bread is golden brown.
6. Cool; unmold and serve with a choice of Apricot Sauce or whipped cream. 6 to 8 servings

APRICOT SAUCE

TO PREPARE AND COOK: ABOUT 15 MIN.

- 1 1/2 cups apricot jam
- 1/2 cup water
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon apricot brandy

Stir the first three ingredients together in a saucepan. Bring to boiling and cook over low heat 5 to 10 min., stirring to prevent scorching. Sieve. Stir in apricot brandy. Serve hot or cold. 1 1/4 cups sauce

PARTY HAM LOAF

TO PREPARE: 25 MIN.

TO BAKE: 1½ HRS.

- ¼ cup pineapple sirup
- ¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon cider vinegar
- 24 pineapple chunks
- 24 whole cloves
- 4 slices bread, cut in cubes
- ½ cup milk
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon black pepper
- ¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- Ground meat (1½ lbs. ham, ½ lb. pork, and ½ lb. veal)

1. Mix the first three ingredients in a small saucepan; heat until sugar is dissolved, stirring constantly. Pour ¼ cup sirup into a 9½ x 5½ x 2¾-in. loaf pan.
2. Insert cloves in pineapple; with cloves down, arrange in pan in the shape of a pineapple.
3. Mix next three ingredients together in a large bowl; lightly mix in, in order, a mixture of the seasonings, the onion, meat, and remaining sirup. Spoon lightly into loaf pan.
4. Bake at 350°F about 1½ hrs.
5. To unmold, loosen meat from sides of pan. Pour off excess juices, invert onto warm platter, and remove pan. Form leaves with green pepper strips to resemble pineapple crown.

About 8 servings

bringing up baby*

Hints collected
by Mrs. Don Gerber,
Mother of 5

Sudden rebellion in the ranks? Even the best-behaved baby feels the need to rebel from time to time. And why not? A baby is a human being, entitled to a few human quirks. (Besides, this show of spirit means he's growing up.) So when your baby occasionally refuses to go along with his regular mealtime or naptime schedule, try to relax and let him relax before you feed or bed him down. If you don't force the issue, it will be easier to get baby back on schedule the next time around.

Baby will relish regular mealtimes if they're kept "looking-forward-to" times. The needed ingredients? A smiling atmosphere. A goody variety of Gerber Strained Foods. There are more than enough to keep baby's mealtimes zestful.

Variety review with a delicious point of view, Gerber Strained Foods offer plenty of range for menu change. 10 luscious fruits. 9 garden-good vegetables. 9 savory meats. 5 extra flavor-y high meat dinners. 10 tasty vegetable-meat dinners. 4 scrumptious desserts. 6 fruit-licious juices. Each one designed with a specific nutritional need in mind. Sample menu made for lip-smacking:

Four tips to tame a rock-a-bye rebel.

(1) Nothing quite so relaxing as a rocking chair session. (2) A lullaby, sweet and low, still "hath charms to soothe." (3) A favorite cuddle toy somehow makes a crib seem cozier. (4) Grandmother offered a spot of warm milk to encourage drowsiness. Works today, too.

Specialties of the house. Don't forget these special foods for your baby: Gerber Strained Egg Yolks—delicate in flavor custard-y in texture, high in iron and vitamin A. Gerber Teething Biscuits—extra-hard to soothe tender gums, specially shaped for easy grasping. Gerber Cookies for toddlers—animal-shaped for fun, twice as much protein as most other cookies, B-vitamins in the icing.

Important: Gerber prepares over 100 baby foods: cereals, strained and junior, to meet your baby's nutritional needs. We're proud to say:

"Babies are our business...
our only business!"

OUTDOORS

CRABGRASS:

How the Agrico Lawn Plan helps you wipe it out once and for all

You can stop the annual invasion of crabgrass—and keep this crab-shaped monster out of your lawn for keeps. But you can't do it with just a crabgrass killer—not even one as effective as AGRICO Pre-Emergence CRABGRASS CONTROL. Complete control—year in, year out—calls for a two-pronged attack:

1. Kill crabgrass seedlings now

They're already in your lawn—ready to sprout as the soil warms. One application of AGRICO Pre-Emergence CRABGRASS CONTROL now will prevent these seedlings from becoming full-grown lawn-cheaters. AGRICO CRABGRASS CONTROL kills crabgrass even in the 2-leaf stage (about 1" high), but for best results, apply it now!

2. Next—Feed your lawn

Grass scientists say the biggest enemy of crabgrass is a thick, healthy lawn. This kind of lawn will crowd out crabgrass because this lawn-cheater needs sun, growing space and air to germinate and survive.

To build a dense lawn, you must feed it a balanced diet of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. AGRICO GRASS FOOD (60% organic with urea-form) contains these vital elements—and more. Agrico gives you up to 30% more lawn foods per bag than any other fertilizers. So Ag-rico feeds grass longer. Be careful of short-lasting fertilizers that give out just when crabgrass is at full striking power.

This 2-step, common sense approach assures you a good healthy lawn that can keep crabgrass out. Agrico products are formulated for your local soil and climate in our 39 plants. They go through all spreaders—settings are on every bag.

Agrico Lawn Plan for Spring

First—make sure all your grass is exposed to sun and air by vigorous raking.

Next—feed with AGRICO GRASS FOOD for early dense growth.

Same day, apply AGRICO CRABGRASS CONTROL. For best results, the soil should not be disturbed following this application.

Water deeply; mow no lower than 1½". Bents and southern grasses should be cut ¾" to 1" high.

If you're re-seeding, seed at a heavy rate—3 to 4 weeks after applying Crabgrass Control.

Insects or weeds? Use AGRICO INSECT CONTROL or AGRICO WEED CONTROL.

Get AGRICO where garden supplies are sold. If your store is not stocked yet, write: The American Agricultural Chemical Company, New York 7, New York.

Feed Lawns everywhere by Washington's Birthday. You can even spread plant food on the snow, since melting will carry it down to root level. You may find one of the slow-release ureaform lawn foods ideal, for although they cost more you use less, and fewer applications are needed through the year.

Apply Crab-grass Killers of the pre-emergence type a few weeks ahead of seed germination time in your area to kill crab-grass seeds. Follow label directions to the letter to insure good results. Don't sow lawn seeds till at least three weeks later.

Plant Precooled Tulips, hyacinths, and other bulbs in the South. They'll root quickly and flower well. In most warm places you may also plant ranunculus and St. Brigid's anemones for early flowering.

Reseed Patchy Lawns. You can scatter seeds on the snow, and when it melts they'll be brought in contact with the bare soil. Or you can scratch the soil in bare spots, sow seed on it. Feeding will also help thicken lawns by stimulating grass-root growth early.

Apply Dormant Sprays only when the temperature is 40° or higher. Scale insects on fruit, lilacs, euonymus, and other plants are best controlled by dormant sprays.

Give Epsom Salts to rhododendron and azaleas with yellowing leaves in warm regions now—elsewhere later on—to make them green and healthy. Use a half pound per 100 sq. ft., water in well, and two weeks later spray soil and plants with a ferrous sulfate solution: two oz. to three gal. water.

Kill Chickweed. It will stay green all winter, even under snow, and unless killed now with a special-formula spray or dust, it will reseed, and you'll never get rid of it.

Overhaul the Lawn Mower or have a repairman do it now while he is not rushed. If you do it yourself, wash out carburetor, empty and flush oil pan, check spark plugs for possible replacement, and replace starter cable if it is fraying. After sharpening mower blades, oil to prevent rusting. Review all other garden tools now.

Prune Late-Flowering Trees and shrubs now—rose of Sharon, summer spiraea, vitex, hydrangeas, and the like. Don't prune early bloomers such as forsythia, spiraea, deutzia, except to shape them or to get branches to force into bloom indoors. Cut back after blossoming. Yearly light pruning will keep plants young and healthy.

Shape Foundation Plantings Now, also hedges, before they get out of hand.

Rake Leaves and Twigs from the lawn, or they'll mat down and kill the grass. Examine perennial beds to see if mulches have blown off and if plants have heaved with the frost; firm them down again so that the roots can take hold once more, before the mulch is replaced.

for FEBRUARY GARDENERS

getting longer... now is the time to begin the garden year

BY JOHN BRIMER

Plant Bulbs Outdoors in the South. Many "summer" bulbs may be planted now and also Paperwhite and Soleil d'Or narcissus, Chinese lilies, and amaryllis that have finished blooming indoors. In warm regions it's also time to plant bare-rooted roses, shrubs, and trees.

INDOORS

Make Notes of Seeds you want to start soon, and get your supplies in.

Start Tuberous Begonias indoors now for outdoor summer plants in pots or beds. Use one-third each of leaf mold, peat moss, and sand for soil mixture in flats or compressed peat pots, which will allow roots to penetrate sides later on. Firm tubers down in soil and cover with one-quarter- to one-half-inch of soil over depression in top of tubers from which the roots and stems will grow. Keep soil moist but not wet; when sprouts appear, pot up tubers (peat pot and all) in seven- to eight-inch clay pots filled with rich soil, as soon as two good-sized leaves have formed. Or they may be left in the flat until outdoor-planting time—late May in northerly spots, earlier in mild climates.

Start Feeding Houseplants again. Using a half-strength solution twice as often is better than risking indigestion with one big feeding a month. Increase water ration, too.

Check Stored Tubers, roots, bulbs. Sprinkle shriveled dahlia tubers lightly with water; if they are moldy, dust with sulfur before replacing in storage medium. Experiments show tubers can be kept healthy and plump all winter by using an antidesiccant spray recommended for outdoor use on evergreens to retard leaf-moisture loss.

Sow Upland Cress or curled cress in a pot on the kitchen window sill. As they appear, young shoots will give zest to an omelet, perk up a sandwich, add to the taste of a soup or fish dish.

Bring in Bulbs potted last autumn and kept outdoors for forcing into bloom now. Keep pots cool and shady (45°-55°) till shoots are a few inches high; then bring into living rooms with temperatures below 70°; water, feed, and nurture till they bloom. When in blossom, keeping pots in a cool room at night will prolong blooming time.

Force Flowering Shrub and tree branches to bloom indoors. This month and next, use branches cut when temperatures are 40° or above, to trap sap in the twigs. Immerse them overnight in a bathtub of warm water, then hammer stem ends for an inch or two to assure water entry; put in a bucket of water in a warm place, and when buds burst make arrangements in vases.

Use early flowering types now, late bloomers next month. Some good subjects are: forsythia, flowering quince, crabapple, pear, apple, apricot, peach, star and saucer magnolias; also dogwood and lilac, which are best forced with long stems, late in the season.

New Yorkers Were SHOCKED
By The Recent EXPOSE of PATENT MEDICINE PRACTICES
Now You Too Can Learn How To SAVE
... STOP PAYING HIGH PRICES FOR

VITAMINS

A recent public service study of Patent Medicines in one of New York's leading evening newspapers, devoted one entire installment to vitamins and disclosed many interesting highlights about the sale of Vitamins and Vitamin-Mineral combinations.

One of the startling revelations in this frank article was the wide variance of Vitamin prices.

The following three paragraphs taken from the series, as it appeared, are of particular concern to every family buying Vitamins.

"Any particular vitamin bottled under one label is, for all practical and therapeutic purposes, the same as if it bottled under another label. The fact is, most of the Vitamin concentrates consumed in America are produced by only a few companies.

"The list of ingredients in a Vitamin compound is one thing the consumer can almost always depend on to be correct. Any company which fails to label the bottle with the exact formula and amount (or unit strength) of each ingredient risks a seizure by the U. S. Government.

"Bearing that in mind, it is interesting to pick up a few Vitamin catalogs and compare the prices charged by different companies for the same Vitamin compounds."

Following publication of the installment we received hundreds of phone calls requesting copies of the Hudson Vitamin Catalog.

This interest prompted us to tell the entire nation our story.

Hudson Vitamin Products has been serving doctors and nurses for over 25 years and now you, too, can purchase your Vitamins DIRECT from Hudson at savings up to 50% and more. Page after page in the Free Hudson Catalog shows tremendous dollar savings on Vitamins, Vitamin-Mineral combinations and Food Supplements.

Here is one example from the Hudson Vitamin Catalog: A very popular multiple vitamin that is taken once-a-day, regularly sells for about $3.10 per 100... the Hudson formula sells for only $1.50 per 100.

Here is another—a well-known high potency B complex formula with Vitamin C and minerals (similar to a brand nationally advertised at $4.40 per 100)... only $2.10 per 100 DIRECT from the Hudson Vitamin Catalog.

These are only two examples that you will find in our 48 page catalog that is simple, easy to read and has been a Vitamin buying guide for millions from coast-to-coast.

Write for the Catalog and show it to your doctor if you like—but, by all means, discover for yourself why Hudson has become a DIRECT MONEY-SAVING source for vitamins throughout the nation. All Hudson vitamin products are sold with a money back guarantee.

Of all the Englishmen who drink gin... how many drink Gordon's?

Most of them. And it's been that way for years. To be blunt about it, Gordon's is England's biggest selling gin—as it is America's and the world's. Why? Probably because we have always refused to tamper with a good thing. Gordon's still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula—conceived in London 193 years ago—so its distinctive dryness and flavour remain unchanged and unchallenged to this day. Ask for Gordon's by name at your favourite tavern and package store.

What Is Good Enough for Grandma?

A fresh look at a growing suburban problem—finding living arrangements for the older person that will satisfy everyone

BY GEORGE FIELDING ELIOT

NEARLY A WHOLE generation has been added to the life span of Americans since 1900, but the tragedy is that so much of the added time is being wasted or absorbed in a wearying struggle to find a decent place to live, peace of mind, and some sense of pride and usefulness.

There are almost 16,000,000 Americans today who are 65 or over. Only about one out of four is gainfully employed. The majority are living on savings or retirement income of one kind or another. The median income is low—less than $1,000 a year. Many, who are not working but are willing and able, cannot find employment—"too old" is the automatic brush-off.

At present, 69% of these older people maintain homes (owned or rented) either alone or with a spouse; three million live with relatives; and another million and a half, all told, live with other people, or in institutions, including hospitals. Wherever they are, the over-all problem is the inability of the purchasing power of most forms of retirement income to keep up with the rising cost of living.

Outside the city, the problems of the senior citizen are especially severe. In hundreds of typical, bustling communities from Bellevue, Washington, to Natick, Massachusetts, the accent today is on youth. Youth—the schooling and happiness and welfare of youth—is their main reason for existence. Neither the average suburban home nor the average suburban community has been designed to provide a place for old folks.

Stop for a minute and think this through before you rise up in righteous indignation and say our town is different.

Suppose, suddenly, you had to find a place for an aging parent to live. (Most likely it would be your mother. The average American woman is widowed at 70; the average man who survives his wife doesn't lose her until he is 85.) What do you do? Make room in your own home? Don't, for the sake of all concerned, take snap judgment on this. Does your parent really want to live with you? Can you make an older person feel really needed rather than an added burden?

Time was when both Grandpa and Grandma were very helpful family members; there were any number of little chores they could do and enjoyed doing. Modern labor-saving appliances and packaged gimmicks have done away with most of these.

And where is your parent—or your in-law—going to sleep? If you have a bedroom that isn't being used, you're luckier than lots of suburban families. For old folks, one essential requirement is privacy, a place they can call their own. You probably can't compromise on this for very long, if at all. If there can't be a separate room, chances are the plan won't work. Even if you can make Junior move his multitudinous effects out on the sleeping porch, you're setting up a conflict that'll haunt you. Also what about dividing up bathroom time—a problem with which, if you have more than one active child, you are doubtless acquainted already?

Better stop and think how an older member of the family will fit in with all the other demands on your time—your husband's commuter schedule, your nursery and social schedule, Junior's school schedule. "If only," says a harried housewife in Skokie, Illinois, "Mother didn't have that 'pushed around' look all the time, as though she were in the way and knew it and was being so patient about it." On the brighter side, a no-less-busy woman reports: "I can tell you one thing: It's a blessed comfort when I'm late getting home from the bridge club or a frustrating shopping spree to know that dinner's progressing right on schedule and on top of that Mother's going to be beaming because she's had the chance to do something for all of us."

SOCIAL WORKERS who specialize in the problems of our senior citizens are becoming convinced that the "three-generation household" really works well only when there is a reciprocal need for it—when all concerned benefit from the arrangement and when there are no serious personality clashes among them.

Medium-rent and low-rent housing space especially designed for—and restricted to—occupancy by older people is being provided in increasing quantities in and near many of our larger cities. Federal aid for "housing for the aged" now runs into many millions annually. States are helping.

MINWAX Tips on WOOD FINISHING

Floors never need rescrapping

When you put the finish in the wood—not just on it—your floors will last a lifetime. Minwax goes deep into the wood... leaves no brittle surface to scratch or mar. You have a choice of Natural Minwax or a wide range of color tones. Maintain with liquid wax and you never have to refinish your floors.

Today's trend is to paneling

Easy-to-use Minwax brings out wood's natural beauty. Simply apply Minwax Wood Finish to the panel after sanding it thoroughly. Then add a light touch of Minwax Finishing Wax. The result is a rich, hand-rubbed look. For authentic Colonial effects, try Cherry, Ipswich or Puritan Pine. Modern effects include Driftwood, Straw or Spruce Gray.

Unfinished furniture

Minwax imparts a rich, warm glow to unfinished furniture... cabinets... new shelves and wood trim... choose wood with uniform grain and sand silk-smooth. Finish as above in your choice of Minwax quick-drying colors.

For over 50 years Minwax Wood Finishes have been the standard of quality with architects, custom builders and antique dealers. Also economical and easy to use are Minwax Finishing Wax, liquid or paste, and that wonderful new repair stick for surface scratches—Blend-It.

too. New York law, for example, now requires 10% of all state-aided housing space to be set aside for senior citizens.

There are, of course, complications. People in general are only beginning to get over a strong distaste for having anything that could be called an "old-folks' home" too near their own. But acceptance is coming, however slowly. The town of Bedford, in Westchester County, New York, has not only revised its zoning law to allow the building of Fellowship Hall, a 68-unit garden-apartment development for the elderly, but showered down with a 50% property-tax abatement. Committees, councils, welfare associations, and church groups in densely populated metropolitan areas across the nation are working on the problem of where—and how—the parents of their largely suburban populations are going to live. Much of this effort is on a countywide basis, from Bergen County in New Jersey, clear across to Los Angeles County, California; Boston, Cleveland, Philadelphia, St. Louis, and the Bay region around San Francisco afford examples of concerted metropolitan-area efforts to come up with some answers. The needs of senior citizens in greater Detroit have been the subject of extensive research by the University of Michigan, with cooperation from authorities and agencies in the cities and towns affected. The Welfare Council of metropolitan Chicago is notable for its efforts in behalf of the elderly.

Under all this pressure and persuasion—and a growing realization of the facts—many suburban communities are awakening to the need for a reasonable amount of low-rent housing within their borders. There are other advantages besides taking care of senior citizens: 12 out of 13 school superintendents in Westchester County, New York, assert that lack of moderately priced housing is a major difficulty in recruitment of good teachers.

New construction isn't the only answer. Remodeling of large old houses for multifamily use is being encouraged in some places, thus making use of soundly built homes that are just too big to be kept up in proper shape on a one-family basis by aging owners.

In newer areas, preplanning for a proportion of old-age housing is finding favor. A report of the New Jersey Old Age Study Commission predicts that from now on "there will be no community in which the needs of the elderly are not reckoned with in a fair share of the building which is done. Not only will dwelling units be affected; steep flights of steps to church auditoriums will be eliminated; high curbstones at street corners will be replaced by gently sloping ramps; grab bars may well become standard equipment in all public toilets; shops will provide places for customers to be seated, with alcoves for rest on every floor."

Cottages for work and recreation are included in Miami's new Donn Gardens housing development for seniors.

How to "Balance" the table scraps you feed your dog

Gro-Pup Ribbon can supply the nutrients that may be missing

Dogs love the foods that people eat. But you can never be sure that scraps from the table are giving your dog all the nutrients needed for a long and happy life.

That's the reason thoughtful families are adding Gro-Pup Ribbon to every "scrap meal" they feed.

Gro-Pup Ribbon is an unusual kind of dog food. It contains an extra bonus of protein, vitamins and minerals—far in excess of the minimum levels set by the National Research Council.

Even when fed with large amounts of "unbalanced" leftovers, Gro-Pup can safeguard against improper diet.

When you feed Gro-Pup Ribbon every day you can be confident that your dog is getting an abundance of the dietary essentials you know he needs. Why don't you start tomorrow?

GRO-PUP RIBBON

Fun Way to Reward Your Dog—Gro-Pup Dog Dietetic Treats in T-Bone Form

The special construction features required for the homes of older folks are pretty well worked out by this time. They include: (1) complete dwelling facilities, on one floor; (2) few, if any, steps; (3) no thresholds or other tripping hazards; (4) nonslip surfaces in hallways, bathrooms, and kitchens; (5) handrails by all steps and inclines, and grab bars capable of supporting a heavy person next to all bathtubs and toilets; (6) adequate illumination; (7) fully automatic heat capable of maintaining interior temperatures of 80° in all weather conditions; (8) no layout that contemplates continued use of the living room for sleeping purposes; (9) electrical outlets placed high enough to eliminate stooping; (10) doorways wide enough for wheel chairs.

But, as Edward Aronov of the United Community Services of Greater Milwaukee, puts it, "Housing for the aged is a question involving, in just about equal proportions, physical and social planning. There is more or less general agreement on the physical requirements of such housing, but too little is known about the social requirements."

But, to make a beginning, we do know that almost all old people want to be near public transportation and everyday shopping facilities (progressively they become less able to drive themselves or walk long distances). Nearness to doctors' offices, theaters, libraries, and recreation centers for old folks should be remembered, too.

A word about these centers that are springing up almost everywhere. They are sponsored by churches or sometimes by local social agencies or organized by senior citizens themselves. "Golden Age" and "Golden Years" appear frequently as names. Others are more original—"Cracker Bar!" "Stitch and Chatter," "Spit'n Argue." Here and there a name shows up that doesn't seem too cheery—"Borrowed Time Club," "Live Embers," "Last Mile Society." Where funds and space are available, some centers are open every day; others only on certain days. Games, hobbies, books, and above all, fellowship are usual features. More elaborate centers have handicraft shops, cafeterias, lecture programs, gardens.

SOME CENTERS have special objectives. Thus Sunset Industries near Boston, Massachusetts, produces handmade goods, offering part-time paid employment, while the Santa Monica (California) Sheltered Workshop goes further and has managed to graduate 28 out of 49 elderly employees into paying jobs in regular industry.

Some types of old-age housing combine the idea of the social center with appropriate individual living quarters, and there many of the occupants have formed warm and rewarding attachments. Often a stronger individual will take one who is less robust under special care. There are even occasional marriages. (One such romance was blasted by the discovery on the part of the lady that her intended, age 84, was on the state relief rolls; as the recipient of a monthly Social Security check she felt that she could not marry so far beneath her social level.) This semicommutal type of housing often has central dining facilities for those who find that eating alone is no fun or are tired of cooking for themselves.

To sum up, what we're faced with is a vast and rising increase in the proportionate number of our senior citizens plus a steady decline in the purchasing power of their retirement incomes. The questions that arise are complex, and there are no neat, easy answers. All that can honestly be claimed is that wider and wider attention is being given to the increasing need to find places of dignity and usefulness for our elders.

And this is everybody's business. Aren't we all growing older day by day?

Don't Worry, Darling

Another of my inventions—cleaning cart loaded for bear, and ever ready.

walks an average of six miles a day. I can believe it. She must also stoop and squat another half mile a day.

It seemed to me that with a little creative thinking and experimentation, I should be able to eliminate much of the time Mary and her sisters-in-homemaking spend walking, jogging, stooping, pushing, pulling, and kneeling.

It was with considerable pride, therefore, that I perfected my first Time and Energy Saver. I simply assembled in one central place all the equipment I would need for the day's cleaning—broom, dustpan, dry mop, bucket of water (half full, to avoid sloshing), ammonia, sponge, rags, floor waxer, wax, vacuum cleaner, and assorted soaps, abrasives, and detergents. I piled these neatly in our garden cart and with very little effort pulled it from room to room. Of course, this method works best if you live, as we do, in a ranch house and if the garden cart has never been used outdoors.

MY SECOND cleaning invention was designed to correct the problem, inherent in old-fashioned or broom cleaning: getting that last little pile of stuff into the dustpan without backing into the wall on the opposite side of the room.

First, I purchased a long-handled dustpan of the type used by those uniformed gentlemen who sweep up cigarette butts in the lobbies of our leading hotels. I took this to my neighbor, Jim Gerrity, a good man with tools. I had him cut off the two outside corners of the pan to a 90-degree angle. I now had a long-handled, triangular dustpan.

The new procedure was this: I started sweeping in the middle of the room and swept everything into the corners. Then I brought my triangular dustpan smartly into each corner, being careful to hit both baseboards and to keep the bottom of the pan flat on the floor. Dirt that doesn't make the pan doesn't amount to much and can be ignored.

I next brought my newly awakened talents to bear on the fluff problem—dust under the beds. This I brought under control with my Fluff Catcher Method. It works as follows: Crisscross approximately 300 yards of Scotch tape (the widest available) back and forth across the bedroom at various levels until the room resembles a giant spider web. Then place electric fans on the floor to blow the fluff out from under the beds. Leave the room while the fluff floats and billows gently in the breeze, eventually settling on the sticky surface of the tape. Return in about an hour with rubber gloves and haul in the tape.

I didn't really mind putting in a 12-hour day at all the tasks I've mentioned in this article. After all, our wives do as much. But I did resent having my 12 hours stretched to 13 or more by the telephone. Half of the calls were for the boys or one of their semi-tenant pals. The other half were for Mary, equally divided between friends who did not know she had gone to her mother's and friends who did. In either case, I would be in for 10 minutes of nonstop advice on running the house and managing the boys, with insistent offers to run right over and help.

It was the day I answered the telephone four times without intermission that Providence gave me the idea of the Conversation Terminator.

This is a short sentence that will enable you to hang up immediately on even your wife's best friend. The following proved to be the most effective:

"Can't talk any more now. I see water trickling down the hall from the direction of the bathroom."

"Sorry to hang up, but one of Butch's friends is throwing darts at the portrait of Mary's grandmother."

"Guess I'd better get off the phone. Butch is shaving Jamie's head."

"I must dash. The couple who are going to adopt Jamie have just arrived."

(Thickly, hiccupping. To be used only after 6 p.m.) "How about a martini? I jes' had my seventh an' I do believe I'm goin' to . . . to . . . (Drop receiver loudly.)"

Mary got back one evening just before dinnertime. I had everything in apple-pie order. All three boys had bathed or been bathed. The house, I thought, looked immaculate. Potatoes were baking and string beans steaming. A two-inch steak was ready for the charcoal. I was wearing my chef's apron and hat.

After giving me a quick kiss, hugging the boys, and sweeping the living room with her beautiful eyes, Mary said, the very first thing (and I quote), "You poor dears! It's about time Mommy came home and fixed you some nourishing food and got rid of all this filth!"

Public Hearing Set For County Sewage Plant

PRINCESS ANNE—The Board of Supervisors announced at a meeting Monday that a public hearing will be held February 26 at noon on a proposed $172,387 sewage treatment plant in the county.

To be located on a 175-acre site near the courthouse, the plant will serve the new Floyd B. Kellam High School, Princess Anne Court House and residences in the adjacent area.

When acquired, the line will cost an estimated $23,400 and there will be provisions for a sanitary land fill to take care of future garbage disposal if needed. Individual taps on the sewer line will cost $3.50 per month.

The Board adopted a resolution asking the State Highway Department to handle a road maintenance program in the county for an entire fiscal year which would give the county road service for six months after the merger goes into effect, Jan. 1, 1963.

Building permits issued in the county during the month of January totaled 135 amounting to $1,233,125.

How Much Power?
A move was made by Bayside Supervisor Carroll G. Clough to get Commonwealth's Attorney Robert L. Simpson to find out how much power the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission has in determining highway routes.

Clough stated that residents of Chesapeake Beach want a road that would allow persons coming off the future bridge-tunnel road to enter the beach area without going all the way to Shore Drive and doubling back.

A solution to the road problem would be an ingress and egress road south of the future toll plaza but the commission has not committed itself on this possibility.

Clough requested that Simpson find out "whether the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission has the authority to open, close or rearrange roads without the consent and advice of the governing body."

In other action, the Board approved a use permit for a Lutheran Church and school to be erected on five acres of land at Little Neck and King's Grant roads.

VETERANS MEETING

VIRGINIA BEACH — All Veterans of World War I, and their wives or widows, are invited to attend an important meeting of Barracks 1804, at City Council Chamber, 405-19th, St. Virginia Beach, Va., Sunday, February 18th, 1962 at 2 p.m.

C of C Announces Plan For Summer Music Fete

VIRGINIA BEACH — Thirty-three high school bands from 11 southeastern states are expected to participate in the first annual Virginia Beach Music Festival June 14-16.

Co-sponsored by the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce and Forbes Candies, the festival is designed to stimulate growth and interest in concert and marching band music.

Nearly 3,500 senior high schools in the Southeast are being sent inquiries. The top three bands from each state will be chosen by a board of judges headed by Logan Turrentine, president of the Florida Bandmaster's Association.

Competitions will be held the first two days of the festival. A parade down Atlantic Avenue the final day and a dance that night will climax festivities.

Bridge Play Opens Friday

NORFOLK — The Spring Championship Sectional tournament will be played at the Monticello Hotel Friday through Sunday, Allen Hanel, tournament manager, announced.

Men's pair and women's pair games will begin Friday at 2:00 P.M. Maynard Ehrenworth is chairman of the men's group and Mrs. Albin R. Mailhes is chairman of the women's division.

At 8 p.m. Friday, the mixed pair competition will start. Mrs. Murray Pell is chairman of this group. Players may call the chairmen for partners, it was announced.

The C. B. White Memorial Open Pair Championship is scheduled for 2 p.m. (first session) and 8 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. V. H. Nussbaum, Jr., is chairman. A special pair side game will be held Saturday starting at 8 p.m.

Featured on Sunday will be the team-of-four competition with two sessions, one starting at 1 p.m. and the other at 7:00 P.M. Mrs. J. T. Goswick is chairman.

The Virginia State Bridge Assn. will serve coffee and soft drinks for the tourney. Trophies will be awarded and plus master points may be gained. All bridge players are invited to participate and should contact the various chairmen for games.

Moose Aids Heart Fund With Dance

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach Moose Lodge No. 1998 will sponsor a Heart Fund Dance Saturday at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center.

Kellam Listed On Forum For Jaycee Meeting

VIRGINIA BEACH — Sidney S. Kellam of Virginia Beach, Congressman Thomas N. Downing and Don A. Goodall of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce will conduct the principal forum at the State Jaycee Conference in Williamsburg on Saturday, Feb. 17.

Virginia Beach Jaycees planning to attend the three-day conference will include Rhae Adams, Dale Beasley, Les Belsha, Wally Bornemann, Dick Bragg, Fletcher Bryant, George Darden, Bob Evans, Sonny Forbes, Bill Gaspar, Jim Griffiths, Ayler Holland, Gene Joyner and Jim McDonald.

Highlight of the Conference will be the hour and one-half forum to be led by Kellam, Downing and Goodall on "The Citizens and Participation in Practical Politics."

Kellam is the Democratic National Committeeman from Virginia. Downing represents the First Congressional District of Virginia in the U.S. House of Representatives. Goodall is helping promote the U.S. Chamber of Commerce program to encourage greater participation in politics by the general public.

Ayler Holland, a Virginia Beach Jaycee, will conduct a forum in connection with the Jaycee State Junior Tennis Tournament which will be held at the Beach in June.

Gene Joyner and Rhae Adams are co-chairmen of the State Convention which will be held here in May. They will host a hospitality party encouraging attendance at the State Convention.

Other features of the Conference will be a luncheon honoring Virginia's outstanding Young Farmer. Speaker for the luncheon will be Dr. Paul Sanders, editor of the national magazine, Southern Planter.

The Saturday dinner dance will feature the presentation of the State D.S.A. Award. The "Distinguished Service Award" is presented each February to the young man under 36 who has been selected the most outstanding in the state.

The Conference will conclude on Sunday after the completion of the Board of Directors meeting.

Human Relations Course To Be Offered at P.A. High

PRINCESS ANNE — The Distributive Education Service of Princess Anne County will offer a course in "Human Relations in Supervision" for business owners, managers and supervisors February 19 through March 14.

The 1-hour course will be held each Monday from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the Virginia Beach High School library.

Purpose of the course is to help business heads in supervising and understanding employees and directing them on the job so that they will be able to serve customers more effectively.

Registration must be made in advance with Carroll B. Coakley, supervising coordinator for Distributive Education at Princess Anne High School. Registration fee is $5 per person for the entire course.

The program will include: Feb. 19—The supervisor and his many roles in today's business world.

Feb. 26—Delegation of duties and responsibilities.

March 5—Job correction and follow-up and supervising the complaining employee.

March 12—High morale: How any business organization can develop it or lose it.

Instructor will be R. W. Wooldridge, administrative assistant to the superintendent of Norfolk City Schools. After obtaining his master's degree at Columbia University, Wooldridge re-entered the business world, attaining staff status with Sears, Roebuck & Co. before operating his own business. He has conducted numerous workshops on supervision and training in the Tidewater area.

The course is co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, Distributive Education Service, State Department of Education and the Princess Anne County DES. Coordinators for the course are Coakley, Sue Lassiter and George Coffey.

The advisory committee includes: Sidney S. Kellam, Kellam & Eaton Insurance Co.; Buddy Riggs, Western Auto; James Crockett, Crockett Pinder Theatres; Rhae Adams, Em-Rhac Motors, Inc.; M. E. Woods, Russell & Holmes Shoe Store; Jack Haden, Virginia Electric & Power Co.; A. R. Mailhes, Virginia Beach Sun-News; Mrs. Julia Nelms, Chamber of Commerce; Joe Wood, Price's Inc.; Charles Nelms, Lafayette Life Insurance Co.; and James Helmer, principal, Virginia Beach High School.

Sun-News To Begin Religious Features

The Virginia Beach Sun-News will next week start a minister's column on the church page. The first article will be written by the Rev. J. Elmer Medley of Prince of Peace Lutheran Church followed by on February 22 by the Rev. J. Paul Vondracek of First Presbyterian Church of Virginia Beach.

A series of articles on Lent will begin March 8 and continue through April 19. These columns will be written by the Rev. LeRoy W. Davis, Tabernacle Methodist Church; the Rev. H. Eugene Arrington, Oak Grove Baptist Church; the Rev. B. Sidney Sanders, Eastern Shore Chapel Episcopal; the Rev. Dick Woodward, Virginia Beach Community Chapel - Interdenominational; the Rev. Walter E. Hartsell, Kala Church of Christ; James R. Hutton, Ch.C. USNR, Naval Air Station; and the Rev. Arthur W. Ayers, Princess Anne Methodist Church.

All ministers, priests and rabbis in the area are invited to participate in this column. A different church will be represented each week.

'Gay-Day' Series To Start February 24

VIRGINIA BEACH—Registration for the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County YWCA "Gay-Day" series for teenage girls will be held February 24 and the 6-week classes will get underway March 3.

Mrs. Tom Ellis will teach beginner's bridge with a step-by-step simplified point count system of the Goren method. Mrs. E. V. Caulfield will teach the intermediate bridge class with short sessions of instruction followed by the actual playing of hands.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Elizabeth Deal, county home demonstration agent, sewing participants will be permitted to select their own patterns and fabrics and the articles made in the class will be modeled at a fashion show at the end of the series.

Location of the registration and 6-week course will be announced in the Sun-News next week.

Merger Passed By Senate; Now Awaits Signing

Opposition Soundly Beaten By Lopsided Vote, 35 to 3

RICHMOND — The charter merging Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County into the fifth largest city, area-wise, in the country was approved by the General Assembly Tuesday afternoon despite delaying action by Norfolk Senator Edward L. Breeden Jr.

Metro Next?

Senate Gives Toll Road Plan Its' Approval

RICHMOND—A bill allowing construction of a toll road between Virginia Beach and Norfolk cleared the State Senate Monday and will soon go to the House of Delegates. If passed, the road will come under the State Revenue Board Act.

The bill was sponsored by Sen. E. Almer Ames Jr., who represents Virginia Beach, Princess Anne County and Eastern Shore, and Norfolk Sen. Robert F. Baldwin Jr.

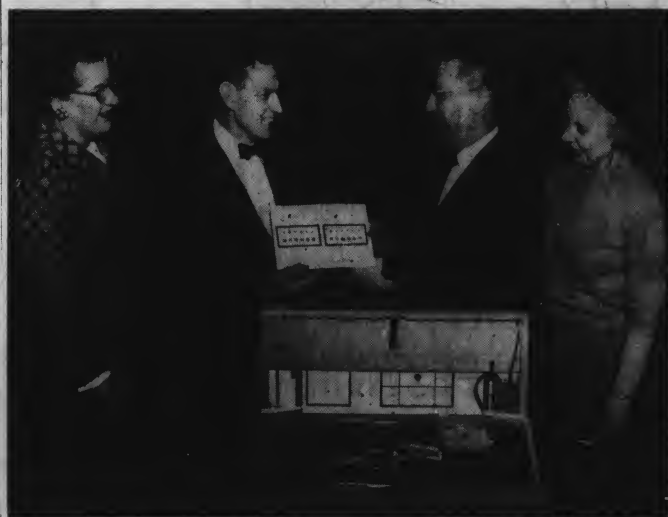

The Baldwin-Ames toll road bill is designed to give the State Highway Department clearance to begin feasibility studies. If the studies show that the need and usage of the road by motorists would make a bond issue possible, then construction could begin.

The new limited access thruway would relieve the now congested and accident-ridden Virginia Beach Blvd.

Beach Girl In Piano Competition

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mary Ferebee's piano accomplishments won her a place in the quarterfinal eliminations for the 1962 Bland Memorial Music Scholarship. She was sponsored by the Virginia Beach Lions Club. Runner-up for the honor was Charles Ansell, who played the accordion.

For A Better Outlook

Jim Fridley, second from right, president of the Virginia Beach Lions Club, presents an eye-testing machine to Bill Phillips, president of the Cooke Elementary School P.T.A., on behalf of the club which promotes eye-conservation. Looking on are Mrs. Paul Maestas, (left) vice president of the P.T.A. and Mrs. Philip P. Parks, school principal. The machine, which is the same type used by all Lions Clubs in the area, is available to all elementary and high schools, whether private, parochial or public, in Virginia Beach and surrounding sections. (Simmons Photo)

The charter has now been sent to Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. for his signature. After the final step has been taken it is possible that further metro meetings between Va. Beach, Norfolk, Portsmouth and the new merged city of South Norfolk-Norfolk County will be scheduled.

The State Senate voted 35 to 3 in favor of the charter. The three dissenting votes in the 40-member Senate were cast by Breeden and Sens. Robert F. Baldwin of Norfolk and William B. Spong of Portsmouth.

Two senators did not cast a vote—Mosby G. Perrow Jr. of Lynchburg and Armistead L. Boothe of Alexandria.

Strong Backing

The charter reached the Senate after an overwhelming 5 to 1 margin from local voters on January 4 and an 45 to 5 vote in the House of Delegates last week.

"I have every right to ask this Senate not to treat Norfolk differently from other communities," Sen. Breeden said. "I've never known a community to be walled off as this legislation proposes."

"It is not our purpose to block Norfolk," Sen. Almer Ames Jr., who represents Virginia Beach, Princess Anne County and the Eastern Shore, said. "We are only exercising our rights under law enacted by the General Assembly... we are not fighting Norfolk. We want to live in peace and harmony with our neighbor and work for the common good."

Breeden distributed copies of a map showing the new merger city in relation to other cities in the area to desks of all the senators. He pointed out that what is happening to Norfolk could also happen to Richmond, Roanoke, Lynchburg and other growing cities.

In defending the charter, Ames told the Senate how Norfolk officials had taken full-page newspaper ads to sway voters against the merger and had threatened them with a water cut-off.

"I am proud to represent a people who could not be intimidated by such acts," he said. The merger will become effective January 1, 1963.

Two Appointed To Cancer Campaign

VIRGINIA BEACH — Two more committee chairman for the American Cancer Society's annual Crusade Drive was announced today by Dr. Howard Kahn, Crusade Chairman for the Princess Anne Unit of ACS.

C. B. (Neal) Owens, insurance representative and active civic worker, will solicit businesses and Dr. J. A. White will serve as chairman of the professional committee.

Committee heads will meet today at noon at the Black Angus Restaurant to launch plans for the annual drive.

The local cancer unit serves all of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County and maintains offices at 2803 Pacific Avenue.

Twins Remind 'Not-at-Homes' To Mail Heart Sunday Gifts

ENVELOPE displayed by identical twins Debbie and Donna Horst is a king-sized version of the ones left on doorsteps of families who were not at home when their Heart Sunday volunteer called last week-end. The twins, who underwent identical heart operations the same day, are seven years old and live at Elkins Park, Pa. A year ago they called at the White House to help Mrs. John F. Kennedy officially open the Heart Fund campaign.

Pilot Life Ins. Co. Adds Coverage

Pilot Life Insurance Company added $174,474,380 to its insurance in force during 1961 to reach an all-time high total of $1,928,038,035, reported President O. F. Stafford at their 56th annual meeting held at the company's home office in Greensboro, N.C. on Thursday, January 18, 1962.

He said that new life insurance sold by the ordinary, combination and group divisions of Pilot last year totalled $311,802,043, an increase of $38,231,546 over the volume of 1960.

This was the first year sales topped $300,000,000. Total assets increased by $16,413,227 to an all-time high of $225,587,956.

Through the year Pilot paid to living policyowners and beneficiaries $31,311,998 in benefits, a gain of $4,000,000 over 1960. The total of such benefit payments since Pilot was organized in 1903 is $255,587,956.

Reserves for future payments to policyowners and beneficiaries were increased by $8,438,075, bringing the total to $159,210,721.

St. Gregory the Great Church will hold its 4th Annual Parish Dance Saturday, February 24, at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center at Virginia Beach. Elwood Duncan will be featured for dancing between the hours of 9 P.M. and 1 A.M. The price of admission is $4.00 per couple.

Capital and surplus funds total $38,446,876, and the company now has $120.51 assets for each $100 liabilities.

Total income from all sources in 1961 was $64,784,197, a gain of $4,235,000 over 1960.

All officers and directors of the company were re-elected.

Teen Club Plans Valentine Dance

OCEAN PARK — The Teen Club of Ocean Park will hold a post Valentines Day dance, the "VAL-TEEN HOP" February 17 beginning at 7:30 until midnight at the Ocean Park Fire Department.

Young folks from the ages of 10 to 20 years will be admitted and dress will be formal, semi-formal or party dress for the young ladies and appropriate attire for the young gentlemen.

Music will be by Robert Bird and his combo "The Ramblers" and a disc jockey from a local radio station will spin records during the intermissions.

During the evening there will be some lovely surprises and prizes for the young people.

Refreshments will be on sale at the "Canteen" at reasonable prices and also there will be a table of snacks compliments of the club.

Admission will be 50 cents for couples or for Stags or Drags. There will be door prizes given, too, so come one and all and see your friends and have the most wonderful time at the "VAL-TEEN HOP" next Saturday night.

BAY COLONY GARDEN CLUB

BAY COLONY — Mrs. E. H. Renn, Mrs. L. H. Burton, Mrs. I. Gentry and Mrs. T. L. Woodhouse, Jr., were hostesses for the February meeting of the Bay Colony Garden Club, held last Wednesday at the Princess Anne Country Club.

Mrs. W. M. Gresham gave demonstrations in foliage arrangements in four designs. Her designs, with varied foliage, proved that winter arrangements without flowers can be just as pleasing as those using florist flowers. She urged that new homeowners have an eye for the future in planting shrubbery so that foliage for the house would always be available.

Mrs. A. A. Antrim won a gold ribbon for her miniature arrangement. A blue ribbon went to Mrs. E. F. Blake, red to Mrs. P. W. Root and a yellow to Mrs. D. E. Hood. Mrs. P. W. Root received a blue ribbon for her "George Washington's Birthday" composition.

The March meeting will be held at the Princess Anne Country Club on March 7th. Mrs. D. W. Hardy, a native of England, will show movies on "Houses and Gardens in the English Countryside."

"It's Cruisetime!"

Birdneck Point Garden Club Fashion Show Set for Feb. 21

BIRDNECK POINT—Date of the annual Birdneck Point Garden Club dessert-bridge party and fashion show has been set for Wednesday, February 21, at 12:30 P.M. The Cavalier Beach Club will be a proper setting for the Florence Wilson and Hofheimer fashions which will be keyed to the theme, "It's Cruisetime!"

The annual fund-raising event has become a tradition of Virginia Beach and co-chairmen, Mrs. Roy Briggs and Mrs. Spencer Lott, are planning for an attendance of about 70 tables. A part of the tradition is the varied and creamy array of homemade cakes and pies to be contributed by garden club members for the dessert-and-coffee hour that precedes the fashion show and card playing.

Mrs. R. E. Doyal will present commentary on an extensive display of cruise-type clothes ranging from this year's version of the shirtwaist and sweater to the elegance that goes out at night at sea or ashore.

Models will include: Mrs. William R. Huck, Mrs. Spencer Lott, Mrs. W. A. Gietz, Mrs. J. L. Strole, Jr., Mrs. Sam Mason, and Mrs. George E. Hogan, Jr.

Tickets may be purchased from Birdneck Point Garden Club members, or at the beach club on the day of the party.

COLOR AND DESIGN IN HOME FURNISHINGS

Color has a language all its own. It is often identified with emotional reactions such as "feeling blue," "green with envy," "purple with rage," or "dark brown taste."

When a room is dreary, we may feel blue or cold just as we do when the sun does not shine. Bright colors can make us feel gay and warm.

Nature produces color everywhere. The wise use of color is one of the most inexpensive ways to add sparkle to your home. Color may be added with a bowl of polished red apples, a glass jar of lemons, vegetables, books, or magazines.

To create attractive, colorful, yet restful rooms, plan your colors and plan the way you will use them. Know: What colors you and the family like best; What effect you want to get; What colors show best in the light of your rooms; How color can change poor architectural features of a room; which colors flatter members of the family; how to blend color, pattern and design to make rooms gay, restful, larger or smaller; How to link colors used in different rooms for color coordination throughout the house.

Plan every detail, using samples you can secure locally, before starting to work on any part of the house. Make your color plan and stick to it.

Know Yourself—Your Family
Start with colors you like. Let each family member choose colors that will flatter him. Certain colors are more flattering to one individual than to another.

If you are a blonde, your colors are autumn leaf, vivid green, gold, blue, purple, and gray beige. If you are a brunette choose green, lime, brown, and beige. If your hair is brown, your colors are rosy, gray, yellow green, copper tones with white, and brown.

If your eyes are blue, choose soft warm blue, pastel, sandalwood, rosy gray. Don't use sharp colors. If you have silver gray hair, choose pearly green, and yellow. If your hair is red, it begs for reds, green, autumn greens, apricot, soft blue, rust and brown.

Once you have agreed on the major colors put up large swatches in the room. Look at them under both daylight and artificial light before making purchases.

Understand The Purpose Of Your Room

The living room should be restful and cheerful, a room where all the family can relax, read, and entertain. Use few patterns or bright colors here. Small objects such as books, flowers, plants, pictures, and lamps may create enough pattern and color to accent a quiet, neutral or pastel background, yet keep the room restful.

The hall is the first place the family and friends see. One seldom tarries there. Welcome guests with scenic paper or gay rugs.

A dining room can be made gay by using wallpaper. Use a bold pattern in a large room and a small pattern in a small room to inspire sociability. If the dining room is also a den, you may not want to use a patterned wallpaper.

Bedrooms should be designed for sleep and rest. Use plain, soft colors or quiet patterns in walls and fabrics.

Do not use many colors in the bathroom. White or gray goes well with muted colors in towels, rug, curtains, and shower curtains.

Clear colors add cheer to a kitchen where you have white equipment.

Use Color to Solve Demeaning Problems

Color will almost magically solve the architectural defects of a room.

Pastels in receding colors give a feeling of spaciousness, and can make a small room appear larger. A neutral background will do the same.

Warm colors can make a large room cozier, seem less spacious. A square room can be made to appear longer by painting three walls in a neutral color, and the other wall is papered. If the background of the paper is neutral. Walls broken by many windows and doors should be painted.

A long narrow room will appear to be wider when long walls are painted in a pastel receding color and the narrow walls are painted in a darker or a warm color.

Colorful books and accessories on the short wall can also help to bring that end of the room nearer.

High ceilings painted the color of the wall or painted in a contrasting darker color will appear to be lower. Low ceilings painted white, off-white, or a lighter color than the wall will appear to be higher. Ceilings painted in a light color will make the room lighter.

You can unify a room that is broken up by too many windows and doors by painting the walls and woodwork in the same neutral color, such as warm gray, off-white, or pastel green.

Blend unsightly architectural features such as the ugly brick mantel and radiators by painting them to match the wall.

A bulky extra large sofa can be made to appear smaller when covered with fabric that lets it appear to sink into the background. To accent the sofa use a light color for the cover.

Tips in Color Planning

Almost all amateurs and most professionals start a color scheme with an object that the family owns and likes. If the prized possession is well designed, you may use the colors as inspiration for your color scheme.

The proportions in which the colors are used can serve as a guide to get a balance of color.

You can build the living room color plan from a picture or a fabric; the dining room color plan from a piece of wallpaper or china; the bedroom color plan from an applied coverlet, a hand woven bedspread, or a curtain fabric.

You can use the color wheel as a basis for working out your color scheme. This is much more difficult and more challenging and requires a knowledge of the three basic types of color schemes and how they are

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

After much delay and some nail-biting moments, the merger of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County became a reality in General Assembly Tuesday when the State Senate passed the charter by a 35 to 3 vote.

Now comes the work of making the Greater City of Virginia Beach into one of the top-ranking resorts on the East Coast.

The Chamber of Commerce already has the wheels of progress in motion with many eye-catching, tourist-drawing plans. A delightful old-fashioned Easter Parade along the boardwalk is in the making for April with advertising executive Mrs. Laura Lambe heading the committee.

In June hundreds of young musicians will flock to this seaside resort for a big High School Band Festival that will draw participants from all over the southeast. Three of the greatest band conductors and composers have agreed to judge the three-day affair. This could become one of the highlights of the tourist season.

The Virginia Beach - Princess Anne YWCA is such a hard-working group it's difficult to realize it became an official chapter just a few short months ago.

The 6-weeks "Ladies Day Out" series have always brought enthusiastic support from local women but the Y's evening classes in bridge, ballroom dancing and gymnastics for young mothers career girls and couples have proved to be just as popular as the day-time series.

Now the Y has undertaken yet another project — a 6-weeks course in bridge and sewing for teen-age girls. These classes will be held on Saturdays and will start March 3. Interest in the forthcoming series indicates that they will be most successful.

If you want something bad enough, get out and work for it... and that's exactly what Boy Scout Troop No. 378 of Virginia Beach Methodist Church plans to do. The Troop has eight boys eligible to attend Philmont Scout Camp at Cimmaron, New Mexico, this summer and the entire group are pooling their efforts to raise money to send their deserving members. They are presently collecting old newspapers which they turn in for cash. The boys would very much appreciate any support they can get from local residents.

Judging by the number of fashion shows scheduled here recently February is the month when a woman's thoughts turn to a new summer wardrobe.

Rose Hall presented an elaborate array of fashions for the four seasons for the Cavalier Beach Club and Snyder's displayed the latest in hat styles for the Bay Shore Garden Club. Next Wednesday Florence Wilson and Hofheimer's will show members of the Birdneck Point Garden Club what designs make up the most fashionable cruise wardrobe.

State Park Cabins Now Available for Summer Use

Applications for State Park cabins for the 1962 season will be accepted on and after Feb. 26, Ben H. Bolen, Commissioner of Parks for the Virginia Department of Conservation and Economic Development, announced today.

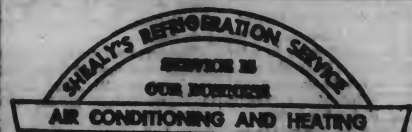

No applications will be accepted prior to February 26, Bolen said. All applications received during the period, Feb. 26 - March 1, will be handled as of March 1, & reservations will be made by lot. After March 1, applications will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis.

During the first 10 days of March, only applications of residents of Virginia will be considered. Applications for cabins must be made on official forms, which may be obtained from the State Division of Parks, Room 1108, Travelers Building, 1108 East Main Street, Richmond, Va., or from the superintendents at the parks.

Housekeeping cabins, fully equipped and furnished, are available at seven of the eight parks. They are: Claytor Lake, near Dublin; Douthat, near Clifton Forge; Fairy Stone, near Bassett; Hungry Mother, near Marion; Prince Edward, near Bukeyville; Staunton River, near achieved.

Savage Beauty in Bronze

This bronze food vessel, product of the faded Shang Dynasty of China, was created for use in ancient temple rites in the second millennium before Christ. Discovered by grave robbers in the tomb of a warrior king, it now resides with 16 other monumental bronzes in the Oriental Gallery of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond. Virginia's collection of Chinese bronzes has been called one of the finest in the country.

Nuclear Power Generator Passes Through Area

This 45-foot steam generator was built by Westinghouse Corporation for the Carolina's Virginia Nuclear Power Associates' atomic-powered generating station at Parr, S. C. Heat picked up in the reactor by "heavy water" is transferred by this device to conventional water, creating steam for turbo generators.

A steam generator for the Carolina's Virginia Nuclear Power Associates' atomic powered generating station passed through the Norfolk area recently on its way to the Parr, S.C. site.

The 45-foot generator, five feet in diameter, was built by Westinghouse Corporation and shipped by railroad flat car from Pennsylvania.

It is a major component of the experimental atomic station being constructed jointly by Virginia Electric and Power Company, Carolina Power and Light Company, Duke Power Company, and South Carolina Electric & Gas Company.

The atomic station, first in the southeast, will generate electricity through the facilities of an existing steam station. Operation is scheduled for this summer.

Designed to operate at 600 pounds of pressure per square inch, the generator will have an output of 200,000 pounds of steam per hour. Installed in the system between the reactor and the turbines, it will transfer heat picked up in the reactor by "heavy water" to conventional water, creating steam.

The generator converts the total heat output of the reactor to useful steam to operate the conventional turbo-generator unit in the existing steam station.

KEGLER'S KORNER

By "PAPPY" IRISH

Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m. witnessed the Kick-off of the new Tuesday Mixed League. Ten teams, composed of some of the nicest folks in the area gathered together for the election of officers. Voting resulted in the seating of Freddy Fink as president; Jack Selby, secretary and Jo Ann Neathery, treasurer and funds custodian. From the looks of the action as they bowled for average, this group has banded together to have fun—eff-yew-enn—fun! It's not too late to join the gang. Just phone your scribe at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl, 341-1313 and declare yourself—we will hold a spot for an individual or a team—two couples per team.

The intra-parish parochial league is progressing at a great rate. Five mixed teams have been confirmed and as soon as 10 teams sign, the 16 week duration league will get underway. I wish my Catholic bowler readers, both men and women, would drop me a line here at the Plaza Bowl and let me have your views and ideas on the advisability of a state-wide Parochial Tournament. It would be nice to hear from our Catholic merchants in the Tidewater area—they could be a tremendous help in the promotion of such a tournament.

As a bowler—do you know of any bowler 55 years of age or older? If so, have them contact "Pappy" or send me their names and addresses and phone number. We will do the rest. Men and women 55 and over now have their own organized bowling union, the United States Senior Bowlers Assn. Here at the Plaza Bowl we are getting ready to be the first in the area to put the association into full effectiveness. The leagues are based on 4 schedules according to age—Class A, 70 years and up; Class B, 66 years to 69 years; Class C, 60 to 65, and Class D, 55 to 59 (I am in this group and have already signed up). Every senior citizen wants to enjoy a competitive sports, and the USSBA is seeing to it that their bowling program caters to these wants.

Let's get on with what league results made available by brow-beating a few secretaries, that have hit my desk during the past week.

Men's Major League
Team	Won	Lost
Krauss Construction	54	18
Pilot Life Ins. Co.	51	21

Kempville IV	17	23
John B. Dey	16 1/2	22 1/2
Kempville II	16	23
Lindholm Park	12 1/2	28 1/2
High individual game, Tom Copely, 192.
High individual series, Tom Copely, 505.
High team game—Kempville I, 626.
High team series — Kempville I, 1793.
(The above are four person teams.)
We noticed, with much disappointment, that Mrs. Spence was conspicuous by her absence. Get well and hurry back.

Wednesday Nite Ladies
Standings were not turned in. The high lights on last Wednesday's play revealed—

High individual game, Lillian Costello, 186.
High individual series, 457, Melva Grimstead.
High team game, Grimstead Market, 614.
High team series, 1754, Grimstead Market.
Honorable score mention: Mary Templeton 178 game; Melva Grimstead, 168 game. (four girl teams).

Wednesday Nite Men's Handicap
No standings again, but we do have highlights.

High individual game — Irby Price of the Aragona Moose. High individual series, 560, Fred Fink of Team No. 3. Other 200's rolled were 210 by Bob Vogt of the Meatballs! 202 by Freddy Fink of the Aragona Moose.

Thursday Nite Mixed
I have before me a report from this league which I shall report as is on the piece of note book paper. Perhaps the next reports will follow the format of the teams reported on at the beginning of this roundup. I know it requires a bit more work on the part of the league secretaries—but the players expected to see a full story—and you can't blame them. Come on, Sec's, let's cooperate. Will you?

Ray Self's Nationwide won three points.
Beasley's Atlantic won 4 pts.
The 5 Pee Bees won 3 points.
The Woodchoppers won 4 pts.
Prim Valet won 4 points.
Oceana Drugs won 3 points.
Team No. 6 won 4 points.
Some one lost the above won points, but who, your guess is as good as mine. Who ever they were, the best of luck next week. We do know Ruth Henke smashed out a 207 high game in running up a 534 series; Dan Santivasi toppled a 213 pin game in ringing up a 591 series; Marvin Becker had a 222 high game in his 614 series; Bib Wallace and Woody Sumrall had 209 games, and Vina, George by name, had a nice 204.

Tidewater Youths Traveling League Bantams
Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl Bantams took both games form their Fair Lanes opponents, running up scores of 877 and 609 against the kids from uptown whose game totals were 543 and 581. Mike Waldrop of the Plaza Bowl had a high game of 167. Curt Kemp was high in the series scoring with 297.

Junior Girls
In taking 3 out of 4 points from Suburban, the Plaza girls showed a great form, bowling form that is. Cecil Chisholm registered a high game of 161 as her teammate Virginia Gaskill was romping off with the series honors by dumping 445 pins. L. Phelps of the losers had a high game of 155.

Junior Boys
The Rinaldi Plaza boys, not letting the girls out-bowl them and assisted by a 158 pin handicap, also took 3 out of a possible 4 points from Suburban Lanes Junior Boys. R. Stonebracker of the losers had a 226 high game with a 137 - 146 in scoring the matches high series of 509 pins. These boys may be Juniors but believe me, there are many adult league bowlers who would be happy to score as these future champions are doing. For instance—Tommy Neethery's 159-188-158—503; Larry Price's 122-194-139—455; Kenny Neigenfind's 170-158-147—475; J. Lee's 170-197-178—545; S. Hamilton's 153-175-158—484 & T. Thompson's 134-174-138—446. These kids rolled scratch team games of 799, 828, and 834. It isn't fair for you Juniors to show up us adults that way. Have a heart fellows!

Bowling in the Oceana Officers Wives League, Thunderbird Lanes, Gloria Currie on Coaches Sporting Goods team of the Teachers Mixed blasted a 212 game this week. . . Mickey Baron had a 207 game in a 514 series total. . . M. Jacobs rolled a 186 for the Lo-Bowlers. . . Buddy Taylor of the Kempville Jr. Hi bowled a 209. . . the teachers of Kempville and the pupils are having a match game this week, this should be fun to watch. Come on down Friday P.M. and let's see who will wind up clapping the erasers.

Well, good by for now neighbors, thanks for reading. I would like to meet my readers, both of you, personally. So come on down to Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl and say "Howdy."

took top honors with a high game of 197 and high series with 444 pins down. Amante Cariquist, Bay Island team, was in second place with a 178 game. Turtles Appliances had high team game of 716 and Beach Travel with 2120 pins had high team set.

Thunderbird Major League
Virginia Beach Transfer took over undisputed leadership of the league by winning all four from Kelly Supply. This same match also gave Kelly's complete mastery of the cellar. For the Truckers, Bob Vogt was high with 534 and for the Kelly's, Jim Drews was again the leader with a 545.

Chix Restaurant is once again making a move towards the top with a 4-point win over Team No. 8. Dick Long pounded out a big 577 for the Restaurant men with Harold Smith helping out with a 532. For losing Team No. 8, the biggest shooter was Tom Crowley with a 535.

Sealy Posturepedics picked up 3 out of 4 from Team No. 3 to keep themselves in second place. The mattress boys could have been real spectacular if they had continued rolling like they did their first game. Ed Schoen had a 246 game and Bob Beck fired a 233 to bring their team total up to 1006. Which was high for the night and 2nd for the season. Winding up with totals of 613 for Beck and 585 for Schoen they were the leaders of their team. For losing Team No. 3, Clarence Hux was again the leader with a nice 563.

Coaches Sporting Goods put Tastee Freez on ice with a four point win with Bud Calimer and Norm Sullivan leading the assault with a big 565 and 564. This brings Coaches up to 4th place in the standings, probably the highest they have been this year. It also drops Tastee Freez into a tie for 7th. Definitely the lowest they have been for some time.

Barry-Robinson Upset Seahawks

NORFOLK—Barry-Robinson scored 14 straight points in the final two minutes of play Tuesday night to defeat Virginia Beach, 56-43 in a non-league basketball game at the Ranger gym.
Virginia Beach, after trailing all the way, went ahead 43-42, on a shot by Jay Horton with 2:41 to play. At this point, Mike Price of Barry-Robinson—who scored 22 points to lead the night's scorers—fouled out. But Bucky Bowen, who added 15 for the Rangers, led the scoring surge as the Seahawks could not get another point.
Barry-Robinson now has a 13-

Broad Bay Sailing Group Presents Trophies At Banquet

BROAD BAY—The annual banquet of the Broad Bay Sailing Association took place recently at the Black Angus Restaurant on Pacific Avenue. Official host was Charles A. Terry, 1962 Club Commodore, who welcomed the members and guests.

After dinner J. V. Powell, Jr., presented trophies to the top winners in each racing class for the 1961 season as follows: Roy Newton, Hamptons and knockabout division; Charlie Terry, Comet class; Mac Newton, Penguin class.
The perpetual trophy for the Comets was handed from last year's winner, Dr. Hugh Mayo, to Terry. Before passing the trophy along Dr. Mayo expressed the pleasure derived from having this cup and the good fun and sportsmanship it represented to him. He said he hoped each Comet skipper would at one time or another, have the honor of holding this award. Bill Mayo relinquished the Penguin's perpetual trophy to Mac Newton.
Jack Huenerberg awarded the club's first "Bottoms Up" cup

Jayvees Win Thriller In Double Overtime, 61-60

VIRGINIA BEACH—The Virginia Beach High School Seahawks continued their winning ways and Saturday night turned back Frederick College, 75 to 50, on the local basketball court.

The Champions Hawks were again led by Chester Branscom and Jay Horton. Branscom pumped in 26 points and Horton added 18. The Hawks pulled away to a comfortable lead in the first half and were never headed. In the last period reserves took over to hold Frederick on about even terms.

Beating Frederick avenged an earlier defeat by the military school. That game was played on the Frederick College floor earlier this year which will be the site of the district tournament next week.

While the varsity was having an easy time with Frederick last Saturday night the equally successful Junior Seahawks had their hands full with the Frederick Jayvees, finally winning in double overtime by a score of 61 to 60.

It was Steve Strickler's basket in the waning minute of the second overtime that gave the local Jayvees the win. High scorer for the winners was Larry Mailhes with 21 points. He was followed by Tommy Tarkenton with 16 and Strickler added 12. George Godwin scored nine points.

The District tournament is scheduled to be played next week at Frederick College. As winners of the regular championship the Seahawks will be top seeded. The first game is next Wednesday night followed with games on Friday and Saturday.

Norma Meek Registers New High Single Game at Plaza Bowl

PRINCESS ANNE PLAZA—In her first game at the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl on Monday night, while bowling in the Technical Representatives League, Norma Meek registered what is believed to be the highest single sanctioned league play game bowled by a lady bowler in the City of Norfolk and surrounding adjacent area.

Norma is a sanctioned WIBC bowler. After registering a spare in the first frame of the game, Norma bowled 9 strikes in a row, which carried her through the first ball in the tenth frame. On her second ball in the tenth frame, she left the 4-7 pins standing which she bowled over with the last ball thrown. All this bowling resulted in a top-notch game score of 278. This is the highest game of the current season for a lady in the City of Norfolk and is believed to be Norfolk's highest sanctioned game for a lady, but may not be since a verification was not immediately available.

Following her first game, in 8 record, Virginia Beach, which was led by Chester Branscom with 17 points and Footsie Borum with 15, has a 13-4 season record.
Virginia Beach won the JV game, 51-39. Larry Mailhes led the Jayvee team and tied a school record for a single game with 27 points.

Goals and Dribbles

Saturday's Games
Blue Angels 26, Beachcom. 21
Hawks 33

Once again we waited . . . and we waited. And the girls played on . . . on until 2:45, when we finally got the gym floor. Enough is enough and this is the second Saturday the Linkhorn League has been held up by the Teen Girls' League. According to Hugh Mayo, here's the story: The Princess Anne County Recreation Department originally scheduled our games to begin at 1:00 p.m. The Teen Girls . . . were to start theirs at 9:00 a.m., play four games and be through by the time we got there. One of the girls' teams couldn't seem to get there by 9:00 a.m., so they were re-scheduled for 10:00 a.m., shoving us down to 2:00 p.m. Now it seems, the girls can't get there at 10:00 a.m. and instead of forfeiting after 15 minutes delay, they just go on and play any old time without regard for any other schedules. And there is nobody to stop them. Complaints to the Recreation Department have availed us nothing. Bernie Shields, who is supposed to coordinate these leagues, hasn't been seen at Cox gym in the six weeks we've been using it. No one seems to have any authority nor does the Department seem to care. Any one have any ideas?

Back to the kids . . . who always do a good job! The first game found the Blue Angels taking a slight edge and holding it all the way. Hitting real well were Blue Angel Willie Shipp and Beachcomber Craig Waring, each with 11 points. Helping no little, were Dough Compton and Gregg Baker. This was an exciting game for the spectators and well-played by the boys of both teams.

With everyone back and well again, there were no excuses offered in the second game. The Hawks simply creamed the Lions. Ronnie Billingsley dropped 'em in to the tune of 16 points, highest individual score per game this season. Playing in the second unit, Travis Jackson was terrific with the rebounds and managed to score 4 points too.
The Lions just couldn't get through the Hawks defense, but Ricky Hanger and Winslow Stillman did their share in the defense for the Lions.

Hope springs eternal! But we don't dare mention starting times for Saturday. These games will be played: Cox gym, first game, Lions vs. Beachcombers; second game, Hawks vs. Blue Angels.

LYNNHAVEN GARDEN CLUB

LYNNHAVEN—The Lynnhaven Garden Club recently observed its 22nd anniversary with a luncheon at Pine Tree Inn. Hostesses, Mrs. W. R. Payne Sr., Mrs. George Wadsworth & Mrs. Fred Clark were in charge of table decorations.
The meeting was opened with the reading of the club collect and special guests were past presidents of the club.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON

BAY COLONY—Mrs. David S. Stear of Ditchley Road gave a bridge luncheon Tuesday at her home for Mrs. Gordon Robertson of Bay Colony Drive.
Mrs. Robertson will sail on the "SS America" March 6 for Paris where her husband has been assigned to SHAPE.

Here's what QUALITY has done!
At last count there were 1,499,927 Chevrolet trucks over 10 years old still working—424,381 more than any other make.

1962 CHEVROLET JOBMASTER TRUCKS

built better..work longer!

When Chevrolet builds a truck, it builds a quality truck. This policy makes sense. Chevrolet trucks work a long time . . . cost less than many other makes to operate and maintain over the years . . . consistently bring a higher trade-in price . . . and, as a result, are bought by more people.

We invite you to come in and examine this quality closely and to take a 1962 demonstrator out for a good long test drive. Note the cab comfort, the good visibility, the smooth ride, the solid feel of its quality. Compare Chevrolet truck features with those of other makes. Then decide which are your wisest investment. We're sure it will be Chevrolet's.

See your Chevrolet dealer for trucks that keep running and running!

Local Firm Is Named Contest Headquarters

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach Lumber and Supply Co., Birdneck Road, Va. Beach, has been named an Official Contest Headquarters in the Better Homes & Gardens 1962 Home Improvement Contest offering $30,000 in cash prizes, according to W. K. MacDonald, owner of the firm.

Mr. MacDonald said the firm will provide interested persons with preliminary entry forms for the contest, give complete contest information, and help in planning home improvement projects.

The contest, which will consider home improvement projects that are completed any time during 1962, is divided into four divisions: (1) exterior improvement; (2) interior improvement except in the kitchen and utility areas; (3) additions of any new, enclosed space to a house; and (4) kitchen and utility room improvements of existing areas or the addition of new areas.

A total of 111 cash prizes ranging from $100 to $10,000 will be awarded by the magazine. The contest is designed so that projects of the same scope will be competing with one another to give both large and small projects an equal opportunity to win.

According to Mr. MacDonald, persons sending in the preliminary entry form obtained at his firm will receive from Better Homes & Gardens a final entry form which, when completed, will provide all the information necessary for judging. He said "before" and "after" photographs and floor plan sketches are required.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

It's Always Best To Be Yourself

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I like this boy—or I think I like him. One week he will say that he likes me and the next week he acts as if he has never seen me before. I went with him one time and he said that I wasn't his type, but he doesn't want to go with me again. But, I think I am his type. Ever since I went with him I wanted to go with him again and show him that I could be his type. If he ever asks me to go with him, should I? Or, should I forget about him? He is very nice."

OUR REPLY: Never pretend to be something which you are not, for any reason. The truth will always give you away. This does not mean that you cannot develop a better personality, become a better dancer, learn more about the art of making pleasant conversation, and much things. It is simply a statement of truth. Trying to be something which we are not is like wearing a mask to a costume party. We may be able to fool some of our best friends for a time, but they usually get wise long before the hour of unmasking.

Isn't it a bit presumptuous to say that you know more about the "type" of girl this boy likes than he knows himself? That would make him not quite so smart, wouldn't it? You may well be his type, but he'll have to discover this for himself.

It isn't necessary to forget about this boy... Just give up the idea that you're his type whether he knows it or not. Concentrate on being yourself. You can also take up the hobbies or sports that he likes—if they appeal to you; but don't pretend to be "mad" about tennis or swimming or anything else—just to please him. He will see right through your game of pretending and consider you something of a "phony."

Certainly, go with him—if he asks you. But forsake the campaign to convince him that you're the only girl for him, whether he knows it or not. And, in the meanwhile, consider the fact that he might not be your type.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER SERVICE, FRANKFORD, N.Y.

Exchange Plan Popular With Radio Audience

NORFOLK—WAVY Radio has instituted a new feature to radio that has caught on in a big way with its teen-age listeners. It is called, "Homework Exchange" and is presented week nights as part of the Ted LaBarr Show.

Like this: WAVY Music Admiral LaBarr invites his listeners to call him if they are stumped with a particular question in other students, who are listening to the homework problem.

Their homework assignment from school. He then puts the question on the air and requests up with the solution to his original "answer-seeker" winds mentions this on the air and the "Homework Exchange" works sway if they have it. When ant to the show, to provide the an--Lest you think this may be a short-cut for students who just don't want to dig for their homework assignments, and this was of considerable concern before WAVY decided to embark on the feature, reports have come to the station from at least one Tidewater educator who praised WAVY for the program idea and expressed his thought that this was an excellent means for exchanging information . . . and it proves that the teenagers are interested in their homework.

As a matter of fact, they have become so interested in the "Homework Exchange" that the telephone company reported WAVY's circuits became so jammed last evening that it took over fifteen minutes for the system to catch up and to accept the tremendous number of calls being placed to the station by the students.

A similar feature has also been instituted on WAVY's daytime programs and is aimed at assisting the homemaker with various household problems . . .
aply enough, this is called "Homemakers Hint Exchange."

WAVY Music Admirals Mac
McManus and Murray Roberts report the phone buzzing continually from area homemakers with problems they would like solved. Questions range from,
"How do you remove paint from a fabric chair?" to "Why does the meringue on my lemon pie sag?"

This feature has only been aired for three days at this writing and it, too, seems to have proven to be a very popular WAVY contribution to modern radio.

Little Theatre Prepares for Opening Play of Season

VIRGINIA BEACH—In spite of the changes that beset devotees of amateur theatricals during the winter season, rehearsals for "The Heiress," the drama by Ruth and Augustus Goetz from the Henry James story "Washington Square," which will be presented by the Virginia Beach Little Theatre February 27 and 28 at Virginia Beach High School, are going forward on schedule.

Exams, illness, business — these and other factors plague first one and then another member of the cast. Sometimes rehearsals have been held at someone's home. Sometimes wet furniture and puddles on the floor of the Workshop have greeted the thespians, snow has made the roads dangerous, downpours of rain conspired to dampen their spirits, but with the help of Shirley Gregory, prompter and reader of parts for absentees, absences have been few—"the show must go on."

Cast of "The Heiress" includes Penelope and Norrie Martin, Sam Hakim, Anne Henry, Jane LaGiglia, Alice duBois, Jill Mowen, Mary Douglas and Richard Newman. Anne Henry and Jane LaGiglia played in the Virginia Beach Little Theatre's very first play, "My Sister Ellen," back in 1948, and have been taking part and helping out ever since. Anne has been on the Board of Directors for thirteen years, and served as secretary for two years. She has been Production Chairman & Lighting Director. Her plays, other than "My Sister Ellen," include "Claudia," "Night Must Fall," "John Loves Mary," "Doughgirls Brighten the Corner," "Solid Gold Cadillac,"
"Happy Time," "Night of January 18th," "Kind Lady," "Oh, Men, Oh, Women," "Out of the Frying Pan" and "You Can't Take It With You."

With Theatre-Go-Round Anne played in "Twilight Walk," "Orpheus Descending" and "The Man Who Came to Dinner." She appeared professionally on WTAR-TV for three years as Miss Anne of Romper Room and traveled as Romper Room performer for the producer for two years. She is presently teaching 6th grade at W. T.
Cook School.

Jane LaGiglia has appeared in many Little Theatre plays,

Servicemen In the News

WILLIAM J. LASSITER, JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lassiter of 405-32nd St., Virginia
Beach, began recruit training,
Jan. 23, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The nine-week basic training includes classroom instruction in naval topics, including military etiquette, drill, physical fitness, swimming and survival, first aid, shipboard safety precautions and security duty. A planned recreation program supplements the classroom training.

Throughout the training, recruits receive specialized counseling which assists them in selecting a rating in which to work from more than 65 available job specialties.

DAVID C. JONES

FORT JACKSON, S.C.—Pvt.
David C. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Jones, Jr., 38th Holly Road, Va. Beach, has been assigned to Company A, 6th Battalion, Second Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S.C. for eight weeks of Basic Combat Training. He enlisted in the Regular Army at Richmond, Va.

He has been taught rifle marksmanship under the U. S.
Army's TRAINFIRE program which enables the modern Soldier to become a better rifleman in less time than previous methods. In this program most of his training consisted of firing his rifle at pop-up targets at various unknown distances on terrain which duplicates combat area. Other highlights of his intensive training include squad tactics, bayonet and hand-to-hand combat, and crawling the infiltration course while machine gun fire is popping overhead.

Kempsville School

Stenzhorn Believes
In Philosophy for Self and Others

(This is one of a series of articles to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

KEMPSVILLE—"I believe in disagreeing as long as one is not disagreeable," Kempsville Elementary School principal Robert P. Stenzhorn said. "Everyone needs a philosophy in life. I guess this is mine."

As a teacher, a principal, and an individual, the energetic young educator applies his philosophy and encourages it in those he comes in contact with.

"A person should have his own opinions and beliefs and not simply be a follower. We have a wonderful faculty here at Kempsville Elementary. They voice their views and apply them in their classrooms. Criticism, balanced with deserving praise, can produce a smooth-running operation."

Teacher Bonus

"I, personally, am all in favor of encouraging excellent teachers with a bonus or monetary recognition. It does not make sense that a teacher who has worked to excel in her profession should receive the same paycheck at the end of the month as the teacher who is less accomplished."

"Dedication is fine but everyone needs an incentive to better themselves. Teachers are no different. They, too, need an incentive."

Within the next few years the schools will undergo many changes, Stenzhorn said. The monetary recognition will encourage more superior teachers to take over the classrooms, the curriculum will learn more and more toward science and mathematics, and students will benefit by an alternating teaching system.

School Supported

Though Kempsville Elementary School only opened its doors in September, the principal has been very pleased with the congeniality and cooperation of the community in supporting it.

"We had our first P-T-A function recently, a bar-b-que dinner," he said, "and it was extremely successful. The parents have been most cooperative in supporting the P-T-A and the school."

A heavy schedule of duties leaves little time for hobbies and when spare time is available Stenzhorn prefers spending it with his two young sons, Bob, 3 and Bill, 1. He and his wife,

Pulley Returns
From Florida
Insurance Meet

R. Bradshaw Pulley and Ferdinand Phillips, Jr., have just returned from Boca Raton, Fla., where they attended the Leading Producers Conference conducted by The Equitable Life Assurance Society. Both are members of the company's Ferebee agency of Richmond. Mr. Pulley is a member of the boards of the United Communities Fund and of the Virginia Beach General Hospital.

The Boca Raton conference drew leading Equitable agents from all parts of the country and was keyed to the theme: "Today's New Markets in Life Insurance and Their Development." Tax-sheltered employee annuities, financing for professional corporations and associations, and college expense financing were included in the agenda.

BEACH STUDENTS IN HIGH SCHOOL FORUM

Virginia Beach High School will have representatives at the Tenth Miller & Rhoads Virginia High School Forum to be held on Saturday, February 17, at Thomas Jefferson High School in Richmond.

The Forum is based on panel discussions between Virginia Student leaders and students in Virginia High Schools who come from twenty-five different foreign countries. A press conference for student editors led by Charles H. Hamilton, managing editor of the Richmond News-Leader, will be another feature.

Groups from the high schools of Virginia are attending the forum under the sponsorship of the Student Cooperative Assn. of Virginia. The Richmond Public Schools are also cooperating in the arrangement of the program.

Seahawk
TID-BITS

By DARLA SUE DESKINS

Repeat performances were scheduled Friday and Saturday evening as the Seahawks battled Norfolk Academy and Fredrick College. The hawks had previously been beaten by both teams. The traditional game between V.B. & Norfolk Academy found the Bull Dogs sorely disappointed.

The disappointment came from a score of 62-49, needless to say the Hawks had their revenge! Frederick College arrived at the beach gymnasium anticipating another easy upset. There was an upset, but it was in favor of V.B. Fredrick found the score of 75-50 a little hard to swallow, while the Hawks re-cooperated nicely with the pill.

Queen Hopefuls

One of the three—Louise Rainey, Becky Parnell, Debbie Chappell—will reign over the Surf Queen Ball. They are the candidates for queen chosen from the Senior Class. Attendant to the queen were chosen from each of the other classes (8-11).

The consensus of opinion has been for a long time that V.B. principal Helmer is an alright guy. The students of Virginia Beach now have a chance to tell others. The chance came when WGH Radio asked the students of Tidewater to name their favorite principal. V.B. students have had parties of writing post cards and a part of homeroom time is devoted to reminding people of WGH's address. Here's hoping the wonderful Mr. Helmer wins!

Darlie's Darlin': Poise has often been described as the ability to raise the eyebrows instead of the roof.

LOCAL YOUTH GETS
CAPTAIN PROMOTION

WAYNESBORO, Va. — At a parade ceremony held here recently an order was read promoting Cadet Albin Roland Mailhes, Jr., to the rank of Captain in the Fishburne Military School Cadet Corps. Cadet Mailhes is assigned Adjutant on the Battle Group.

A spokesman for the Fishburne Administration stated that the promotions were based on loyalty, devotion to duty, leadership, good conduct and academic proficiency.

Cadet Mailhes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albin R. Mailhes of Bay Colony, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Clinical Steps

ARAGONA VILLAGE—Buzzy Sawyer, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sawyer of Aragona Village, is a vivacious, dark-haired little fellow who loves to romp and play like any other youngster his age.

But with Buzzy there are no shouts or yells or imitated sounds, of booming guns and galloping horses. Buzzy lives in the near-silent world of the hard of hearing.

Doctors confirmed his parent's suspicions when he was about 3 years of age. In 1960 he was enrolled in special classes for pre-school children which are sponsored by the Tidewater Association for Hearing Impaired Children.

By the time Buzzy was four years old he was able to say "mother" for the first time. Now he is working on "daddy".

When he first entered the classes he couldn't speak a word. Now, with his enlarged vocabulary and the assistance of lip reading, Buzzy can carry on a conversation with his family.

The classes that have helped this one young boy so much are the only classes of their kind offered in the state and their main purpose is to prepare hearing impaired children for further training at Staunton State School for the Deaf and Blind.

Sponsors of the classes is not a large organization but rather a limited organization composed of parents of deaf and hard of hearing children, educators, professional people and other persons interested in the problems of raising and educating such children.

A group of dedicated believers in this worthwhile cause organized in September, 1959 to pool ideas, resources, facilities and acquire the necessary funds for successfully educating the handicapped children. By May of 1960 they were chartered by the state.

Financial Problems

However, they are not state financed. Their only source of income is from donations and the $10 a month each parents pays for their child's education. This is scarcely sufficient to meet the annual $10,000 budget needed to employ a qualified teacher full-time as well as other personnel, services and supplies.

To help make ends meet, many of the mothers of students assist the teacher and furnish transportation for children who need it.

One mother drives all the way to Norfolk from Hickory so that her child can attend the 9 a.m. to noon classes. Mrs. Sawyer drives 92 miles a day, taking her husband to work at the Naval Base, getting their other three children to school and Buzzy back and forth to his special classes. "Sometimes I'm doing my washing at 3 o'clock in the morning. There just are not enough hours in the day to get everything done," she said.

Face Eviction

Finances are a problem for the Association but now they face an even greater problem. The old building near the Norfolk College of William and Mary which has served as a classroom for the special classes will soon be torn down to make room for a girl's dormitory for the college.

Where will the children go? The Association doesn't know. They hope the School Board will provide a room for them. But one thing's for sure . . . by next fall they must have another location or the classes will be dismissed.

And while the non-profit organization is worrying over what will happen to the present school there is always the ever-growing awareness that the school needs to be larger so that more children may benefit from it.

The first phase of a Tidewater-wide survey turned up 50 youngsters who need the school and the survey has hardly scratched the surface.

There is much to be benefited by the school. Not only do the children learn to speak by hearing the teacher through earphones as she talks into a loud speaker but they also learn to wear hearing aids and benefit through the association of other children with the same handicap.

"Children like Buzzy are usually high strung and difficult to handle," Mrs. Sawyer said,

Local Student
'Capped' in Pre
Dental Study

Miss Marilyn Merrick, 173 North Pinewood Rd., Va. Beach, a student in the Department of Oral Hygiene, University of Pennsylvania School of Dentistry, received her cap in recent "Capping Ceremonies" for the class which began the two-year program in September.

The ceremony is symbolic of the successful completion of the student's pre-clinical training. She is now qualified to perform the services of a dental hygienist with clinical patients at the School of Dentistry. At the completion of the two-year course, she will receive a Certificate of Proficiency in Oral Hygiene, which makes her eligible to take State Board Examinations.

Qualified oral hygienist play an important role in the field of dental health and are in great demand today to assist dentists in private practice, hospitals, the armed services, public schools, and state and Federal public health agencies, according to Dr. Harrison M. Berry, Jr., director of courses in oral hygiene at the University of Pennsylvania.

KING'S GRANT P-TA

KING'S GRANT — King's Grant Elementary School P-TA will observe Founder's Day at a meeting Monday at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Ensign Gerald Jacobson will speak on "How to Fight Communism at Home." Boy Scout Troop No. 415 will also be on the program.

A Parent and Family Life Study Group will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Room 19 with Phillip E. Meekins, county elementary supervisor, speaking on "homework".

"but they want to hear. And they want to learn. And they never forget anything."

There is much to be done and many hurdles to overcome but the Tidewater Association for Hearing Impaired Children is inspired by the knowledge that they have opened the door to normal living for many little fellows like Buzzy Sawyer. With this to guide them, how can they fail?

Persons wishing further information on the school or the sponsoring Association may contact the organization's president, Mrs. Chauncey W. Roberts, 8145 Dellwood Court, Wedgewood, Norfolk 3, Va. Or may call JU 3-2247.

training board rather than the Elizabeth River, two radio-controlled ships, exact replicas of the Civil War ships, will reenact the battle as authentically as possible. Other ships that history books have associated with the battle will also appear on the board.

The re-enactment will take place March 8-10 and will be conducted by Rear Admiral John S. McCain Jr., Commander Amphibious Training Command, U.S. Atlantic Fleet.

The Battle

The Confederate ironclad ship "Virginia" (which had been the Union ship "Merrimack" before it was converted in the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard) emerged from the Elizabeth River in Hampton Roads at 1 p.m. on March 8, 1862.

She was a ship the likes of which had never been seen before. Her inventory called her "ironclad, shotproof, floating battery."

As the Merrimack entered the Hampton Roads, she was confronted by the Union warships "Cumberland" (24 guns), "Minnesota" (50 guns), "Minnesota" (47 guns), "Roanoke" (44 guns), and "St. Lawrence" (32 guns). The Merrimack rammed the Cumberland, opening a hole in her side, then drew off and rammed the injured ship with guns until she sank. The Confederates ran aground and was set afire by hot shot (red-hot armor balls). The other wooden Union ships were driven off by the Confederate ironclad.

The Merrimack steamed over to Sewalls Point, present location of the Norfolk Naval Base, to spend the night.

Later the same day, at 4 p.m. to be exact, the Union ironclad "Monitor" entered Hampton Roads to join the partially destroyed Union fleet. The night passed and on the morning of Sunday, March 9, the Monitor and Merrimack confronted each other.

Historical "First"

This was the first time in United States History that two ironclad ships had clashed.

A three-and-a-half hour battle ensued between the two ships. At times during the battle they were no more than 40 or 50 yards apart. However, due to their ironclad structure, neither ship was able to inflict sufficient damage to the other to sink her.

At noon on the 9th the Merrimack returned to the Naval Shipyard and the Monitor returned in the direction of Fort Monroe (Port Monroe).

This battle marked the beginning of the modern ironclad Navy. Hampton Roads (Norfolk, Portsmouth, Newport News) still remains the center of the U.S. Navy and its modern striking ability.

More than 500 school children are expected to attend 10 presentations during the 3-day exhibition and the general public will be admitted to 11 separate presentations. Ticket information will be available Feb. 16.

Upon completion of the 16-week Pre-Flight and Officer's indoctrination course, the cadets will be transferred to the Sausley Field Naval Air Station, also at Pensacola, for primary flight training which leads to designation as a Naval Aviator.

BAYSIDE JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

The Bayside Junior Woman's Club met Tuesday night, Feb. 8, at 8:00 P.M. at the Bayside Christian Church.

Mrs. Pearl Mallory, Executive Secretary of the American Red Cross, spoke to the club on "Red Cross First Aid Class", "Blood Course" and the "Gray Ladies".

Mrs. F. W. Dixon was the sewing contest winner for the club and she will represent the club at the Tidewater District Meeting of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs which will meet at the Chamberlain Hotel March 7.

Plans were made for the club dance to be held Saturday night, March 24 at the Hellenic Center, Norfolk.

Mrs. M. S. Hobbs was elected delegate to the Tidewater District meeting to be held March 7 at the Chamberlain Hotel and Mrs. A. L. Hupman was named alternate.

Ocean Park Woman's Club to Charter Bus to General Assem.

Ocean Park Woman's Club have chartered a bus to take a group to the General Assembly, which is meeting in Richmond, Tuesday, Feb. 20. The club will leave the Ocean Park Fire Station in the morning and will be met by State Senator Ames who will show them through the capitol and escort them around. They will visit the General Assembly and be recognized from the floor. Mrs. E. F. Caldwell, legislative chairman, is making the arrangements.

Bayside Lions Club Held Safety Meeting at Brownley's

The Bayside Lions Club met Wednesday night, Feb. 7, at 7:30 P.M. at Brownley's Restaurant, Little Creek Road. The president, Gordon Hughson, presiding.

Charles Burlage, Safety Chairman, was program chairman for the evening. He presented M. N. Nash, Jr., Bayside Postmaster, who talked briefly about the history of the Bayside Post Office. It was opened in 1949 as a fourth class Post Office. In 1953 they moved into their present quarters as a second class Post Office and in July 1956 were made a first class Post Office.

Nash commended the four drivers who deliver mail in the Bayside area for their safe driving records as follows: Mrs. Laura R. Carr, eighteen years with no reportable accident; James C. Watkins, thirteen years; Mrs. Irene M. Martin, five and a half years; Marshall G. Tollen, five years.

In recognition of their fine safe driving record, "Burlage on behalf of the Bayside Lions Club, presented each a twenty-five dollar Savings Bond."

Postmaster Nash told the club that a movement has begun to try and have a commemorative stamp issued through the Bayside Post Office when the Ches-

President Hughson announced that the Bland Memorial Zone Contest will be held at a Zone Social at the F.O.P. Club on Friday night, March 16 with contestants representing the seven Lions Clubs participating.

Ocean Park Woman's Club Spends A Day in Court

Mrs. E. F. Caldwell, Legislative Chairman, for the Ocean Park Woman's Club arranged a "Day in Court" for the ladies of the club. On Thursday, Feb. 1, ten ladies went to Princess Anne Courthouse and were spectators in the court room for the trials that day. Following the court session, Mr. Ivan Mapp, Commissioner of Revenue, conducted them on a guided tour of the building and offices at the court house. They even visited the jail. While on this tour they saw old court records including the trial of Grace Sherwood, the so called Princess Anne witch and they also saw a copy of her will.

BAYSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

Friday, Feb. 16, the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the church will hold a "Mother and Daughter Banquet" at the church, at 8:30 P.M. The banquet will be held in observance of "Focus Week". The food will be served by members of the Woman's Missionary Union of the church. Mrs. James Curfman and Mrs. Helen Bowick are counselors for the young people group.

An Evangelistic Conference will be held Monday night, Feb. 19, from 5:30 until 9:00 P.M. at the Ocean View Baptist Church. Mrs. Pat Childers from the Bayside church will be one of the speakers.

Officers and leaders of the church are encouraged to attend this Conference as it is in preparation for Simultaneous Revivals to be held in April.

Sunday night, February 11, at the 8:00 P.M. Worship Service two new deacons were ordained: George Eason and R. L. Fodrey, making a total of 15 serving the church.

William Carter, who was accidentally killed in Elizabeth City, N.C., this past week is the brother of Mrs. Nell Davis of the U. S. Amphibious Base. Mrs. Davis' husband is Kelly Davis the Fire Chief of the Little Creek Amphibious Base Fire Department.

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

With only 17 more weeks until graduation, the seniors of Princess Anne High School have started making plans for their prom. The class steering committee has set the date as May 26, and plans call for the Colonel's of VPI to provide the entertainment.

Beverly Andrews, a tall willowy blonde sophomore, will represent the Princess Anne Keyette Club in the 16th annual fashion show sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Norfolk.

Fashions by Smith & Welton, Inc. will be modeled March 5 at the Municipal Auditorium at 8:30 P.M.

The months of February and March seem to be the months of conventions and meetings.

The SCA Forum convenes in Richmond, February 17. Representing Princess Anne will be Claudia Fris, Elaine Thorton, Jan Meades, Buster O'Brian, Jay Ferguson, Linda Gregory and Cecilia Gerloff. A second delegation will go to Cox Junior High for the installation of its newly formed SCA.

The annual SCA State Convention will be held this year on February 23-25 at Radford College. The topics of discussion of the SCA and the Foreign Exchange Student Program.

This year the Beta Club Convention will be held the third week-end in March at Roanoke. The National Keyette Club Convention will be held at the Admiralty Motel March 9 and 10. Keyettes from all over Virginia and the Washington area will attend.

Is the mighty Junior Class of PA mightier than the mighty Senior Class? Well, the National Honor Society is underway with the plans that entail skill, wit and brains — a junior-senior basketball game!

Laurels to the Debate Team as they placed second in a meet with nine Tidewater schools at Woodrow Wilson High School. Going down only to Hampton by a narrow margin of two points, the Cavaliers won 7 out of 8 matches.

The subject that the Debate Team, under the sponsorship of Miss Annette Hasty, spoke on was "Federal Aid to Education". The unbeaten affirmative team, Chuck Sherman & Fred Keene, was awarded speech honors after winning all four matches. The negative team composed of Nancy Budnick and Richard Harper, came out with the commendable record of three wins and one loss.

The Cavaliers will meet the Warwick Farmers in a debate on February 16.

Several weeks ago in this column the members of the PA Scholastic Team were listed. Well, it seems two equally important members were omitted. They were Bob Henderson, a varsity basketball player, and sophomore Tom Yancy. Sorry, boys!

New Committee
A Foreign Exchange Student Committee of Princess Anne County has been formed under the chairmanship of Mrs. Edgar A. Gerloff. The members of the committee are Mrs. E. G. Keene, Mr. E. E. Cox, Mrs. R. W. Evans, Mrs. W. H. Black, Mrs. V. A. Sallwasser and Miss Nancy Acklas. Mr. Reid Ervin spoke to the group on the pleasures and few problems of housing an exchange student.

At a recent SCA meeting, Jane Harrison and Jean Meades were appointed to the offices of reporter and historian, respectively. Congratulations, girls!

The co-editors of the 82-83 Peerage will be Nancy Foy and Jan Meades.

Nancy, a junior, is a varsity cheer-leader and a member of the Trinity Tri-Hi-Y, Keyette & Beta Clubs.

Jan, a petite brunette junior, is the school historian of the

"Give A Lift" Is Hairdressers Slogan In Week's Observance

NORFOLK — While signs in local beauty salons proclaim "Get A Lift" (in honor of National Beauty Salon Week, Feb. 11 to 17), members of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Assn. will observe a private slogan "GIVE A LIFT". As a traditional and key part of the annual observance, members of the Association will donate beauty services to many less fortunate members of this community.

According to Mrs. Ruth Ulrich, Chairman of the Institutional Welfare Program of The Norfolk Hairdressers Assn., professional cosmetologists will bring a welcome "beauty lift" to patients at Norfolk Municipal Hospital, Emmett's Home in Portsmouth and Florence Crittenton's Home during National Beauty Salon Week. The "lift" that cannot be measured.

Often Forgotten
"Many of these patients have not been outside a bed, wheelchair or institution for years," Mrs. Ulrich said.

SCA, and a member of the Beta and Junior Civitan Club.

Things were "foul" for the Cavaliers on the basketball court as the Suffolk Raiders made 27 fouls out of 31 attempts. The Cavaliers dropped with a score of 49-46 on Feb. 6. The junior varsity team rallied through by nipping the Raider JV's with a score of 1 point. The high scorers of the night were (V) Richard McDonald and (JV) Mike Brown and Billy Bowes.

Friday night proved to be a fine night for basketball as the Cavaliers topped the Norwiew "Pilots" with a score of 80-38. Bill Midgett, co-captain of the PA team, dropped in 16 baskets with Robert Henderson following with 12.

The JV's came through also with a score of 44-32 after their game with the Pilot JV's.

"Often, a patient has been a recluse so long that most of her relatives and friends have lost contact with her. She can hardly remember when she felt ' pampered' or 'important' as an individual. She has probably forgotten what it means to feel feminine and attractive."

Since the NHCA's Public Welfare observance began with National Beauty Salon Week 12 years ago, doctors, nurses and institutional directors throughout America have had high praise for the program.

"We term it the most heart-warming and rewarding activity of National Beauty Salon Week," Mrs. Ulrich states. "An instant change comes over the patients we serve. They look younger and brighter. We are told morale reaches a higher level, following our visit — and that it often lasts for a considerable period thereafter. This bears out the feeling of many psychologists, who believe good grooming has a direct relationship to a patient's mental viewpoint."

While local professional hairdressers rebuild confidence with gift coiffures, similar activities will take place in hospitals and institutions from coast-to-coast. It is estimated over 500,000 such professional beauty services will be given this week.

Members of The Norfolk Hairdressers Assn. have many "National Beauty Salon Week" treats in store for the public, too. Fashion shows, styling demonstrations, "open house" celebrations and lectures on beauty care have been scheduled as part of the celebration. And there will be a brand new advance-spring coiffure fashion unveiled in honor of the festive week!

"We can't reveal it yet," Mrs. Ulrich said. But you'll see it, when you follow those gay balloons and window displays that mark each member salon's celebration. We think women will love it!

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

DAVID'S FIRST STEP

The first step is a thrilling moment! An exciting new world is opening up for David. Soon he will be able to chase a butterfly, explore the old apple tree, play with Tommy and Mary next door.

The first step is the hardest. David needs the encouragement of Daddy's waiting arms. The second step will be easier. Soon David will be skipping about like a lamb.

The first step to Sunday School and church will be another thrilling moment in David's life. This first step will be hard for a shy little boy, David will need the encouragement of Mommy and Daddy. Soon he will be asking to go to Sunday School.

An exciting new world of religious discovery is waiting for your children when they take their first step to church.

THE CHURCHES FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor, on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. With one strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake

Round-Up Casserole

Chill winter winds bring the crowd around more and more often for gab-sessions over cups of piping hot coffee. And, not infrequently, the whole gang may stay on for dinner. This being the case, you'll want to be prepared with ingredients for several quick and easy entrees. And what could be more practical than selecting your menu from an assortment of easy-to-prepare packaged dinners—macaroni and cheese, chicken noodle or spaghetti and sauce. All are tasty, nutritious and economical—and too, they take so little shelf space.

One of our favorite spur-of-the-moment entrees is this Round-up Casserole. All you need is a macaroni and cheese dinner and a packet of dried beef. It's so flavorful and just right for satisfying cold-weather appetites. You'll love the tender macaroni and the creamy good cheese sauce mixed with chunks of dried beef. Serve with assorted relishes, salad and hot buttered bread.

Round-Up Casserole

1 pkg. Macaroni and Cheese Dinner
1/4 pound sliced dried beef

1/4 cup margarine
1/4 cup flour
2 cups milk

Prepare the packaged dinner as directed. Sauté the dried beef in the margarine. Blend in the flour; add the milk and cook until thickened. Combine the Macaroni and Cheese Dinner with dried beef mixture.

Barbecue Beef With Vegetables

1 1/2 lb. round steak
1 medium size onion, sliced
Salt and pepper
1/2 cup sliced mushrooms
1/2 cup sliced green pepper
4 tablespoons bacon fat
6 small potatoes (cooked)
6 small carrots (cooked)
8 small onions (cooked)
2 cups whole green beans (cooked)

1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/8 teaspoon paprika
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
1 1/2 cups milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 cans tuna fish
1 pkg. frozen lima beans (cooked)
1 cup Ritz crackers (rolled)
1 lb. cheddar cheese, shredded

Melt butter in top of double boiler, add onion and green pepper and cook until tender; gradually add flour, salt, pepper, paprika and nutmeg. Blend well. Then place top of double boiler in low section. Add milk to mixture and stir constantly till thick. Add tuna oil and lemon juice and cook for about 2 minutes. Flake tuna, alternate tuna, cracker crumbs, lima beans and cheese. Pour sauce over and bake in a 450° oven about 10-15 minutes or until bubbly. Sprinkle cracker crumbs over top, before putting in oven.

Tuna and Vegetable Casserole

6 tablespoons butter
1 small onion (chopped)
4 tablespoons green pepper (chopped)
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt

Acquisition of the site of historic Marine Barracks in Washington D.C., became a problem back in 1901 when it was discovered the cost would run at a staggering four cents a square foot.

Your Social Security

Are you among the many workers past retirement age who have not yet applied for social security benefits because you are still employed? If so, you may be losing benefits to which you are entitled.

A recent change in the law now makes it possible for many more older people to work and still be paid some social security benefits. You don't have to retire completely to get benefits.

Under the law as it stands now, you can earn up to $1200 a year and still collect benefits for every month. If you earn over $1200 in a year, you will lose some benefits. One dollar of social security benefits is withheld for each $2 earned between $1200 and $1700. For every $1 earned over $1700, $1 of benefits will be withheld.

For example, if you earned $2100 in a year, $650 in benefits would be held back (one-half of the $500 between $1200 and $1700, plus the $400 in excess of $1700.) If your monthly benefit rate amounted to $120, your yearly benefit amount of $1440 would be reduced by $650, permitting you to get $790 in benefits for the year.

If you have reached retirement age but are still working, check with your local social security office. A delay in filing could result in loss of benefits.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

Although a veteran is not yet ready to build or purchase a home at this time it is good business to apply to the Veterans Administration for this GI Loan Certificate of Eligibility showing that he is entitled to a loan guaranty and how much. Then when he goes to his lending agency, farm association or insurance company to apply for his loan, he will save time in getting the loan approved.

When he sees the lending agency for a loan he must have a definite piece of property in view which he will be able to buy. If his credit rating is good, his ability to make payments and his down payment are satisfactory, the rest of the transaction should not take more than 3-4 weeks. The lending agency or bank has the necessary papers to complete for a GI loan and they will send it in to the VA for approval.

To apply for a Loan Certificate of Eligibility use the proper form to which attach your original discharge or separation paper.

Beach Dealers Plan Auto Show

Rhac Adams, President, Virginia Beach Automobile Dealers Assn., advised the following was passed at their regular meeting today.

Because of the overall public patronage and sales success of the Automotive Trade Fair last October at Princess Anne Plaza, Virginia Beach, the Association is now planning the 2nd Annual Auto Show for October, 1962. Estimated attendance last fall was 40,000 people attracted by new car introductions, factory experimental models, exhibits, and free prizes.

The nine independent dealers of the Association were gratified that this was the most successful Auto Show ever staged in the Tidewater area.

Weekly Paper Readership Is High, Survey Reveals

Regular readership of suburban weekly newspapers is high, if findings of comprehensive studies undertaken by two New Jersey papers are typical.

The surveys of subscribers' preferences, unique in the weekly publishing field, were conducted by the SUMMIT HERALD and the MILLBURN-SHORT HILLS ITEM, in conjunction with the magazine SUBURBIA TODAY which both papers distribute.

The HERALD and the ITEM mailed postage - prepaid poll cards to half of their 10,274 subscribers. Approximately one-third of the 5,137 households that received the readership study cards returned them. This 16% sample of the two papers' total subscription list thus was a considerably larger cross-section of reader preference than most media customer surveys.

Both papers are long-established, and members of the ABC.

Readers were asked whether they "read regularly" or "sometimes" or "rarely," each of the front-page and inside-page departments and columns published weekly or frequently by each paper, and similarly, to what extent they read SUBURBIA TODAY which appears monthly.

Top readership for both papers went to "page one news" and "page one pictures." The most popular "inside features" for both papers were "editorials," "politics & government," and "SUBURBIA TODAY."

Another kind of question on the poll—about media—asked which newspapers the subscriber read besides the weekly studied. Few of the two papers' subscribers read any other weekly. Most of them read one daily, with the two dailies from nearby Newark slightly outpacing the cumulative list of New York City dailies. Other "dailies" likewise showed a following.

(The poll summaries are attached. A breakdown of answers by women and men is also available.)

Cost of the two surveys, conducted simultaneously, was approximately $600, combined. This included printing the survey cards and envelopes in which they were mailed, addressing, postage out and back, sorting, compiling, and other relevant expenses. This averaged about 11c an answer.

Planning, questions and format were prepared by publisher relations director Morton Frank of SUBURBIA TODAY, in cooperation with publisher Carl Hulet of the SUMMIT HERALD and co-publishers Will Baetzner and Charles Paulson of the MILLBURN - SHORT HILLS ITEM, with counseling from publisher Leonard S. Davidson of SUBURBIA TODAY.

Another weekly newspaper readership study recently conducted by Washington University personnel of St. Louis for the KIRKWOOD, Mo. ADVENTURER, revealed that 78% of the 1,431 responses said they "always read" SUBURBIA TODAY, 52% said "sometimes," 91 rarely; 26 didn't answer. The "always" and "sometimes" answers combined, represented 91.82% of all polled persons, including those who didn't answer this part of the survey. This percentage resembled the New Jersey weekly papers readers' response to the question on SUBURBIA TODAY, within a few percentage points.

Because the local features of the New Jersey and Missouri suburban weeklies differ, their respective local editorial feature percentages might not be considered a usable comparison of the three publications' readership loyalties compared each with the other—but the SUBURBIA TODAY percentages, in communities of the widely separated Greater New York & St. Louis metropolitan areas, could be considered to be of significance in evaluating suburban newspaper readership strength.

GALILEE WOMEN IN RETREAT AT CHURCH

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Women of Galilee Episcopal Church will have a quiet day of retreat and meditation today under the leadership of the rector, the Rev. Edmund Berkeley. The day will begin at 10 a.m. with the service of Holy Communion, prayers and Laying on of Hands for the sick followed by two meditations on the importance of quietness in our lives and ending with lunch at noon.

PRESSING WOOL

Due to the nature of the wool fiber, wool fabrics require special pressing techniques for good results. Here are some pointers that will help you in pressing ready-to-wear garments and those you are constructing.

TECHNIQUES

Wool fabrics should be pressed on the wrong side except when top surface pressing is needed for finishing details. Your iron should be set at medium low heat (350° F.-375° F. or at the marking "Wool").

Place a dry wool cloth (with-out a rough texture) on top of the garment area to be pressed. When extra moisture is needed (that is, more than a steam iron) a cotton cloth, evenly moistened, may be placed over the wool cloth. Always press fabric with the grain, never on the bias, avoiding stretching.

Let steam do the heavy work! Keeping the weight of the iron in your hand, use a lower and lift motion as you guide it, never bearing down. Check your top press cloth to make sure the iron hasn't attained scorching heat. Avoid pressing wool totally dry.

Plain weave fabrics are particularly easy to press, especially if firmly woven. Unless well protected, twill weaves and satins in weaves (such as broadcloth) tend to develop a sheen along seam lines. If you are working for the first time with deep faced or crepe textured fabrics it is well to test a sample to see if you have the right amount of heat and moisture for the fabric.

FOR SHARP EDGES

To provide flat, well-defined edges on fashion details wool's crease setting qualities are employed. With heat and steam, edges can literally be pounded sharp and clean.

When sharp pressing pleats or pocket flaps, remember to place a strip of thin cardboard or wrapping paper under the free edge to avoid imprinting the outline. Sharply crease all pleat folds before joining a pleated section to another portion of a garment.

A pounding block or spanker is used to flatten and sharpen the edges of jacket fronts, collars, pleats, seams, darts and hemlines. First the detail is pressed normally, using two press cloths. Then, with the steam still rising, the edge is pounded several times with the flat of the block. Because of the pounding block's weight, you can get a sharp crease with little effort. Without excessive handling, the fabric is then laid aside to dry fully before proceeding with it.

A pounding block is made of smooth hardwood curved and grooved for convenient handling.

Correct Pressing of Hems

Allow the garment you are constructing to hang overnight before establishing the hemline. This will insure its being the true one. Always press the hem upward with the grain since crosswise pressing stretches the hem out of shape. For extreme sharpness, pound the edge as you press.

HOW TO REFRESH THE TEXTURE OF WOOL

Despite wool fabric's almost infinite variety of beautiful textures, a few simple pressing procedures enable you to retain them, restoring their "live" freshness of hand repeatedly. One should always press with the grain.

HOW TO PRESS WOOL SEAMS

Some sheer wool fabrics may have to be pressed at a lower temperature than the setting on the iron. Be sure to test the iron temperature and the effect of the amount of moisture on a scrap before touching your garment. Too much moisture may effect the surface of wool crepe.

To press napped wools have the press surface covered with wool so that the nap will adhere to the wool surface and be lifted as it is raised from the board. Never touch the iron directly to the wool garment.

Seams should be pressed open. Open the seam with the finger tips, following the center line with the point of the iron. Apply pressing cloths as outlined under "Technique".

A magazine roll is a convenience in pressing long straight seams without leaving the impression of the fabric edges. Only the stitching line becomes pressed along the ridge of the roll. Seams, and particularly short seams, can be pressed flat with a strip of brown paper or several layers of tissue paper under the seam allowances to avoid edge imprint. Curves in a seam line can be molded with a tailor's ham.

If you are pressing skirt seams, you start at the hem line and move the iron toward the waist line, using strokes in the direction of the fabric grain line.

THE PRINCESS ANNE SWEET POTATO INDUSTRY

The Sweet Potato consumer has already enjoyed a sweet & delicious sweet potato because of the efforts of Princess Anne County sweet potato growers, and these growers are always looking for new ways to improve the consumer acceptance of their sweet potato.

Marketing Effort

In order to insure the buyer and consumer of the product desired, the Princess Anne sweet potato producers joined together into a marketing organization in 1960, called The Princess Anne Marketing Association. Under the guidance of the Board of Directors of this organization, sweet potato marketing has moved forward rapidly in the last two years.

The Marketing procedure is for its members to bring potatoes to the processing plant where the potatoes are washed and waxed and graded into uniformed packaged lots. Our County sweet potatoes can always be recognized by the beautiful princess holding a sweet potato which is found on every box of sweet potatoes leaving the Marketing Association.

NEW VARIETIES
V 2158

The newest variety was developed here in Princess Anne County at the Virginia Truck Experiment Station by plant breeder Tom Nugent. The 2158 gave the highest yield of all potatoes grown at the Truck Station in 1961. The potato has excellent external and internal color, is very sweet according to my own taste it is sweeter than the Porto Rico, in unofficial sprout producing tests, the 2158 will produce about 67% as many sprouts as will the Porto Rico. There are no seed of this variety available for farmers to use in 1962, however, conducted on one of the farms by our office with this variety and four others.

Centennial

In 22 locations in the Southern cooperative trials which involve sweet potato experimental results from Louisiana, north to New Jersey, the Centennial gave the highest average total yield, U.S. No. 1 yield, and canning size. At the Virginia Truck Experiment Station, it yielded 624 bushels, being second to the 2158. In 1960, it had the highest yield of any varieties at Diamond Springs, yielding 791 total bushels per acre. The Centennial will pull about 57% as many sprouts as will Porto Rico.

Nugget

The Nugget was second in average total yield in the 22 Southern cooperative trials, also second in U.S. No. 1 size potatoes. At the Truck Station, it yielded 577 bushels which is still an extremely good yield compared to our average county yield.

The Nugget has a very bad drawback in its sprout production ability; for instance, on comparing the first pulling of sprouts with the Porto Rico, the Nugget will only pull 9% as many as the Porto Rico will.
Overall pullings the Nugget will only pull 44% of the sprouts that the Porto Rico will.

Gold Rush

Gold Rush is not a real new potato, however, it is new for this area. This was third in total yield and U.S. No. 1 size yield in the 22 locations of the Southern trials and was fourth at the Truck Station trials at Diamond Springs. It will produce about as many sprouts as the Centennial and the V 2158, however, the percentage of early sprouts is somewhat down.

Porto Rico

The Porto Rico variety is the one that we have been growing 100% of in the past years. The Porto Rico variety yielded 4th in the Southern trials test and fifth at the Diamond Springs station, however its beautiful point is that it does have a tremendous sprout producing ability. The Porto Rico, however, is a potato which is difficult to get a high percentage of grade because of the consistent non-uniformity of its potatoes.

TASTE APPEAL

After using the five above varieties, in a production meeting a week ago, I carried them home and had each potato baked, and then according to my own taste test I tried to evaluate the taste and the sweetness of the five varieties.
I must admit that I tried to rearrange my biased prejudices in order to give a true evaluation. Certainly, this taste test was not by the test tube method, but rather by the "dip and sip" method.

I felt that the 2158 had the most desirable color, sweetness, and taste. Centennial, Nugget, and Gold Rush had extremely good color, much better than the Porto Rico color after being cooked. However, there is some difference in the taste appeal.
I felt that the Centennial, Gold Rush and Porto Rico had little difference in sugar content and taste appeal. I felt that the Nugget did not have the sweetness that the other varieties had.
Keep in mind that this is strictly an unofficial taste test.

SEED AVAILABILITY

Seed is available for farmers to use this year with the exception of V 2158. Only six bushels of this variety are available and these will be used in an Extension demonstration on one of the producers farms. Along with this variety in the demonstration will be Centennial, Nugget, Gold Rush, and Porto Rico.

I am urging the sweet potato producers to not go "hog wild" about planting all of their sweet potato crop to new varieties. I am, however, strongly urging that sufficient seed be purchased to plant a small acreage to determine how they will compare in production ability, grading percentage, and market acceptance in comparison with the Porto Rico. Any producer interested in securing some of this seed should contact my office at once. I will make arrangements regarding where the potatoes are located and will arrange a trip for all of the folks who are interested to go look at the seed and actually make each purchase individually. After we are completely satisfied with the quality, quantity, and price we can send a truck to the seed producer and bring all of our new seed back at one time. I feel that any seed that is purchased this year will be the future foundation seed of any new variety started here in the County. So, it is extremely important that we start out with the best possible variety in 1962.

CONSIDERATE

Professor: "If there are any dumbbells in the room, please stand up." A long pause, then a lone freshman stood up.
Professor: "What, do you consider yourself a dumb-bell?"
Freshman: "Well, not exactly that, Sir, but I hate to see you standing all alone."

BAYSIDE GROUP ADDS
"H" TO CLUB NAME

A fifth "H", standing for "Horses", has been added to the name of a new 4-H Club that has been organized in the Bayside area by a group of 4-H Club members who are primarily interested in horses and ponies.
Their Club is now called the 5-H Club.

Mrs. Paul Creekmore, who is a riding instructor in the Bayside area, serves as a volunteer
4-H Club leader for this group.
At each monthly 5-H Club meeting, Mrs. Creekmore offers project instruction on horsemanship, riding, care of equipment, and other related fields.

County 4-H'ers Prepare For National 4-H Club Week

The week of March 3-10 has been set aside as National 4-H Club Week. 4-H Club members in all of the 50 states will conduct activities to celebrate.
During this time many people will pay special tribute to the 4-H Clubs in turn they will expect the clubs to conduct special programs or activities to tell the 4-H story.

Princess Anne County 4-H'ers are now striving to set up programs and activities that will let the people know what the 4-H Clubs are doing in our County. Some of the ideas that are now being considered are:
preparing 4-H Club displays for business show windows; making and displaying 4-H posters; having a 4-H Club sponsored school assembly program; having 4-H Club bulletin boards in the schools; and putting on skits that emphasize 4-H Club work.

Each year throughout the nation, much time and effort is put into the 4-H club program by the thousands of Club members. This week that is set aside by the National 4-H Club Council offers the 4-H Club members the much deserved recognition which is obtained.

Amphibs Now 20 Years Old

Norfolk's 17,000 Amphibians, attached to the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force, will celebrate the 20th Birthday of the Amphibious Force here February 24. Four simultaneous dances—for officers, chief petty officers, rated and non-rated men—will be held at Naval Amphibious Base Clubs. Cake-cutting ceremonies, of a 20th Birthday cake, at each of dances are planned. This fact sheet contains advance information concerning the celebration.

The Commissioned Officers' Dance will be held in Rockwell Hall from 9 p.m. until midnight. The officers of the force will wear formal dress uniforms; their ladies will dress in evening gowns. Vice Admiral and Mrs. Ward, Commander Amphibious Force, U.S. Atlantic Fleet, will be hosts and preside at the cake-cutting ceremony.

The Chief Petty Officers' Dance will be held at the CPO Club here from 8 p.m. until midnight. Uniform for this dance will be dinner dress blue or appropriate civilian attire. Admission is free. Rear Admiral and Mrs. John S. McCain, Jr., Commander Amphibious Training Command, U.S. Atlantic Fleet, and Captain and Mrs. Howard R. Prince, Commanding Officer, Naval Amphibious Base, will be guests of honor and will preside at the cake-cutting ceremony.

The First & Second Class Petty Officers' Dance will be held at the "Club 56" here from 6 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. The uniform will be dress blue or appropriate civilian attire. Admission is free. Rear Admiral and Mrs. Caldwell, Commander Amphibious Group Four, and Captain and Mrs. Watkins, Commander Amphibious Squadron Two, will be guests of honor and will preside at the cake-cutting ceremony.

The Petty Officer Third Class and Non-Rated Men Dance will be held at the "Gator Club" from 8 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. The uniform will be dress blue or appropriate civilian attire. Admission is free. Rear Admiral and Mrs. Dempsey, Commander Amphibious Group Two, and Captain and Mrs. Gardes, Jr., Commander Amphibious Squadron Twelve, will be guests of honor and will preside at the cake-cutting ceremony.

Admission to each dance will be by reservation only and force members are encouraged to make reservations immediately. RADM. McCain is coordinating all Anniversary celebrations on the Amphibious Base. Captain Ebenezer F. Porter, Assistant Chief of Staff to RADM McCain, is directing preparations for the celebrations. Captain Floren L. Lee, Commanding Officer, Naval Amphibious School, is in charge of dances.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, February 20th, 1962 marked the Twentieth Anniversary of the establishment of the Amphibious Forces of the United States Navy; and

WHEREAS, the Tidewater Area has been the home port of the United States Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force during the twenty years; and

WHEREAS, a particularly close alliance and association exists between the people of Virginia Beach and the personnel of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force and their families, many of whom have chosen to become members of our community; and

WHEREAS, the officers and men of the Amphibious Force have constantly demonstrated their loyalty and devotion to the service of our country, and are now actively engaged in maintaining the readiness of the Amphibious Forces to uphold and defend the American way of life against any enemy which might seek to destroy it;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANK A. DUSCH, Mayor of the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, do hereby proclaim February 20th to 25th, 1962, as

AMPHIBIOUS-FORCE WEEK and call upon my fellow citizens to manifest due and appropriate recognition of this occasion.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Virginia Beach to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Virginia Beach this Twentieth day of February in the Year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-two.

Young Farmers Honored At Father-Son Banquet

PRINCESS ANNE — Four young Princess Anne farmers were spotlighted at the Future Farmers of America Father-Son Banquet Wednesday night. The following accounts of these honorees were submitted by S. B. Myers, agriculture teacher at Princess Anne High School.

STAR CHAPTER FARMER WAYNE FLORA

Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Flora of Princess Anne. He is a tall young man who has the habit of winning medals. Two years ago he assisted our Chapter in the safety campaign and saved a neighbor from drowning in North River Canal. For this he received our safety medal. Last year he had the second best farming program in our Chapter and received the Dekalb Award. Tonight he receives the highest award our Chapter can grant, which is the Star Chapter Farmer Award.

Star Greenhand Farmer—JOE MOULTON

Joe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moulton of Princess Anne. During the first year of Vocational Agriculture all boys are classified as Greenhands. Mr. Myers is teaching a total of 25 greenhands this year. Last year was the first time the Future Farmers Foundation made a medal available to the boy who has the best program starting in Agriculture. Joe's supervised farming program for this year is: 5 acres of lespedeza, 2 market hogs and 2 acres of corn. He is presently serving as vice-president of his class in agriculture.

He shows his maturity in shop by going about his work like a man. He is just finishing a nice gun rack. Our congratulations to Joe Moulton for receiving this award.

DEKALB AWARD JIMMY WHITE

Here is a real busy young man. He is the son of the late Ford White and Mrs. Lillian White of near Sigma. He is holding down a full time job. Taking College math at night and running a farm in his spare time with some help from his mother and younger brother David Ray. The Dekalb Award is made each year for outstanding achievement in Agriculture and leadership. Jimmy was elected to be

Contract Awarded For New Lynnhaven Branch P. O.

Construction of the new quarters for the Lynnhaven Branch of the Virginia Beach, Virginia post office was further advanced today with the announcement by Postmaster General J. Edward Day that a contract has been awarded to Fine and Salzberg, Inc., 7403 Chipping Road, Norfolk, Va., to build and lease the building to the Post Office Department.

"We are continuing to build new post offices where they are needed," Mr. Day said, "but we are constantly re-assessing our lease construction program to determine whether present buildings can be altered or remodeled to take care of our expanding volume of mail."

"The construction program is being concentrated in those areas where the need is urgent and suitable space cannot be obtained except through new construction."

"We now have about 45,000 post office locations throughout the country, handling a volume of 65 billion pieces of mail a year. By 1970 it is expected to rise to 90 billion. It is clear, therefore, that we must redouble our efforts, not only in expanding our capacity but also in devising new postal techniques to meet the demands of our growing population."

Under the Department's Lease Construction program Fine and Salzberg, Inc., will construct the new building on Plaza Trail and lease it to the Department for 10 years, with renewal options. The Department's capital investment is limited substantially to postal equipment, while the building remains under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

"This formula," Mr. Day said, "utilizes the resources and investment funds of private enterprise for needed postal buildings."

The new postal branch at Virginia Beach will be constructed on a site containing 36,250 sq. feet, and is expected to be completed by August, 1962. It will have an interior space of 4874 square feet, with ample space for parking and movement of postal vehicles. The present space will be made available for other purposes.

Parsons Is Candidate For State Jaycee Office

PRINCESS ANNE—Upon receiving unanimous endorsement from his local chapter, Winston B. Parsons, (better known locally as Tuffy) President of the Princess Anne Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced that he is a candidate seeking the office of Vice-President of the State of Virginia Jaycees.

A most active Jaycee since joining in 1959, Parsons has served in addition to local President, as Secretary, Member of the State Finance Committee, State Organizational Structures Committee, and many various local chairmanships of which most recently he served as Co-Chairman and Moderator of a live television debate regarding the merger of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach. Last year he was the recipient of the President's "Certificate of Merit" award for outstanding contributions to his chapter as a member and as their Secretary. Recently, at the Distinguished Service Award Banquet, he was awarded a "Spark Plug" plaque which is presented to Jaycees who help "spark" growth and "spirit" into a chapter.

During his eight month term as President since last June, the Princess Anne Jaycees have grown in size, strength and stature and now stand as one of the strongest and most respected civic organizations within the community. Parsons said, "our organization has grown because our members are proud and willing to work. We now offer community services that we have been seeking to serve for the past ten years. We will continue to grow and serve as long as our weakest member believes in cooperation and team spirit."

Mr. Parsons holds a B.S. Degree in Business Administration from Florida State University where he also served as Assistant to the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Florida Senate, was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Social Fraternity, Zeta Alpha Sigma Honor Society, Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fraternity and the Varsity Club.

Upon completion of college he served three years as an officer in the U. S. Marine Corps and is currently the Squadron Adjutant of the Norfolk Marine Air Reserve Unit VMA 233.

Born in Norfolk in 1934 and a Princess Anne County resident most of his life, the 27-year-old currently holds the position of Associate to Mr. Warren A. Ott, President of the Ott Investment Corporation and Nautigale of Virginia, Inc.

Bishop Brown To Visit Galilee Here

VIRGINIA BEACH — Bishop William A. Brown, DD, LL.D., retired bishop of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, will hold a confirmation service at Galilee Episcopal Church March 4 at 10 A.M.

Bishop Brown will speak to the men and boys of the church at 9 a.m. the same day after Holy Communion at 8 a.m.

Illustrious Noble Scott has served the Temple long and well. First as Captain of the Arab Patrol on two separate occasions, then as a member of the board of trustees for several years and then through the various offices of the Divan.

For these many services the Nobility of Khedive Temple has set this date to acknowledge the untiring efforts of the Potentate.

Winner

ROGER WHITE
Roger White
FFA Winner

Roger White is a young man who has won a great distinction. Last October in Kansas City, Missouri he was presented a gold key and certificate making him an American Farmer. This is the highest degree awarded by the Future Farmers of America Organization. Roger is the first person in Princess Anne County to win this honor in the last 20 years.

Roger farms 500 acres on Pungo Ridge in partnership with his father, Mr. W. L. White and his older brother, Mr. Robert White.

Early in his senior year, Roger and Rosemary were married. They now have two daughters and the eldest Cynthia was elected to be our mascot.

Future Farmers have until they reach their 21st birthday to try for the American Farmer Degree. Roger's farming program for this degree was completed in the fall of 1960. The award was made at the National Convention in October 1961.

During his four years of agriculture he produced 160 acres of corn, 163 acres of soybeans, 25 acres of wheat, 21 acres of potatoes, 2 acres of oats and 12 market hogs. His highest yield of corn was one field of Dekalb 837 which produced 156.6 bushels during the season of 1960. He grew about 83 acres this year which averaged about 90 bushels per acre.

Every Thursday night usually finds Roger busy in the farm shop at Princess Anne High School. He just completed a beautiful cedar chest which cost him just $2.00 to have the log sawed plus his labor.

Shriners Honor New Potentate

The Nobles of Khedive Temple Shrine will honor their newly elected illustrious Potentate Brock J. Scott and Mrs. Scott at a ball to be held in the Mosque, Freemason and Duke Streets—Friday, February 25th at 9 P.M.

Illustrious Noble Scott has served the Temple long and well. First as Captain of the Arab Patrol on two separate occasions, then as a member of the board of trustees for several years and then through the various offices of the Divan.

For these many services the Nobility of Khedive Temple has set this date to acknowledge the untiring efforts of the Potentate.

Potentates and other high ranking representatives from Temples in Virginia and neighboring states will be present for this occasion. Following the Grand March the Potentate and his distinguished guests will be presented to the several hundred Nobles in attendance. The remainder of the evening will be given over to dancing with music furnished by Jack O'Neill and his orchestra.

Incidental music and music for the Grand March will feature Sam Simmons at the Hammond organ.

George Brooke Is Beach's First Citizen For 1961

VIRGINIA BEACH — Retired railroad executive George D. Brooke has been chosen as Virginia Beach's "First Citizen for 1961" by the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce. He will be honored at a banquet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Black Angus Restaurant.

Headed Drive
Brooke was selected by a committee of local Jaycees for a successful drive to raise $950,000 for the General Hospital of Virginia Beach. He now serves as president of the open-staff hospital at 25th St. and Arctic Avenue.

Rotary Observes 57th Birthday

VIRGINIA BEACH — This week the Rotary Club of Virginia Beach will observe the 57th anniversary of the founding of Rotary, world-wide service organization of business and professional men.

In observing the occasion, the Virginia Beach club joins a world-wide celebration planned by more than 11,000 Rotary clubs and a half million Rotarians in Greece and Ghana, in Finland and the Fiji Islands — in the 124 countries and geographical regions where there are Rotary clubs—the anniversary will be marked by men whose diverse languages, religions, and political beliefs find a common denominator in the Rotary ideal of serving others.

Recalling the early days of the first Rotary club, Lee Chambers, president of the club in Virginia Beach said, "When Rotary began in Chicago on Feb. 23, 1905, its appeal to businessmen was largely social, with the founder of Rotary, Paul P. Harris, a lawyer, basing his idea for the organization on the conviction that friendship and business could go hand in hand to the benefit of both. Today, as it is right from the beginning, friendship is still basic in Rotary, but only for its ability to provide service — minded men with increased opportunities to serve."

The strong appeal of Rotary concept of service to men of different vocational interests is evidenced by the organization's phenomenal growth. On Feb. 23, it becomes 57 years old, and international will be composed of approximately 11,000 clubs. That means that since its founding...

KEGLER'S KORNER

Scores are what the bowler wants—and scores are what they are getting at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl. Take for instance—the Plaza Major League last Tuesday. A total of 21 two hundred games were bowled. Bud Womble, subbing for Johnnie Chisholm had a 233 high for the night. George Baier chalked up a 3-game total of 231-232-191—654 for top individual series. Team game honors go to Pappas Body Shop who spilled 1012 pieces of maple, as Kraus Construction was taking the team series, with a sweet 2969. The real hot boys of the night included Angie Riccio who had games of 232 and 222; Mike Cimmino 213-211; Jim Caldwell just missed a tripple 203-203-194; Tony Riccio 214-204; Troy Davis 226-206; Stan Nishimoto's high 232; Bill Keith 224; Dick Rust 226; Bob Bond 217. Other 200 game Keglers were Bill Costes, Mike Panz, Don Wilson, 224, and Ken Leach. Six hundred series bowlers included Angie Riccio 636, Troy Davis 624, Mike Cimmino 614, Tony Riccio 611, and Dick Rust 604.

Kate Miller's 200, and Alice Rhodes 532 were high for the night—the Jokers rolled a team game of 637, and the Navelettes cornered the series market with a 1795. The girls are bowling better each week and you will soon see an increase in the 200 game department.

Guys and Dols League
This is a new league and Tuesday last was the first night of competition. Teams are composed of two couples. Freddy Fink, the esteemed league president prayed his way in to the high game and series, 201-533 (the lucky stiff). Don't get me wrong, I'm not jealous because he beat me—I'll get my own four leaf clover next week. Roseanne Redd was high for the night in both departments, 165-428.

Bolton's Bowlers League
These kids are really burning up the lanes—for youngsters that is. During the last meeting Larry Price had a 191 high game in his 530 series total—and for the girl it was Nancy Neathery who came through with a 182 game and a 470 series—both roll for Lafayette Building Corp. and are trailing the Flintstones by one game. Don Reiger and Tommy Moyer had series of 485 and 479 respectively. Yvonne Chisholm tabled a 163 game.

Traveling League
The Plaza Bowl took it all there was Sunday, scoring 3141 pins to the E. C. Womack teams 2632—almost tying the Norfolk City Assn. record. Dick Rust scored a hot 258 for high in the game department, while George Baier took series honors with a 669. Close on George's heels came Troy Davis with 235-239-192—666—Dick's totals were 174-258-197—629. Frank Louer of the losers had a high of 210 and Nick Nicholson came up with 188-183-201—572. Bowling after midnight at the Plaza Bowl is gaining in popularity. Many folks, after a late supper or following the last

Cavalier Matmen Place Fourth in District

With two first place winners in the Eastern District Tournament, the Princess Anne Grapplers took fourth place with a total of 49 points. Greg Tevesco, at 148 lbs., and John Smith, at 157, were awarded first place medals. Also placing were David Miller, third place at 106; Neal Shelby, third at 123; Gary Miller, fourth at 130; John Hopkins, fourth at 136; and Bob McKain, fourth at 178. The entire team, as pictured, are, top row, left to right, Steve Miller, Tom Harris, Buddy Robertson, John Smith, Bill Castle, Ray Almond, Mike Schwartz and Curtis Forbes; bottom row, Bobby Faison, David Miller, Bob Jenkins, Robert Hogge, Neal Shelby, Gary Miller, John Hopkins, Lenny Knight. theater showing, feel the night is still young and the call to the arms of morpheus can't or won't be heard—so down to the lanes they go. Coffee is served free from 12 Mid. to 9:00 A.M. If you can't sleep come on down and roll a few games. Have fun. Remember, "It's smart to be seen at Rinaldi's."

In signing off for this week let me leave you with this little story. Just the other evening a gentleman bowled several lines. He brought his sheet to the cashier and said, "Miss, I can't pay for my bowling, what shall I do?" The young lady smiled and replied, "That's all right, sir, I'll write your name, the amount and the fact you owe us right up there on the wall." "But, Miss," the customer whined, everyone will see my name up there and know I'm in debt." No they won't, sir, she replied sweetly, it will be hidden by the overcoat you have there."

Good-bye for now—see you next week. Thanks for reading. Don't forget to pick up a copy of the Sun-News the next time you visit Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl. So, Adios Amigos, Hasta la Vista, Vaya con Dios.

All right, all ready—Give me a hit in the head! So we're not neat—and we were a week late with the bowling results last issue! This week everything is current (I hope).

I get more gripes from the bowlers than a little bit—they want to know "Why wasn't my name in your column?" I bowled a 592 and had a 210 game, what gives? Believe me, boys & girls, I'll get it in, provided—that your league Secretary gets the info to me. Publicity is part of the secretarial duty—unless the duty has been delegated to a certain individual of the league. So get after your league Secretaries to give me the dope! Let's not forget to inform our Dads, Granddads, Uncles, and/or friends—this includes of course Mamas, Grandmas, and Aunts—that the Senior Bowling Assn. (USSBA) is ready to accept applications for membership for all over 55 years of age—and, that both men's and women's leagues are being formed NOW at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl. League play for the ladies will be on Friday afternoons—the Senior Men's League will be on Thursday nights or afternoons. If you know of a Senior Citizen who likes bowling—or would like to learn—send me his or her address—we will do the rest.

Flash! Rinaldi Plaza Bowl is going to run a tournament! One that will give both men & women low bowlers a chance to get in the money circle. Guaranteed prizes of $200 for first, $100.00 for second place, and $50.00 for third are to be awarded the 3 highest bowling couples—this can be two men, two women, or a mixed couple. The entry fee will be $8.50 per couple—this covers the bowling, prize money, and etc., etc. Handicap for men will be 75%, women 90%—based on 200. Watch for details and date.

JOHNNIE'S GIRLS
With anchor girl, Bernice Roberts, leading the way with a 178-166-160—504, the Lazy Four, with no trace of lethargy, took 3 from the Sleepers—who may have been a little bit drowsy from the night before. Ruth Brown, of the losers, had a nice 173 game. Barbara Reeves of the L.F.'s had a 176-153-141—470. The Lazy Four also registered high game and team series for the day 612—1769. The Bay Jewelers, in spite of the broken arms on Jinx Chisholm and Mary Hammett, won over the Navelettes 3-1. Ruth Howell of the vanquished scored a 165-143-153—461. Celie Russell led the winners with 153-144-143—440. Betty Jugo, with 195-179-170—544, paced her teammates, The Jokers, to a 3-1 victory over the Queen Bees. Betty's 195-544 were good for high individual game and series for today's league play. The Alley Cats clayed out a split decision with the King Pins, 2-2. For the A.C.'s it was Betty Kello's 413 series that was also for her team—while Gladys Syr scored 150-420 for the K.P.'s. (Tsk, Tsk, Tsk—I can't get over Jinx and Mary).

TECH. REP. LEAGUE
It was during this nights play that Norma Meek bowled the games and series, you no doubt have read about already—278-171-208—657. Your scribe has failed to find a written record that can establish a claim to any scores higher having ever been rolled by a woman in the Norfolk area—I'm even going to check in NN and Hampton. Regardless—that girl sure gathered a bunch of pins for her team. Congratulations Norma, I'm glad you bowled it in a Rinaldi House. Joe Keefer collected 221 pieces of maple for second high—Larry Oller rolled a 583 series that included a 201-203 to pace the men for series honors. Bob Day rolled a 201, followed by Mel Rush's even 200. The Butter Balls took high team game and series with 827-2369. The Flame-outs are still the league leaders with 24-0 in the standings. The two runner-up teams with 20 wins and 4 losses—Team No. 1 and the Misfits—lock horns next week. This should be the game to watch.

PLAZA MAJOR LEAGUE
Again we find Dick Rust topping the field with a high game of 245, as our friend from NN, Bob Bond, handily ran up a 636 series. In the 3-game department it was 606—Dick Rust, 607 George Baier; 613 Warren Hite-shew. Kraus Construction Company maintained their hold on the lead position with 61-19. Pilot Life and Pappas Body Shop follow in that order. The Body Shop Boys cornered both the team game and series for the night—994-2872.

SAINT GREGORY'S LEAGUE
Again we see the "weaker sex" taking top game honors from the men in this fun-filled league—Mary Bockelman's 215 topped Charlie Swoope's 200, but Chuck did go on to score 363 more pins in the next two games to cop the nights high series with 563. The St. Gregory Team had high team game and series scoring, 784—2301. I see we have the "Holy Ghosts" and the "Holy Smokes"—will someone tell me where the "Holy Rollers" are? Incidentally—the Holy Smokes are enjoying the league lead at present by 2 1/2 pts. over St. Martins. Saint Martins trial the H.S. group by 45%-26% to 43-29.

THURSDAY NITE MIXED
Russ Middleton and Dan San-series section with 185-496. Le Roy Dirden coupled some nice high games with his 201 to take high series of the night with a 574. Team series & game highs were scored by Team No. 1—625-1737.

SUNDAY NITE MIXED
Both the boys and girls rolled several nice scores tonight—Ray Craven of the Liskay Printers with a 190-206-157—555 led his teammates to a 4-0 win over the No Trumps. Lee Lisley missed a tripple in scoring his 535 series, 186-169-168, as the team went on to take high team game of 710 sticks. The Weyande Homes four scored the night's high team series of 1978 with the assistance of Carl DeLew who chalked up 233 (high individual game), 187-150-570 and Ralph Cerino's 146-204-189—539 as they romped home the winners over Buddy's Texas 4-0. The Mark-ette's liked the 4-0 idea and went on to prove it in downing the Zubys by that margin. Jeanette Crothers gave her masculine co-partners the big assist by rolling 160-172-178—510. Russ Middleton of the losers collected 144-184-194—522. Bill McLaughlin of the Four Aces, in running of a tally of 214-169-220—603, registered a new league record series—de-throning the former record holder Wayne Henderson. In taking 3 out of 4 points from the Imps, Joan Reed gave her team a big assist with a 146-178-182—506. Mike Jernigan rolled a 220 game as the Flintstones downed the Easy Marks 3-1. GEX Auto paced by Bill Easton's 528 set made it 3-1 over the Ells Bells four.

BOLTON'S BOWLERS
Tommy Neathery just flat up rolled a 223 high game for the day, and the league's tops for the season. Gene Nimmo topped 516 pins for the session's high set. Nice going boys, stay with it—some day one of you may be president. Lafayette Building Corp. copped the high team game with a 971—and the Pin Chasers ran up a score of 2872 for the days high series.

BANTAM LEAGUE
The Southern Yankees forfeited 3 games to the Firebells, but never-the-less Terry Chisholm rolled a 160-144-146—450, while Loretta Bolton picked up 390 pins for her days series. With or without contestants these girls give their all. The Bubble Blowers forfeited to the Cannon Balls. The Red Dogs

Goals and Drabbles

Saturday's Games
Lions 23, Beachcombers 21
Hawks 43, Blue Angels 17
The hungry Lions roared and were fed! But not over-fed. The Beachcombers saw that they moved back from the ball basket with only a two-point extra. This was some game. Tied up 15-all going into the fourth period, the Lions squeezed through with Dickie Miller and Steve Clark leading the way. As usual, Buddy Hines looked good carrying most of the load for his unit.

The Beachcombers played fine ball with Craig Waring scoring 8 points. Four of these were foul shots. We glad to see Towney Brown and Dave Donohoe coming into their own. These boys looked real good. Your people who weren't there really missed something when you missed this game!

The second game was something of a scoring marathon with the Hawks piling up the largest count in two seasons, of Link-horn play. Talked of 'em all, Ronnie Billingsley, racked up 16 points, and shortest, Gary Baker, came through with four and some, fine ball. The terrific Hawk defense is attested by the fact that in five games they have scored 139 points while having only 64 scored on them. Important in this defense is Malcolm Ragan who always does a job.

Chuck Terry's Blue Angels have a good defensive man in gers put out the flame of the Spit Fires to the tune of 3-0. Richard Stone of the losers scored a nice 161 game. The King Pins made it 2-1 over the Woodpeckers. The Uncorables made it a white wash over the Goofers 3-0. You parents, whenever possible, should come on down and watch these kids. They really take the game serious. The most of them will be very good bowlers—top notch in fact—by the time they enter teen years.

If you folks think of it drop old Joe Willoughby a get-well card—he is on the road to recovery after a seige of pneumonia at the Portsmouth Naval Hospital. A line to Don Aveyard (one of Norfolk's finest) would help cheer him along—he is at the Norfolk General resting up from an operation on his spine. That's all for this week Keglers. Thanks for reading.

Whis McNeal, and in this game both Jimbo Kitchen and Bill Pendleton looked particularly good.

We would like to offer many thanks to Hal Whitehurst and his Princess Anne County Recreation Department for straightening out the game scheduling difficulties. Mr. Whitehurst was present at Cox last Saturday and everything went off as smooth as a vapor trail. Our games were on time. No sweat. No griping. No complaints.

Each team has one more of the regular season to play. These games will be played Saturday at Cox; first, 2:00 p.m., Lions vs. Blue Angels; second, 3:00 p.m., Hawks vs. Beachcombers. Two Saturdays of tournament follow. On March 3, the first place team plays the last place team and the second and third place teams play each other. The losers of these games play each other in a consolation game, while the winners play for the championship. These last two will take place on Saturday, March 10. With only 3 more Saturdays to go, you folks had better come on out and see some fine basketball.

Seahawks Play Prince George In Cage Meet

The Virginia Beach Seahawks, winners of the Division A, District One, Group Two basketball title, will face Prince George in the opening round tonight of the district tournament being played at Frederick College, just outside Churchland.

The Seahawks finished the regular season with a conference record of 11 victories and one defeat. The lone setback came at the hands of Gloucester.

Should the Hawks win tonight they will play again Friday night. Finals in the tourney are slated for Saturday night.

What size Chevrolet do you want to save money on?

CHEVROLET IMPALA Room, refinement and riding comfort. Forground, the Impala Sport Sedan.
CORVAIR MONZA Sports Car, spice without a sports car price. At rear is the Monza Club Coupe.
CHEVY II NOVA The frisky family-sized Chevrolet with a low, low price tag. Above right, Nova Sport Coupe.

Like your driving sporty, with quicksilver steering, flat-as-a-pancake cornering, sure-footed traction? Then a Corvaire Monza's for you.
Or maybe the new-size Chevy II is more to your liking. Built for big families and still slips neatly into small parking places. And, with this, the kind of ingenious engineering (new easy-riding Mono-Plate rear springs, for example) that won this year's coveted Car Life Magazine Award for Engineering Excellence.
But any you want to go all out—to get the full treatment in space, spirit and splendor. Then there's nothing like a Jet-smooth Chevrolet. Makes paying more pointless.

SLIP COVERS

A well made, properly styled slip cover has found its place in today's home, not just as a means of protecting upholstery but to add charm and individuality through the color and pattern of the slip cover fabric. Careful planning, good styling and the right kind of preparation is imperative in making slip covers. Before attempting to make one, be sure to carefully read and follow instructions on planning.

Fabric Selection

Select the best quality fabric your budget will stand. In so doing you are assured of good design, desirable colors which are fast to light and laundry, and of a fabric that will wear. Fabric which is firm in the hand closely woven of tightly twisted yarns will hold its shape, fit snugly and will wear and wash well.

Look for two labels: "Sanforized," and "Not more than 2% Shrinkage." Either of these labels printed on the selvage will assure you that shrinkage in the fabric is controlled. If the fabric is not so labeled, shrugging it before making the slip cover, "Vat Dyed" printed on the selvage tells you that the colors are resistant to fading from the sun, laundry and dry cleaning.

Many cotton materials now are treated to repel moisture and soil, and to shed wrinkles. Such treatment will increase the wear and the joy of using your slip covers. Information of this type can be found on labels attached to the fabrics.

Pattern on the Fabric

Striped, floral and textured patterns or plain materials may be used. It's good to have a combination in a room. When selecting the pattern for slip cover fabric your choice will depend on all other patterns in the room, including those of the walls, drapery, rugs and decorative objects. The entire room must be in harmony.

If the walls and rug are patterned, a better choice for the slip cover would be a plain fabric or a textured one. This sort of combination gives freedom from pattern in parts of the room, resulting in a more restful room. If the walls and rug are plain and there is no drapery, a floral pattern could be selected for one slip cover, possibly for the largest piece. This will bring a great deal of interest into the room and can be the guide for the choice of the other slip covers in the room. Variety in pattern, each having kinship with the other, is needed for interest. If the spirit of the room is simple, direct, quaint and informal, the slip cover fabric should express its kinship in informality. If the room is formal in its expression, handsome smooth finished fabrics are in harmony. Today's modern trend calls for textured fabrics, with its pattern showing up in "nubs", "slubs", "streaks", etc.

The same pattern may be repeated on two pieces in the room, but there is more interest if you don't repeat. There are exceptions, of course. The pattern in the drapery fabric may be repeated on one piece, particularly if it is to be placed across the room from the drape. Again, this may not be the most effective choice for you.

Fabrics with definite floral repeats must have the floral repeat centered in each of the piece. Attention must be given to patterns which have an up and down, and a left and right. The most interesting striped fabrics have a left and right. Stripes must be matched in all sections of the chair.

The scale of the pattern for a slip cover fabric must be in keeping with the scale of the room and scale of the piece on which it is to be used. Florals in small rooms are best on a chair, rather than on a divan. A large scaled pattern would be appropriate on a large piece of furniture in a large room where there are many plain areas. In the small room, small scaled patterns and soft colors help give an air of spaciousness.

Color in Fabrics

All colors in a room must have harmony with each other. One of the fabrics in a room, usually the one with a floral pattern, serves as a color guide and key. Other fabrics in the room can pick up and repeat the outstanding colors in this fabric. Contrasts in color will bring the same kind of results as contrasts in pattern. One piece might repeat a bright or rich coloring if the room is not too small.

Gray is most usually a good third color if the shade is keyed to other colors. A keyed shade of yellow is always a good third color.

Texture in Fabrics

Mix textures but avoid extremes.

Very rough textures are too bulky for small scaled pieces. On the other hand, very smooth, shiny textures lack the necessary bulk for large scaled pieces. The best choice for both pieces is in the range of the semi-smooth and the semi-rough textures. There is a wide range of textures from which to choose for the average scaled piece.

Cord for Trim

If cord is to be used in the making of a slip cover, cotton cable cord resists wear effectively. It is made up of four plies, each of which is made up of many smaller plies twisted together. Cable cord varies in size. Medium size, No. 60 or No. 70, is adaptable to most pieces. It should be shrunk before using.

The upholstery on pieces to be slip covered should be cleaned if it is soiled. Upholstery which has a pile surface should be covered with a muslin cover before it is slip covered. The pile surface causes the slip cover to work forward and out of place in use.

Pad wooden surfaces to be covered. The friction between wood and slip cover fabric causes wear.

For a free bulletin on making slip covers, write or call the Extension Office in Princess Anne, Virginia.

Dick Paul and his "Hollywood Do-It-Yourself" Promotion Kit

NORFOLK—Dick Paul, Promotion Director, WAVY-TV displays part of the contents of a special "Hollywood Do It Yourself Promotion Kit" presented to him by his staff prior to leaving on a seven-day junket to Hollywood and Las Vegas.

Among the items in the kit were: A special autograph book, for securing autographs of top NBC-TV stars; a flag, to be carried at all times proclaiming, "I'm for WAVY"; large sun glasses, for staring at Hollywood sights (or was it skirts?); small camera, to record interesting scenes on the trip; roll of stage money, to impress casino owners at Las Vegas; (with all winnings to be turned into mink coats for the staff members of the promotion department); and a package of Mexican Jumping Beans. Instructions with these stated, "Break seal on package, remove beans . . . and they'll do the rest."

Paul was one of five NBC-TV affiliate station PR men who were awarded the trip as winners in the 4th annual NBC-TV Promotion Managers' Contest, conducted by the network in support of its 1962 program schedule.

Claude King Strikes Gold On Pro Tour

TUCSON, Ariz. — Virginia Beach's Claude King, a member of this country's brigade of touring golf professionals for less than 6 months, crashed the money circle in the 72-hole Tucson Open Sunday with a 9-under-par 271 that was worth $490.

The former Virginia Beach High School football coach put together successive rounds of 68-67-66-70 to win his first prize money on the winter tour.

King's 271 total was eight strokes back of Phil Rodgers, the first place finisher. After three rounds King was only 4 strokes back of the leader.

The young Virginia Beach pro started out in good style on Sunday. He completed the first nine holes in 34, one under par, but experienced some bogey trouble on the inward journey for a 36 and a total of 70.

VIA Tourney Set For Virginia State

The Eastern District V.I.A. Tournament will be held at the Norfolk Division of Virginia State College Feb. 28 through March 3.

This year the Tournament will have defending V.I.A. Eastern District State Champions, I. C. Norcum Greyhounds, Coach Bob Smith will bring with him the leading scorer of the league "Hot Shot" Wagner who is averaging twenty points per game. Coach Smith says that he is expecting a repeat performance if he can get his boys to make those foul shots and keep their defense moving.

Other teams who will be at the Tournament are: Crestwood, Booker T., Carver of Warwick, and the host—Union-Kempsville.

Braithwaite Is Top Scorer For Norfolk Cagers

A Virginia Beach youngster has been the sparkplug of the Carrollton Oaks Academy basketball team this season as the Norfolk private school rolls along with a 5 and 4 record.

The sparkplug is young Bill Braithwaite, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. "Duck" Braithwaite. Bill sports a 21-pt. per-game average for Carrollton Oaks and has a single high game of 33 points.

Bill is a junior in the school that has an enrollment of about 200 students. He scored his record 33 points against Frank W. Cox school last month.

This is Braithwaite's second year at Carrollton Oaks and he is toying with the idea of attending Virginia Beach High School next year, a thought that brings a glow to Seahawk Coach Bob Coulthard.

Bill has long been recognized as one of the area's outstanding junior tennis players. He won the Virginia Beach Jaycee 18 and under tennis title in 1961.

Carrollton Oaks still has several basketball games remaining to be played. Local followers will be watching for the future exploits of Braithwaite.

LOCAL MAN TAKEN INTO NAT'L SOCIETY

The National Association of Sanitariums, with headquarters at the University of Denver, Denver, Colorado, announced recently that Arthur P. Brugman 618-22nd St., Virginia Beach, has been accepted as a member in this professional society.

The National Association of Sanitariums is an official organization of professional persons engaged in the promotion, realization, and maintenance of a fitting healthful environment for the people of the world. It is dedicated to the high principle that the citizens of this country, regardless of station, deserve as a natural right the best possible condition in which to live and pursue their happiness. The membership is concerned with such essential matters as pure air, safe water supplies, clean food, adequate housing, and a host of other environmental factors. In announcing the acceptance of Mr. Brugman into the Association, Lt. Col. V. Harry Adrounie, President, stated, "We are happy to welcome Mr. Brugman as a member. His interest and accomplishments will be material assets in the advancement of our purposes. His affiliation will provide another opportunity for him and for us to render increased services for the health and welfare of people. We compliment him and the agency he represents on this meaningful occasion."

Rotary's 57th Anniversary

Fifty-seven years ago, when the motorcar still brought cries of "Get a horse" and the airplane could fly for no more than a few minutes, a new kind of club for businessmen was born. It was the Rotary club and today, in countries around the world, the 57th anniversary of the founding of that club is being celebrated by more than 11,000 Rotary clubs that have descended from it.

It was in Chicago, on February 23, 1905, that a young lawyer, Paul P. Harris, Rotary's founder, gathered with three business associates and formed the nucleus of the organization which now numbers in its global ranks more than a half million business and professional men—doctors, lawyers, retailers, educators, and hundreds of other representatives of different vocations.

In Virginia Beach, the Rotary club has 78 members, each selected not only on the basis of his vocation, but also for his interest in serving this community, in raising its standards of business and professional practices, and in accepting his personal responsibilities for the betterment of human understanding as a means of insuring world peace.

With Rotarians everywhere dedicated to the attainment of these goals, Rotary is conveying its message of service to millions of people and is exerting a tremendous force for the good of all.

For their devotion to the ideal of being thoughtful and of help to others, we salute Rotarians of the world, and wish them still greater success in their program of service.

Modern Amphibious Force Marks 20th Birthday

Thirty-five centuries ago, an Egyptian king, faced with the problem of transporting his troops across a large body of water, conducted the first amphibious assault in recorded history. Since that early beginning, the pages of history show many successful invasions by sea; the Greeks attacking Troy, Hannibal's crossing to Spain, and in our own history, Ezekiel Hopkins, with a colonial squadron, storming and capturing New Providence in 1776.

Amphibious warfare was still in its infancy at the beginning of World War II. Almost all naval training was compressed into short annual landing exercises conducted by the Marines. Few landing craft, as such, were available and the designs were crude. Techniques had not been developed for the use of naval gunfire in close support of troops. Naval staffs had not been organized whose primary concern was assault landings. In March 1942, Admiral Brannard and a small staff of eight officers established the initial "Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force" and began to revolutionize modern warfare. New ships and new tactics had to be developed, but by 8 November 1942 the force launched its first major operation—the invasion of North Africa. During the war years that followed, several amphibious assaults of regimental size or larger were successfully carried out by the amphibious forces.

These assaults were largely responsible for our final defeat of the enemy. In the European Theatre, North Africa was followed by Sicily, Salerno, Anzio, Normandy and Southern France. Each beachhead contributed substantially to our progress against a determined foe. In the Pacific, the long list of operations from Guadalcanal through the Philippines and on down to Iwo Jima and Okinawa were significant steps to our final victory. The landing at Inchon and the evacuation of Hungnam in Korea, as well as our 1958 landing in Lebanon, are further indications of the necessity for, and value of, amphibious operations.

The Sun-News salutes the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force as it celebrates its 20th birthday this week.

FUNERALS

HARRISON SIMS PIPER
LYNNHAVEN — Funeral services for Harrison Sims Piper, 83, of 25 Haven Rd., Lynnhaven, were conducted Monday afternoon at Maestas Funeral Home with the Rev. Douglas Ebert, pastor of the Foundry Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Princess Anne Memorial Park.

Piper was a native of Newton County, Ga., and had been a resident of the county for the past 10 years. He was the son of the late Augustus and Mrs. Virgiline Sims Piper and the widower of Mrs. Shug Martin Piper. He died in the General Hospital of Virginia Beach Friday evening after a short illness.

Until his retirement, Piper was employed by the Norfolk Naval Shipyard. He was a member of the McKendree Methodist Church.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Maude P. Watson of Norfolk; one son, Rillious J. Piper of Lynnhaven; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Herman William Rieger
VIRGINIA BEACH — Private funeral services for Herman William Rieger, 75, of 421 Ludwick Lane, Lynnhaven, were held Wednesday at Maestas Funeral Home.

Rieger died Monday morning in a Portsmouth hospital after a long illness.

Until his retirement in 1951 he was an interior decorator in Catskill, N.Y. He was a native of Berlin, Germany and a son of Joseph and Mrs. Louise Namokel Rieger. His wife was the late Mrs. Anna Stolper Rieger.

Surviving are a son, Norman Rieger of Lynnhaven, with whom he lived the last six months; a brother, Charles Rieger of Catskill; and four grandchildren.

HOW TO BE A WIDOW—IT TAKES SOME DOING

"WOULD it be possible for you to tell me how to be a widow?"

"Nobody ever taught me. And suddenly I find myself a 61-year-old widow with no definitions and no rule book."

"It is much like being thrown into water without knowing how to swim, or having to drive a car without ever having tried."

"I have the strength not to panic. But I desperately need some guidelines as I come out of the worst of my grief."

It is peculiar that the educational system of our times does not teach the young how to be parents and does not teach the old how to manage when life's partner dies.

But so it is. And the gray-haired widows and widowers must turn to family, to neighbors, or to people like me to find out what they should do.

Here goes—
For any widow, the first consideration must be survival. This means, food, housing, medicine and clothing. Or, in brief, money. The widow, calling on what arithmetic she knows, must pull together the material resources her husband has left her. There will be some life insurance, some savings, a small bank account, maybe a pension credit from the husband's company, maybe a house.

A widow needs a minimum of $150 a month, but can get by with a few dollars less if she owns her house. It takes $45,000 invested at 4 per cent to get a monthly income of $150. If the board adds up to this, the widow should put it in a savings account at a bank, in an insured savings and loan association, or in high-grade securities recommended to her by a highly reputable investment house. If the board doesn't add up this high she should ask a life insurance company if it can give her, in an annuity, a minimum of $150 a month on what she has.

A job, or moving in with the children, or renting out rooms in the house are the alternatives.

The second consideration of the widow must be what she is going to do with her life. It goes on, maybe 20 years beyond the husband's death. She will find friends and neighbors can't do enough for her the first year of her bereavement. After that, she will find, many of them can. She must make a life by herself. The usual course is to volunteer for church, civic and charitable chores. It is seldom satisfying. Nor does it produce many new friends.

Whether she needs the money or not a widow will usually find that a commercial job with a weekly paycheck, or a small commercial business of her own, will give her more purpose in life and more satisfying friends than anything else she can do. And since the evenings are the drab part of her life, with her husband gone, she should seriously consider an evening job.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun-News:

Dear Sir:

I am writing this letter to take the opportunity to compliment you and your staff on a very fine local newspaper. I have just recently subscribed to it and was prompted to do so particularly by the excellent column written by Mrs. Ruby Jean Phillips regarding the activities of the Virginia Beach Boy Scout Troop No. 378.

It must be admitted that I have more than average interest in it since my son happens to be in the Troop and since I am on the Troop Committee. It was, however, a superb job of writing and I have heard more favorable comments from parents and members of the Methodist Church regarding this column than I have about any other news article.

Please keep up the good work. I think that all of Mrs. Phillips' columns have been excellent and your general news coverage of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County is most comprehensive. You can count on me as a regular subscriber from now on.

Yours very truly,
Louis E. Hubbard

Editor, Sun-News:

Dear Sir,

Out of bedlam and confusion of a "Merge or not to merge" comes the wedding of a new city. The feverish activity of Princess Anne County forced out of farm country type government into the shape of a city by accelerated housing developments plus sleepy-time Virginia Beach with its potential of being the nucleus of a business center is certainly going to cause internal turmoil.

There are many things that are needed, services, utilities, roads, etc. Some may take weeks, some months, many of these will take years. Gone will be the "I'll do it tomorrow" attitude among local public officials for "tomorrow" the load will be doubled.

The glow of a new city and the pride of being a part of this marriage will soon be over and the tedious job of envisioning, planning, and executing will take place.

One of the major requirements of the new city is access roads from the new Bridge Tunnel to the road arteries of North Carolina. Under the new merger the Bridge Tunnel will be part of the City of Virginia Beach. The pride of ownership of the vast undertaking will be short-lived if all the traffic will spill out of a corner of this city into other localities. What could serve Virginia Beach better than to revive the long needed road through the resort area into the shore line of Virginia and North Carolina at points South.

Taxwise and tourist wise this will increase the tourist trade, lessen the people's tax load and provide a scenic route for tourists unsurpassed in its broad vista of scenic beauty. As is well known, another "must" of

Rotary—Serving Communities and Nations on Six Continents

Now in its 57th year, Rotary International, world-wide service organization, is comprised of more than 11,000 Rotary clubs with a total membership of 511,000 Rotarians. The map shows the 124 countries and geographical regions where Rotary exists. With clubs on islands as small as Macao and across continents as large as Asia, in nations as new as Ghana and as old as Japan—Rotary encircles the world. Organized in Chicago on February 23, 1905, by Paul P. Harris, a lawyer, Rotary widens the opportunity of its members to be thoughtful and of help to others. Its motto is "Service Above Self—He Profits Most Who Serves Best." The president of Rotary International is Joseph A. Abey, a newspaper executive of Reading, Pa. The general secretary is George R. Means, of Evanston, Ill., site of the organization's world headquarters.

Accounting Firm Opens Local Office

Frederick B. Hill and Company, well known Tidewater accounting firm, has opened an office in Virginia Beach at 2902 Arctic avenue, it has been announced by a spokesman for the company.

Roland Dean Lee, a resident partner in the firm, will be located in the new Virginia Beach office. The firm announced the official opening of the office on Tuesday.

HOLLAND IS HAM OPERATORS PRESIDENT

VIRGINIA BEACH — At the bi-weekly meeting of the Virginia Beach Amateur Radio Club was held Thursday, Feb. 15, 1962 and new officers were elected.

The new officers are as follows: President, M. T. Holland; secretary, Bill Holland; communications officer, Steve Haynes and Code Instruction Officer, J. Clyde Bell.

Ministers Will Meet On Monday

PRINCESS ANNE — Ten Princess Anne County ministers and the general public have been invited to a fellowship and planning meeting at Oak Grove Baptist Church, Monday at 10 a.m.

Plans will be made for a "Seven-Last-Weeks" service for Good Friday; a schedule of regular Lenten services; a cooperative Easter Sunrise Service in "Lower Princess Anne County;" and other ministerial and fellowship endeavors.

Notices of the meeting, signed by the Rev. Leroy Davis of Tabernacle Methodist Church, were sent to Bethel-Beech Grove Methodist Churches; Blackwater Baptist Church, Free Will Baptist Church, Kala Church of Christ, Knotts Island Methodist Church, Pungo Pentecostal Holiness Church, Salem - Nimmo Methodist Churches and Saint John's Baptist Church.

The new city is an independent water system so that Norfolk's "water bomb" can be defused.

Many more items will come up that will take initiative private "nerve" judicial leadership, and patience. The years ahead will tell the story and our children will enjoy the benefits, but what better heritage can we leave behind. It is the American Way—to improve for our children so that they may top our improvements making for a better and more progressive America.

Rotary Observes

ing, Rotary has grown at the rate of one new club every 45 hours. It also means that somewhere in the world, everyday of every week, men gather for a Rotary club meeting.

The Rotary Club of Virginia Beach meets every Thursday at 7 p.m. at The Black Angus Restaurant. Its meetings, like those of all Rotary clubs everywhere, are important to the success of the club's entire program of service, and thus attendance is expected of all members.

A distinctive aspect of the 11,000-plus weekly Rotary meetings held around the globe is the many languages spoken at these gatherings. They include Arabic, Afrikaans, Portuguese, Welsh, Gaelic, Hebrew, Tamil, Korean, Tagalog, Icelandic, and many others. At Rotary meetings in continental Europe alone nearly 20 different languages are heard.

But diversity of tongues in no way hinders the efforts of Rotarians to further world understanding through personal contacts at international Rotary gatherings and through inter-country exchanges of correspondence, programs, publications, and of students who cross boundary lines to live and study in another nation under various plans of Rotary clubs. Each year more than 10,000 students participate in these Rotary exchanges.

Under the leadership of Joseph A. Abey, of Reading, Pa., president of Rotary International for 1961-62, Rotary clubs have intensified their efforts to "aim for action" in response to the president's challenge. In Va. Beach, the Rotary club responded by joining with the Norfolk Rotary Club in equipping a new hospital in a destitute area of Haiti. This project was undertaken in 1961, and the special assignment for the Virginia Beach Club, is the furnishing of two-way radio equipment for communication to this isolated area.

Club Re-Opens Here With New Look For 1962

VIRGINIA BEACH—Mayor Frank A. Dusch cut the ribbon on the completely new Cape Colony Club Friday night before a capacity crowd of members and their guests.

About 250 persons attended the gala opening and over 225 enjoyed the facilities Saturday night.

Music for dancing was furnished by the Newton Thomas Trio.

The entrance foyer carries out a black and white motif with a striped wall, black reception desk and white butterfly slant chairs.

A scalloped canopy covers the front desk and new plants and wall plaques decorate the lobby. Bright blue, green and white plaid drapes dominate the "wreck" room and one wall is ornate with a large simulated window panel of white and black with drapes at either side.

A lovely pirate scene wall mural, painted by Marjorie Behl, dominates the bar which may soon be officially named the Jolly Roger Room. Carrying out the same theme, a large cannon wall plaque decorates one panel. Cheerful pink and brown plaid drapes are used in the bar.

The same pink and brown colors are used in the main dining room drapes and in the bandstand canopy. The chairs feature gold skirted slipcovers and the ceiling appears covered with styrofoam beams. One dining room wall is covered with Turkish street scene wallpaper. A new gold and black tweed carpet is used throughout the entire club except on the improved dance floor.

On hand to welcome guests Friday night were Jim Sadler, club president, C. A. (Chris) Brown, club manager, and C. Aubrey Taylor, promotional director.

Plans are now underway for a Las Vegas Part to be held March 16. Angie Alexander will direct a floor show of home talent.

Seahawk TID-BITS

By DARLA SUE DESKINS

The American Trucking Association sponsored a return performance of Lt. Pike — the state patrolman with safety and laughter on his mind. Lt. Pike appeared at V.B. 3 years ago, then as now on a nationwide tour to talk safety to the young people of America. He is a former magician and vaudeville entertainer, and with safety as his theme, the students were entertained as well as informed.

Finally, after much campaigning, the attendants to the Surf Queen were announced. Congratulations to:
8th Grade—Mary Jo Kellam, Carolyn Todd.
9th Grade—Mary Rawls, Janis Chesire.
10th Grade—Betsy Kitchen, Pat Parnell.
11th Grade—Bonnie Berry, Jan Gustafson.

Members of the Beachcomber attended the Tidewater Scholastic Press Association's meeting at the Golden Triangle Saturday. Six columnists from over the state of Virginia spoke to the group on "How to Get Humor Into Your Paper". R. K. T. Larson, a local newspaperman, organized the 2 1/2-hour meeting of the representatives and sponsors from Tidewater school newspapers. Va. Beach had in attendance Hazel Tucker, Judy Berns, Cheryl Struggs, and Gary Williamson. Mr. C. Rountree, adviser, said: "I think I learned more than any of you." The staff is fortunate to have a man, as their sponsor, who is really interested in their work.

The standings for the class of '62 have been announced. Congratulations to Cheryl Struggs, valedictorian, and to Jerry Medas, salutatorian. Cheryl's average for the past four years was 94.333, while Jerry had a low 94.130. It is small wonder that they were elected Senior Superlatives under the category of Most Studious. Here's wishing their future is as bright as their past.

"They're her, look at mine, wow!" Yes, they finally have arrived and the class of '63 certainly is pleased. Much hand waving, and punctuation of sentences with the hands has resulted. This is the way to show off your new class ring, one of the many that arrived Monday. Of course if you're not sure, you just say, "Hey did ya see my ring?" But then that is not as exciting as watching someone walk into a wall. You can't see with a hand in front of your face!

Frederick College gymnasium is the site of the District I, Group Two basketball tournament. The mighty Seahawks are hot and hungry for the championship. Circle February 21-24 as the dates to remember, the dates the 'Hawks took the championship.

Darla's Darlin's: A little bit of knowledge causes a lot of confusion.

The home of the Commandant of the Marine Corps, located at the Marine Barracks in Washington, D.C., is probably the oldest public building in continuous use in the Nation's Capital.

FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS

How Do You Know It Is Real?

By C. D. Smith

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am seventeen. I have been going with a boy for almost two years. I have heard that he has been going with other girls after we started going together (I guess three months afterwards). I can't make myself believe it. I won't believe it until I see it myself. He pretends that he really loves me and cares for me. I don't know whether this is true or not. What should I do? Should I go with other boys secretly, or should I overlook it and forget it? I don't care what he does. I still love him. He must be testing me to see how strong my love is for him. I really do like his mother and father. I have thought in my dreams that he is the one I want to marry. What should I do? How can you tell you are in love, or know that you are?"

OUR REPLY: You are right to not believe what others tell you. Find out for yourself. Don't overlook things if you are supposed to be going steady—and you are not dating anyone else. We don't say this is true, but some boys have a "steady" and they expect her to not date other boys—while they still feel free to date other girls. Don't date other boys secretly. Be open and honest. If you think he is dating other girls, tell him that you intend to have other dates, too. He will respect you for being honest. Most likely he is not "testing" your love—although he may be testing his own for you. Which ever is true, if you are engaged, or if you are "no-other-date" steady, then you should find out for yourself if he is dating other girls. You should also do away with the idea that you "don't care what he does." You do care, if you love him. You must. But, for the sake of your future happiness, don't allow yourself to believe that you love him so much that you could overlook any serious faults, that you would tolerate anything so long as he pretended to love you. If he loves you, he will not "pretend." He will show you by what he does, much more than by what he says.

Heart Research Has New Fund

The American Heart Assn. announced recently the establishment of the "Dwight D. Eisenhower Research Fund of the Heart Association." In a comment on the establishment of the new fund, General Eisenhower said: "I am anxious that the voluntary health agency active in the heart disease field should receive a maximum of support for carrying forward its efforts in seeking a solution to this great problem."

Dr. J. Scott Butterworth, President of the American Heart Assn., said it is hoped that the creation of the fund named for the former President will stimulate additional and much needed gifts to heart research. The Heart Association also supports programs of community service, professional and public education, with public contributions to the annual appeal conducted through February.

General Eisenhower became Honorary Chairman of the American Heart Association's Board of Directors a few months after leaving the White House. Long a supporter of the Heart Fund, he has on several occasions commended the work of the Association and urged Americans to join him in the crusade against heart and circulatory diseases.

Postal Service Improvement Seen With Reorganization

WASHINGTON—Further major improvements in postal services and operations throughout the states of Virginia, West Va., Maryland and District of Columbia are expected to result from a new reorganization of the Washington Region of the Post Office Department, Fergus McRee, Regional Director, announced recently.

Mr. McRee, Director of the Region, said he has been advised in Washington, D.C., by Postmaster General J. Edward Day that the reorganization—a result of extensive studies and development by Deputy Postmaster General H. W. Brawley and his staff—has just been placed in operation officially all over the nation, including this Region, with its 2,927 Post Offices, including such major offices as Washington, D.C., Richmond, Va., Arlington, Va., Norfolk, Va., Alexandria, Va., Portsmouth, Va., Roanoke, Va., Charleston, West Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Parkersburg, West Va., Huntington, West Va., Baltimore, Md., Rockville, Md., and Silver Spring, Md.

Emphasizing the significance of the reorganization—one of the most important in the history of the Postal Service—extensive conferences on all phases of the new organization led by Deputy Postmaster General Brawley, will be held, the Postmaster General noted. Many other areas of service improvement will also be covered by the top regional officials and postmasters from all over the nation.

The Washington Region has a total of 31,186 employees including the regional staff of 305, with a total of 10 field services officers constantly traveling to help improve services and operations.

Highlights of the reorganization affecting this region and others nationally are:

1. Postal Services Officers in the field will function as a coordinated staff under the direction of a principal Postal Service Officer where authorized.

2. A new position of Special Assistant to the Director for Employee Relations is also set up to make the new "open door" policies for improved employee relations more effective.

3. The existing office of Assistant to the Regional Director is given more responsibility for field service public information work in helping to provide more direct assistance in such areas as promoting the Christmas mail early program, in promoting use of postal zone numbers, etc.

Although the main body of the reorganization has now been placed in official operation, some phases of it have already been in operation. In this Region, for example, the following has already taken place: F. Alvin Webb appointed Deputy Regional Director, and William G. Milstead, Special Assistant for Employee Relations. Mr. Webb, Deputy Regional Director, will assist the Director in better coordination of postal operations throughout the Washington Region. Mr. Milstead will serve as Special Assistant to the Regional Director for Employee Relations. Greatly improved Management-Employee relations will result in giving special emphasis in this field of endeavor.

Commenting on the reorganization, Mr. McRee said: "This is one of the most significant steps forward ever taken for improvement of postal services in Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. This will provide a closer work relationship between regional headquarters and all of the 2,927 Post Offices in these states, which will mean faster service to local postmasters in meeting local needs and quicker responsiveness to any changes and mail service improvements as they are ordered in Washington.

Each school gave a progress report which reflected close relationship with the P-TA groups of their respective schools. W. T. Cooke School S.C.A. presented the program and served refreshments.

Christian Union Meeting Set For Naval Air Base

NORFOLK—Lcdr. John Tinkham, Norfolk representative for the Officer's Christian Union, has announced the scheduling of the 1962 O.C.U. Area Conference at the Norfolk Naval Air Station during the weekend of February 24-25.

Dr. W. Robert Smith, known internationally for his work with the Union, will be the principal speaker. He will be accompanied by the national General Secretary of the O.C.U., Capt. Cleo Buxton (USA, Ret.).

The conference commences with registration at 9:30 a.m. Saturday morning, Feb. 24th in building SP-136, NAS Norfolk. A nursery will be provided.

The O.C.U. is basically a non-denominational organization of Christian officers of the United States Armed Forces whose object is to exalt the Lord Jesus Christ in the Armed Forces, to promote Christian fellowship among all born again members of the Armed Forces, and to lead in positive action and witnessing for Jesus Christ in the Armed Forces.

An open invitation is extended.

SCA COUNCIL HAS SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Elementary students of Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach held their second Student Cooperative Association Council meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 7, at W. T. Cooke School with Stephen Stubbs, president presiding. Merle Preston, president of the host organization, welcomed the group.

Each school gave a progress report which reflected close relationship with the P-TA groups of their respective schools. W. T. Cooke School S.C.A. presented the program and served refreshments.

EDUCATION HAS TOP PRIORITY IN WORLD OF GRANT SMITH

(This is one of a series of articles to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

THOROUGHGOOD—The world of Grant J. Smith, principal of Thoroughgood Elementary School, revolves around two settings: the field of education and the field of historical research.

Both play a big part in his busy life but education is by far the most important. A genealogist trained in research, Smith has left his chosen profession of teaching on several occasions only to be drawn back to it.

"I enjoy working with children. I wouldn't do anything else. The greatest reward in this profession comes when you see the light in a child's eyes. I don't mean to get on my soapbox about it, but this is truly the way I feel."

It was inevitable that Smith entered the education field; he comes from a long line of teachers and educators in a very old German family from Frederick County in Northern Virginia.

The family not only passed on the teaching profession to him but also a deep interest in the family's history. Many, many hours of tedious research, which he thoroughly enjoys, have been compiled into a published book written by he and some cousins. He has another family history nearing publication, yet another one in the making and has completed his own autobiography.

"There is so much to be done and so little time to do it. My school duties take precedent over everything else, of course, so if anything is neglected for this historical research, it's my sleep," he said.

Smith served as a teacher of higher elementary grades for many years before accepting the principalship and feels that the teaching background has been of great benefit in his new position. Teaching is still his first love and much of his time is spent in the classrooms with the youngsters.

No Bus, Just Mules
A graduate of Harding College in Arkansas, Smith spent his first years as a teacher in a small school in the backwoods of that state. He well remembers the youngsters who rode mules to school and didn't know what it meant to wear shoes.

"My school today is such a complete contrast to that of the early years. Princess Anne County subscribes to the finest for all children and gives them the opportunity to explore and experiment along with the regular textbook studies."

GRANT J. SMITH

Smith first came to this area in 1953 as a 7th grade teacher at Virginia Beach High School. He later accepted a teaching position in Maryland but returned to the county school system as the seventh grade teacher at Lankhorn Park School. He then served as assistant principal at Little Creek School and the year the school was annexed by Norfolk he became principal. He has been principal of Thoroughgood for three years.

Smith, who lives with his father in Accorde, is working on his master's degree in history, another project wedged into his busy schedule. But he feels that teachers should do everything possible to improve themselves and their teaching methods.

"Each child is the future. He will make the world of tomorrow. It is up to us to give him the most we can in a school day."

EDWIN C. JONES III
JACKSONVILLE Fla. — Marine Pvt. Edwin C. Jones III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Jones Jr. of 216 Rudee Blvd., Virginia Beach, was graduated, Feb. 2, from the Aviation Electrician's Mate School at the Naval Air Technical Training Unit, Jacksonville, Fla.

"Twist" To Be Feature Of Creeds Ruritan Minstrel Show

CREEDS—Besides the usual version of the dance to their teenage sons and daughters. There seems to be considerable disagreement.

For variety, the second part of the minstrel will take on a Broadway theme. It will feature songs and dances from "Came to Town," "South Pacific," "Porgy and Bess" and a number of other Broadway hit shows.

The show will be presented March 2nd at the Creeds Elementary School and on March 3rd at the Princess Anne Courthouse Elementary School. Curtain time for both performances will be 8:00 P.M. Tickets are available from any Creeds Ruritan Member or at the door for $1.00 donation.

Local Citizens On Radio Series For Heart Fund

VIRGINIA BEACH—A number of well-known citizens from Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County will become radio announcers Saturday (Feb. 24) on WBOF Radio when they take over the disc jockey duties for the Heart Fund.

William A. Rhyme, general manager of the station, said each of these citizens will do their own radio program between noon and 5:00 p.m.

"They will play the records, talk about the causes of heart disease and give the weather reports," said Rhyme, "and will interview such singers as Tony Bennett, Bobby Darin and Rosemary Clooney."

The afternoon program, WBOF Heart Circuit, is being scheduled by the station as a community public service effort during February, the month set aside each year for the Heart Fund.

The schedule will be: Mayor Frank Dusch, 12:05 to 12:30; Rhak Adams, 12:35 to 1:00; George Vakos, 1:05 to 1:30; Dr. Alvin Jarrett, 1:35 to 2:00; Frank Malbon, 2:05 to 2:30; Howard Kahn, 2:35 to 3:00; Angie Alexander, 3:05 to 3:30; Larry Sancio, 3:35 to 4:00; Sidney S. Kellam, 4:05 to 4:30; and Fred Isaacs, 4:35 to 5:00.

D. E. Clubbers Attending Meet

PRINCESS ANNE—The students of the Distributive Education Club at Princess Anne High School will attend a district convention at Newport News High School on February 27, 1962. Clubs from Norview, Granby, Maury, Hampton, Newport News and Warwick also will participate in the convention activities.

At the convention there will be a series of contests pertaining to the information learned in the classroom and on the job. The contestants and the contests which the Princess Anne D.E. club members will participate in are as follows:

1. Merchandise Presentation—Sandra Irish.
2. Window Display Judging—Sandra Allred, Sandra Jernigan and James Davis.
3. Ad Layout and Copywriting—Sandra Hanson.
4. Job Interview—Shirley Grimstead.
5. Professional Selling—Carolyn Davidson.
6. Sales Demonstration Judging—Sheryl Grant, Earnest Marrow and Billy Gentry.
7. D. E. Student of the Year—Sandra Irish.
8. Officer Candidate Run-Offs—Billy Gentry, President; and Barbara Maloney, secretary.

Winners of the District Contests will represent the various clubs in the state-wide contests which will be held at Roanoke in March.

After the contest are concluded a dinner will be served and the presentation of awards will take place. Sponsors of the D.E. Club are: Miss Sue C. Laster, George L. Coffey and Carroll B. Coakley.

W. J. WATSON RECEIVES TEACHER'S DIPLOMAS

KEMPSVILLE — William J. Watson, son of Mrs. Anna Lively of Virginia Beach, has received a teachers college professional diploma in secondary school administration.

He received the diploma from Columbia University. Watson is presently serving as chairman of the social studies department at Union Kempsville High School.

He received a master of arts degree in social studies from Columbia and a bachelor of arts from Virginia State College.

HAKIM FEATURED IN LEAD ROLE OF NEW LITTLE THEATER PLAY

By SUZANNE WHITEHURST

VIRGINIA BEACH—Sam Hakim, well-known Virginia Beach grain export merchandiser, will currently be playing one of the leads in "The Heiress," a Virginia Beach Little Theatre production opening February 27th and 28th at 8:30 in the Virginia Beach High School auditorium.

Sam plays the part of Morris, a suave, young man with no means of support, who pursues a plain, spinster heiress played by Penny Martin. Her cold, indifferent father is masterfully introduced by Norrie Martin. For a glimpse of the man behind Morris, a taped interview was made backstage after rehearsals.

Sam, since you are playing the lead in "The Heiress," tell us about the character of Morris.

"I think that Morris is very much up to how the audience wants to interpret him rather than the actor. I try to create a little suspense as to whether Morris is just a down right heel or whether he changes his character for the better in the end."

As an actor, you feel that it is your duty to lead the audience?

"I think, in order to play the thing correctly you have to hope that the audience is just a little bit in doubt before the final scene."

Sam, is the role different from the parts you usually play and is it more difficult?

"In the past I have played many character parts. I am fond of dialects and find that they are fairly easy to do in that you don't have to control your hands or movements too much. A straight role, being more subtle, is much more difficult to do."

How do you go about getting into a part and developing it? "Frankly, I don't know of any tricks except hard work."

How do you go about feeling like Morris rather than perhaps a French character part?

"I read everything that the other characters say about Morris in the play and either agree with them or draw my own interpretation from that."

By the way, I know that actors usually have tricks that they use to combat stage fright. Do you have stage fright and what do you do?

Gets Nervous
"I definitely have it and I think that the day I am too relaxed, I'll be worried for I think it takes away from your sharpness. I try not to think about the play the day before until I arrive at the theatre and then I want to think very much about it. If I'm a little nervous before I go on, that's fine."

Do you go in for Method Acting?

"From what I know of the Method, my answer would be no. I try to be natural rather than to act natural."

Are you a quick study?

"Not particularly. I would describe myself as a bleeder."

How did you first become interested in acting?

"When I first came to this country back in 1941, I could only speak French so this was a way of overcoming social shyness and it helped. My first experience was in high school dramatic club plays and later I did French language plays in college. I did a small amount of summer stock, some musical reviews aboard ships going to Europe, where I had the pleasure of meeting my wife and also community playhouse work in Omaha, Neb., before coming here."

This religious order was founded in the United States by the Reverend Louis Florent Gillet. Its motherhouse is in West Chester, Pa. The Sisters Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary were founded in 1861.

The Sisters Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary have taught at Star of the Sea School for four years. Mother Marie Gerald is superior of the school. Other sisters teaching there are Sister Loreta Joseph, Sister Norborn Dolores, Sister Miriam Barbara, Sister Miriam Patricia and Sister St. Alice.

Winners in the Catholic Press Month Poster Contest were also awarded prizes and certificates. Group I winners (Grades 4 & 5) were: Laura Burkhardt, first; Linda Bridgford, second; Theresa Napolitano, 3rd. Honorable mention to Michele Kovach, Kevin Mulligan and Anne Diehl.

Group II winners (Grades 6 & 7) were: Maureen Nearman, 1st; Kathleen Griffin, 2nd; Catherine Beatty, 3rd. Honorable mention to Margo Witt, Lynda Taber, and Thomas Murphy. Group III (Grade 8) winners were Robert Gregory, 1st; Deborah Hall, 2nd; and Barbara Tall, 3rd. Honorable mention to Patricia Berger and Philippe Beauchesne.

Over 100 posters were submitted in the contest. The next meeting of the Beach Council will be at 8:00 p.m. on Feb. 21.

Virginia Beach Booster Is Tidewater's "S-O-W"

OCEANA—An Oceana Navyman with almost twenty years service, who plans to make Virginia Beach his home upon retirement, recently was selected as the Tidewater Area's most outstanding "Sailor of the Week".

He is George W. Schimmel.

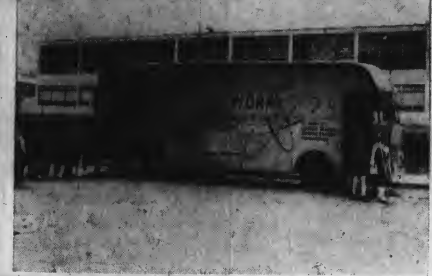

Schimmel was selected to the post of honor for his outstanding record of military service as senior petty officer. He sports four golden hash marks, each donating 4 years of above average service. He also rates six good conduct awards, and each of them represent 3 years of excellent conduct.

The future Virginia Beach citizen entered the Navy in Dec. 1942, and since that time has made an around the world cruise and crossed the equator five times.

He has visited many foreign ports during his naval career and selected Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and Capetown, South Africa, as his favorite foreign ports, and says that the people in these ports sincerely try to make a person feel at home in their countries.

At present Schimmel resides at 203 Saturn St., Lynnhaven, with his wife Julia and their two children.

Acquisition of the site of historic Marine Barracks in Washington D.C., became a problem back in 1801 when it was discovered the cost would run at a staggering four cents a square foot.

The visitors shown above are viewing the Power Reactor display in the interior of the free "Atoms at Work" exhibit which is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. It will appear in Virginia Beach at Va. Beach High School and the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center on Monday, February 26, 1962. The exhibit is concerned with the peaceful applications of atomic energy, and displays exhibits on the uses of radioisotopes in: (1) Medicine, (2) Agriculture, and (3) Industry; and a special panel on the fusion process.

Melvin Hoaker Jr. Advances
Melvin Mayo Hoaker, Jr., son of Mrs. Mattie Hoaker Staples was recently advanced from vice president to president of Aycock Dormitory, Melvin, a graduate of Augusta Military Academy and a freshman at East Carolina College, Greenville, N.C., is majoring in business.

Mr. Hoaker is also a member of the Student Government Association and the Men's Judiciary. During the summer of 1960 he bicycled from Virginia Beach to Los Angeles, California.

Atom Exhibit Coming Here

Mr. J. Fletcher Bryant Jr., announced yesterday that the "Town and Atom" presentation of the United States Atomic Energy Commission's mobile exhibit is scheduled to arrive in Virginia Beach on Monday, Feb. 26, and will be open to the public from 9:30 to 3:00 at the Virginia Beach High School and from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center. There is no admission charge. The public is invited.

Mr. Bryant is chairman of the "Atom for Peace" committee of the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the exhibit in cooperation with the National University Extension Assn. and the United States Jr. Chamber of Commerce.

The exhibit covers topics of interest for all, including peaceful uses of atomic energy in raw materials, release of nuclear energy, power reactors, radioisotopes, radioisotopes in agricultural industry, and medicine, and health and safety.

There will be a college-trained exhibit guide to explain the exhibit and answer questions concerning the exhibit. High Lighting the exhibit is information concerning the first atomic-powered freighter the U. S. S. Savannah, which was built in Newport News, Va., and as just recently completed a world-wide good will tour to show the importance of peaceful uses of atomic power.

Home Society Has Busy Year

The Children's Home Society of Virginia placed 148 babies in adoptive homes last year, the largest number it has ever placed in a year. J. W. Staurt Gilchrist, general secretary, said in the society's annual report just issued.

There were 434 babies in the care of the society last year. Of these eight were from Norfolk City and Norfolk County and 3 others were in adoptive homes in the area. There were also 4 babies in adoptive homes in Princess Anne County. Contributions from Norfolk and Princess Anne County in the very successful campaigns last fall helped the society assist these babies.

Gilchrist pointed out that the society is now able to place most of its babies in homes within six months after the adoptive parents have filed their application. In previous years it has usually taken longer.

He reported also that the society is placing babies in adoptive homes at earlier ages — and this makes it possible to care for more babies.

The large number of babies in need of homes results in the need for continuing growth and expansion of the society to care for them, Gilchrist said, and the society also will need more adoptive families.

He reported that the society received in to care 154 babies last year, as compared with 151 the previous year, and it placed seven more in adoptive homes than in 1960.

"We deeply appreciate every contribution we have received," Gilchrist said, "because it has helped us take care of more babies. We hope that gifts will be even more generous this year."

The answer is simple: Tests conducted by Jennings Furlough and Everett Sawyer have pointed out that the highest net profit was received from wheat fertilized in the fall at planting time, and then topdressed with forty to fifty pounds of nitrogen in the spring. In tests conducted on large acreage scale, wheat fertilized at planting time with 3-18-18 and topdressed in the spring with forty to fifty pounds of pure nitrogen returned $63.67 above fertilizer cost.

If 5-10-10 was used at seeding time, and topdressed with enough nitrogen to bring the total nitrogen used up to 50 lbs. per acre, the average net profit dropped to $61.08.

When no fertilizer was used in the fall at planting time, but was topdressed with 50 lbs. of nitrogen in the Spring, the average net profit above fertilizer cost was $59.97.

On the two tests for the two years when no fertilizer was used at seeding time and topdressing was done with an average of 500 lbs. of 10-10-10, average net profit returned above fertilizer cost was $52.98. A fifth demonstration plot was very astonishing, and in this demonstration we applied 500 lbs. of 10-10-10 at seeding time and no topdressing was used, and this method returned $52.21 above the cost of fertilizer.

Boys, the net profit is what you buy those fur coats with, and I suggest that you look at these figures pretty carefully when determining the kind of fertilizer you are going to use on your small grain this year, because the net profit is what really counts. This is important.

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

when were you wired?

That's an important question. Because, since 1950, the typical American family has doubled its need for electricity. Outdated wiring just can't distribute enough power to keep all the new electric living aids working their best. So lights blink, appliances need repairs, fuses blow. Learn how little it costs to bring your home up to date.

Look in the Yellow Pages, or ask VEPCO for an Authorized Housepower Contractor near you. He'll check your wiring and give you an estimate on Housepower. It's your power to live better now... with power in reserve for new electrical wonders coming your way.

Let's go to Church Sunday

Virginia Beach SUN-NEWS
Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1962
Page 4-B

By the Rev. J. Elmer Medley
Prince of Peace
Lutheran Church
(Missouri Synod)

"Our God, our hope for years to come." How often have you sung, recited, or read these words from the hymnist? They express the hope of Christians down through the ages. God, Who in many ways made known His presence and help to men of the past, the same God, is with you today. He offers many wonderful and much needed gifts to you.

God wants you to look to Him for help. Today may hold suffering and pain; tomorrow may bring problems never faced by man, and yet our God remains "our hope for years to come." I have no way of knowing what your past may have been. Perhaps you consider yourself lucky—no particular problems or crisis. Perhaps you weren't so lucky—God may have permitted many difficulties to come to you. But this fact remains sure. God will permit no trial to come to you which is greater than your faith in Him can bear. At the time, your life may seem like the world situation, with seemingly no logical solution, but standing at your side is a Saviour Who will abide with you.

It is true, sin has had its effect on the world, on you. It has also had its effect on God. Because of His great love for you, and all men, He sent His only begotten Son into the world to die, in order that sin might be conquered. Sin still has its effect on the world, but it need have no effect on you, because Christ has overcome sin for you. Now you, by His redeeming strength, can face life with the assurance that God is with you, that God will help you. Therefore take God at His Word; believe what He tells you in the Scripture. And then live your life as one who has the sure foundation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The MIXING BOWL ... IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Try A French Cherry Pie

Here's good news for those who like French food! Now you can make a cherry pie in the French manner with an instant pudding mix—using the vanilla flavor. Yes! It's as simple as that and oh so good!

This tempting sweet is indeed a treat—for those who taste and those who prepare it. The creamy base is Instant Fudging Mix, made according to package directions with sour cream substituted for part of the milk to make the smoothest of fillings. The almond extract gives an added new flavor that is especially delicious with the cherry topping. You're sure to want this recipe.

French Cherry Pie

1 cup cold milk
1 cup sour cream
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
1 package vanilla instant pudding mix

1 baked 9-inch pie shell*
2 1/2 cups (22-ounce can) cherry pie filling

*Or use 6 baked tart shells.

Combine milk, sour cream, and extract in a mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and beat slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Pour at once into pie shell or divide among tart shells. Let stand 15 minutes to set. Top with cherry pie filling.

For a George Washington celebration, another cherry pie recipe.

2 cups (No. 2 1/2 can) pitted sour cherries
3/4 cup sugar
4 tablespoons flour or 2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
Dash of salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
Few drops of red coloring to give pie bright color

Pastry of double crust
Drain cherries, reserve 1/2 cup of juice. Combine sugar and flour or cornstarch mix with juice and dash of salt; cook until thickened, add food coloring and butter.

Pour syrup over the cherries that have been placed in an 8-inch pastry lined pie pan. Attach the top crust, make vents or use lattice top crust. Bake in 400° oven for 45 minutes to 1 hour. Serve with vanilla Ice Cream.

Washington Pie
Bake one of your favorite yellow cake recipes or use a package mix—in 2-8 or 9 with layers.

Split layers when cooked and spread with Raspberry Jam. Sprinkle top with confectioners' sugar. To make a fancy top, lay

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

Tomorrow, George Washington is 230 years old; so, from the halls of Princess Anne High School—"Happy Washington's Day, a little early."

As a native Virginian, Washington is well-known for his contributions to the birth of the United States; however, as much as Washington's childhood is publicized, little has been mentioned about his "teen-dom".

Recently, while glancing through a history book, some rules were found which could certainly be heeded in this modern day society that George Washington had copied on "Points on Civility" when he was 15 years old.

Some of his points were (1) "Play not the peacock, looking everywhere about you, to see if you will be deck'd, if your shoes fit well, if your stockings sit neatly, and clothes handsomely"; (2) "Gaze not the marks of blemishes of others and ask not how they came"; and "what you may speak in secret to your friend deliver not before others".

Who is "Miss Princess Anne" of 1962? Miss Linda Howell, a beautiful sophomore with "eyes like Elizabeth Taylor", was crowned February 10 by Miss Susan Tobitts, Miss PA of '61, in all the regal glory befitting a queen.

Residing in her court were Miss Jane Harrison, first runner-up; Miss Sandy Oliver, second runner-up; Miss Claudia Frias, third runner-up; and Miss Kathy Brown, fourth runner-up.

In the three years that the "Miss Princess Anne Contest" has been presented, this year was the first year a sophomore has been awarded the coveted title.

The proceeds of the "Miss Princess Anne Contest" went toward the Keyette Scholarship. It is estimated that approximately $300 will be awarded to the outstanding senior Keyette toward her college education.

More heads than one were crowned at Princess Anne High, as Elaine Thornton, president of Coronet Tri-Hi-Y, crowned Riley Gazzaway, "Mr. Wonderful of 1962".

Faculty Production
"Can't make it up to New York to see a Broadway hit? Well, the faculty of Princess Anne High School is offering you, the public, the chance to see the critic award winning play, "You Can't Take It With You," by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart.

The play, under the direction of Larry Williams and Miss Anna Bland Faison, sophomore English teachers, will be given April 6 and 7 in the auditorium of Princess Anne High School.

The professional talents of Miss Peggy Moffett, Miss Roxanne Dark, Miss Betty McCauley, Mr. Hoffman, Bob Pearsall, Mr. Dean, Foy Shaw, Miss Eda McMath, Mr. Kensie, Jim Mounie, Miss Janice Barger, Carl Peterson, Miss Jean Robert, J. W. Littleton, Peter Sachon, Edwin Charles, and Miss Elizabeth Johnson promise an evening of sheer entertainment.

Princess Anne's Key Club has been busy with plans for its upcoming convention to be held March 10 and 11 at the Golden Triangle Motel.

Through its hard work, the club has high hopes and mighty good chances of winning honors in the "Single Service Division" with their "Help Fight Communism Week" sponsored recently at PA.

March 11, Saturday night of the convention, the Key Club is sponsoring the Governor's Ball. Girls from the Keyette Clubs and Tri-Hi-Y's of the area have been invited to attend as the guests of the Key Club.

Congratulations to Jay Ferguson who was elected recently to the Key Club office of division Norfolk, Princess Anne County, and Va. Beach secretary.

Good Luck to Don Smith. Don is a nominee for the Key Club office of district (Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and Washington, D.C.) secretary.

Laurels to the Cavalier basketball team upon winning their recent game with Warwick with a score of 57-53. Richard MacDonald and Mike Brown (JV) were the high scorers of the evening.

Princess Anne's Junior Varsity basketball team defeated the Farmers with a score of 66-28.

World '600' Race Slated For Charlotte Speedway

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Charlotte Motor Speedway officials this week hoisted "full-steam-ahead" banners on staging the third annual World 600 late model automobile race on Sunday, May 27.

The stepped-up pace came in the wake of Federal Court approval for speedway trustee Robert N. Robinson to arrange financing of World 600 race expenses.

Robinson issued the following statement after U.S. Federal District Judge J. B. Craven ordered short-term financing of the race:

"With the assurance of the Federal Court that the 1962 World 600 race will be held, we have now placed on sale reserved grandstand tickets to the race. Tickets may be obtained in person or by mail through the speedway's offices, 108 Liberty Life Bldg., Charlotte, N.C.

The World 600 is a 600-mile event and is sanctioned by the National Assn. for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR). With a purse of $115,000, it is the longest and richest race of its kind in the world.

Several preliminary events will also be scheduled. Robinson said, including four days of qualifying time trials May 23-26 to determine "600" starting positions.

The speedway, which opened in 1960, is now operating under Chapter X of the Federal Acts of Bankruptcy relating to corporate re-organization. Chapter X, in effect, permits a company with financial difficulties to continue operations under a Federal Court-appointed trustee.

Charlotte Motor Speedway is a high-banked 1½-mile asphalt track.

"U. S. One" Will Be TV Special

Not since the Roman roads has there been such a historic highway as "U.S. One" — and when Van Hefflin serves as host on the NBC-TV "U.S. No. 1: American Profile" program in color and black and white on Thursday evening, March 29 (7:30 - 8:30 P.M. NYT) he'll point out countless facts to prove his point.

For instance, Washington's inaugural ride took place here. So did Grant's victorious march at the end of the War Between the States.

The program takes viewers through 12 of the original 13 colonies (Delaware being the only original colony not touched by U.S. One) in its 14-state journey from Fort Kent, Maine to Key West, Florida and along its nearly 2,500 miles are six state capitals (Boston, Providence, Trenton, Richmond, Raleigh & Columbia) as well as the National capital city of Washington, D.C.

All have been visited by camera crews filming location sequences for the script written by producer Lou Hazan.

Oceana Youth Bland Winner

OCEANA — Stephen Millard, 17-year-old Princess Anne High School senior, won the Oceana Lions Club annual Bland Memorial musical competition on Feb. 13th at the Cavalier Yacht & Country Club. His winning trombone selection was Sonato No. 5 by Galliard.

Stephen, the son of Capt. and Mrs. R. E. Millard (USN) of Pine-wood Rd., Virginia Beach, has been taking trombone lessons for five years and has placed first trombone chair in the all-State High School Band for the last two years. He plans to attend either Washington & Lee University or Georgetown Univ. on his graduation from Princess Anne High School.

Vocalist Ann Powell of Princess Anne High School placed second in the competition and 12-year-old Paul McBroom of John B. Dey School placed 3rd. Other contestants in the Bland Memorial Scholarship contest were Sharon Litchfield, Allan Elliott and Glen Ellis, all students of Princess Anne High School.

The judges were Mr. Bristow Hardin, Mrs. Irene Corte and Mr. Tom Rice all of whom are affiliated with musical instruction and guidance in Princess Anne County and Va. Beach.

By winning first place in the local competition Mr. Millard is eligible to compete in the Lions Club zone competition of March 23rd at the Fraternal Order of Police Club on Kempsville. The winners of this contest will be eligible to enter the Lions Club State $1,000 Scholarship Award competition.

PATTERSON RE-ELECTED HEAD OF CARRIERS

VIRGINIA BEACH — At a meeting held Thursday, Feb. 15, Virginia Beach Branch Number 2819 of the National Assn. of Letter Carriers affiliated with the AFL-CIO held their annual election of officers.

Doyle E. Patterson was re-elected president, R. E. Padon, vice president, Alfred Y. Butler, financial secretary and treasurer, Philip Klompus, recording secretary, Leonard A. Price, sergeant-at-arms and George C. Main, board of trustees for a three-year term.

On Friday, March 23, the newly elected officials will be installed at a dinner meeting. Plans are also in progress for sending delegates from the local branch to a salary conference to be held March 5-7, 1962 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C.

Home Builders Meeting Tuesday

Mr. Julian Rashkind, President of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders, announces that the regular meeting of the membership will be held at the Golden Triangle at 6 P.M. on February 27, 1962. ## Marine Recruit Policy Changed

RICHMOND — Headquarters Marine Corps has announced policies for the assignment of first-term Marines to tours of duty.

Marine Recruiting Sergeant Robert D. Van Wart of the Marine Corps Recruiting Office, 781 Granby St., Norfolk, says the Commandant of the Marine Corps desires that first-term enlistees serve both in the Fleet Marine Force and non-Fleet Marine Force during their enlistment.

"In general," the announcement said, "recruits will be assigned initially to either formal school training followed by a Fleet Marine assignment, or directly to a Fleet Marine Force unit and subsequently to a non-Fleet Marine Force command. The increasing requirements of the Marine Corps make it mandatory that the greatest number of Marines be continually trained and available for combat units; also that security force and support establishments be ready sources for experienced combat-trained Marines."

Notes from Your COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

SAVES TIME

Older Woman: "I have my husband trained so he eats out of my hand."

Young Bride: "Saves a lot of dishwashing, doesn't it?"

THE APPROACH TO AREA DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The far-reaching program of Area Development works on both problems and potentials. One purpose is to study problem areas in our new city, plan how these problems can best be overcome, and to activate these plans.

Area Development has great potential because this gives us another great opportunity to reach deep into the city's reservoir of resources, determine where and how progress can be made to the best advantage and to instigate action programs which will develop our resources to their fullest potential.

This approach to broaden planning was conceived by the County Extension Staff when asked to be alert for new ways of assisting more people through its educational efforts. The area development idea was first presented to Norman Beale of ASCS and Aubrey Holmes of Soil Conservation Service. Interest grew, ideas changed, and the decision was made to present plans to other County agencies. The heads of the County Departments liked the plan and agreed to give the program their whole-hearted support.

Still, we were not exactly satisfied. Several leaders were called in. Among those taking an active interest in this project were Mr. Frank Kellam, business and civic leader; Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary to the County Board of Supervisors; Kenneth Whitehurst, supervisor of the Pungo District; John McCombs and Frank Tarrell, Jr., Virginia Beach councilmen; the Rev. John E. Johnson, pastor of the Bayside Presbyterian Church; Mrs. R. B. Tynes, Mrs. H. H. Devenish, and Mrs. E. F. Blake, all civic leaders of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne.

Also assisting this group are Garland Wood of the Southeastern Virginia Regional Planning Commission and Richard Fernstrom of the Tidewater Development Council.

After studying the possibilities of the area study and action programs, some 58 County and Beach leaders were nominated to serve on the committee. These are now being contacted, requesting them to serve on the Area Development Committee.

Mrs. Tynes, Mr. Webbon, Mr. Kellam and Mr. McCombs have been appointed to the executive committee to plan for the first meeting of the overall committee. This meeting will be held during the early part of March.

SCHEDULES FOR THE COMING WEEK

March 3—8:00 P.M.—Creeds Ruritan Minstrel Show, Courthouse School.

STATE SWEET POTATO ASSOCIATION FORMED

On February 1, at Parkleys, Virginia, Sweet Potato Producers from the producing areas of Virginia organized the Virginia Sweet Potato Assn. Adm. J. E. Whelchel, Sweet Potato Producer from Princess Anne County was named to serve on the Board of Directors of that State Assn.

At a later date, the State Association will very likely become a member of the Sweet Potato Council of the United States.

SPOT LIGHT SALE MARCH 14

March 14 should be observed as a "red letter" day for all Princess Anne swine producers. This day should be circled now so that nothing can interfere with you attending Virginia's first commercial gilt and spotlight boar sale.

Some 400 commercial open gilts and 30 of the State's top boars will be sold at auction to the highest bidder. The unique part of this event is the fact that prior to this date there has never been an attempt to have a sale allowing nothing but the very best in the State to be sold. All animals will have had a satisfactory test for brucellosis, leptospirosis, and tuberculosis, and treated for cholera and erysipelas by a licensed veterinarian. They will have been wormed twice and treated for lice and mange. Each individual gilt will wear an ear tag signifying that the above steps have been taken.

Only those gilts weighing 180 pounds or more, Number one fancy and Number one Choice, sired by a pure breed boar out of litters of eight or more, having at least twelve functional teeth, and meeting the above stated health standards will be offered for sale. They will have been farrowed between July 1 and October 1, 1961, and will be divided into uniformed groups according to weight, grade, and breed predominance.

The pure-bred boars offered for sale to those needing herd sires will also meet the above requirements.

The Sale will be held on March 14, at the Tidewater Livestock Sales Pavilion, in Courtland, Va.

1962 FEED GRAIN PROGRAM

What will participation in the '62 Feed Grain Program mean to farmers?

If you grow 25 acres or less of corn and grain sorghum, you can divert the entire acreage to soil conserving crops and get a payment based on 50 to 60 percent of the normal yield for the farm. To participate in the program, you must divert at least 20% of your base acreage.

For example, the farmer who grows 18 acres would have a minimum diversion of 3.6 acres and a maximum of the total 18 acres.

This will give small farmers who may not be growing feed grain efficiently a further reason to discontinue feed grain production.

Farmers who grow between 25 and 100 acres will have a minimum diversion of 20% and a maximum of 20 acres plus 20% of the base acreage.

SWINE MEETING IN SUFFOLK FEB. 27

A Swine meeting will be held at the Suffolk Hotel on Feb. 27, at 9:30 A.M. This meeting is for Extension Livestock Committee Members, representatives from the area, packers, power suppliers, feed dealers, members of the Department of Agriculture, vocational agricultural instructors, and outstanding leaders who have a special interest in the production of hogs.

The content of the meeting will include background information on hogs in Southeastern Virginia, the present situation, and what the potential is for hog production in the Southeast. May I urge all of the people involved in the swine industry to be present at this meeting.

Topdressing Small Grains

With the good weather we had last week farmers got in the fields with their fertilizer distributors to topdress small grain.

The big question in the minds of many producers at this time of the year is "What Should I Topdress with?"

She: "So, you had better go."

P.A. 4-H GIRLS RECEIVE PROJECT INSTRUCTION

Beginning on Saturday, Feb. 17, and continuing weekly for four Saturdays, Princess Anne 4-H Girls who are enrolled in the Beginner's Sewing or Meal Preparation projects have an opportunity to receive project instruction.

Miss Lois Erdman, Asst. Home Demonstration Agent, in Princess Anne County, is offering these project instruction classes on Saturdays, at 10:00, in the kitchen of the County Agricultural Building. The instruction is planned and given for 4-H Club members who do not have a local leader to offer such project instruction.

The Beginner's sewing classes have received instruction along such lines as pattern sizing, threading sewing machines, and preparation for making a simple blouse. The Meal preparation instruction has been centered around such topics as stressing breakfast foods, trying different ways to prepare and serve breakfast foods, and some have tried simple muffin recipes. These instruction periods can be very helpful to any 4-H club girl enrolled in one of these two projects who does not have a local leader to offer such project instruction.

JOAN SKIDMORE, NEW PRESIDENT OF 5-H CLUB

Among the orders of business conducted by the Rideway 5-H Club at their regular meeting on Sunday, February 4, was a change in Club officers. Because of her family's moving away from this area, Sue Jones, former elected Club president, assigned her office to acting vice-president, Joan Skidmore. In turn, Eileen Creekmore, succeeded Joan Skidmore as vice-president.

Along with the regular orders of business conducted at the Club meeting, the 5-H Club began making plans to publicize 4-H Club's during National 4-H Club Week. The promotion efforts will include such things as each club member wearing a four-leaf clover to represent the 4-H Club emblem with a horse badge as a center-piece to designate them as horse and pony club members. In the 5-H Club Meeting room, a poster which was made by Alice Edwards, secretary, will be displayed to publicize National 4-H Club Week.

COURTHOUSE SCHOOL CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH SHARE-THE-FUN PROGRAM

The Courthouse School 4-H Club, under the direction of leader Mrs. Geneva McCollum, entertained several of the grades in the Courthouse School with their Share-the-Fun Program.

Immediately following the regular business section, as conducted by President John Moulton, the Courthouse 4-H Club group presented a Share-the-Fun Program that drew much laughter and applause from the student body. Some of the excellent entertainment provided was as follows:

"I Whistle a Happy Tune", done by John Moulton.

"The Sound of Music", by Sharon Land.

"Plant a Watermelon on My Grave", Steven Hilton.

"Climb Every Mountain", by Kathy Barr, Margaret Beachum, Carol Butler, Patsy Dawley, Kathy Showers, Eileen Suggs, April Test, and Annette Patterson.

"Abe Lincoln's First Letter", a skit done by Sheila Dunham, Steve Holt, Jerry Moulton, with Abe Lincoln being portrayed by Jerry Hickman, and Sarah, Abe's sister portrayed by Tana Lou Malcolm.

"Skip to My Lou", a piano solo done by Ann Buffington.

"Moonlight Echoes", an instrument presentation by Billy Knight, Bob Venner, and Malcolm Gregory.

The 4-Hers were assisted by Mrs. Matthews on the piano, and Mr. Dawes the School Music Instructor. One or more of these acts will be used in the County-wide 4-H Share-the-Fun Contest.

LOCAL 4-H LIVESTOCK JUDGING TEAM ATTENDS DISTRICT JUDGING SCHOOL

On Saturday, February 10, two members of the County livestock judging team, along with the County Agent, and Assistant County Agent, attended a Sheep Judging School, held at Smithfield, Va., under the direction of Mr. A. N. Huff, Extension Livestock Specialist.

At this school, extensive instruction was offered on many significant points to be considered in the judging of sheep. The teams had an opportunity to receive instruction on a group of animals and then follow through by judging them themselves, and then being constructively criticized on their decisions.

This School was a second in a series of three schools to be offered for the Livestock Judging Team. The members have now received training in swine and sheep and have one more school to go which will be held on March 3rd, and centered around beef judging.

CREEDS LEADERS TO ASSIST IN PROJECT INSTRUCTION

Four local leaders in the Creeds Community are volunteering their services to offer project instruction to 4-H girls in the Creeds Club. Mrs. Bessanna Brumley and Mrs. P. L. Parsons will be helping with the new 4-H girls who are enrolled in the Beginner Sewing Project, and Mrs. Delores Whitehurst & Mrs. Twiford Williams, will be helping the 2nd year girls in the Sewing Project. The instruction will be given in the homes of the local leaders.

Y e dYnJr j j This is another example of the major role in the county 4-H program portrayed by volunteer adult leaders.
